

DELIGHT

BY AMY LUDWIG VANDERWATER

Nature does not have a lost and found table
for summer feathers
and so
the woodpecker
who dropped
this black and white
piece of himself
has let it go forever.
A bit of beauty
a spotted charm
on the sidewalk
for free.
Found a feather.
Finder keepers.
Lucky me.

Elite/late Poems 197175:

Elite/late Poems Jonathan Williams, 1979      The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation's postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works

Avant-Folk: Small Press Poetry Networks from 1950 to the Present Ross Hair, 2016-11-01 A critical study of the intersection of folk and avant garde poetics in transatlantic small press poetry networks from the 1950s up to the present

This Compost Jed Rasula, 2012-09-01 Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves In This Compost Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Robert Duncan and their successors But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers Ezra Pound Louis Zukofsky Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser as well as Clayton Eshleman Gary Snyder Michael McClure and other contemporary poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry This Compost restores the dialogue between poetic language and the geophysical biological realm of nature that so much postmodern discourse has sought to silence It is a fully developed carefully argued book that deals with an underrepresented element in modern American culture where the natural world and those who write about it have been greatly neglected in contemporary literary history and theory

Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30 Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago But aside from a few notable exceptions gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings Conversely most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work This reference is a guide to their creative achievements Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post Stonewall U S some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades A number of these writers are well known including Edward Albee Harvey Fierstein and Allen Ginsberg Others such as Alan Bowne Timothy Liu and Robert O Hara merit wider recognition Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies

Jonathan Williams: Lord of Orchards Jeffery Beam, Richard Owens, 2017-09-12 Jonathan Williams work of more than half a century is such that no one activity or identity takes primacy over any other he was the seminal small press publisher of The Jargon Society a poet of considerable stature book designer editor photographer legendary correspondent literary art and photography critic and collector early collector and proselytizer of visionary folk art cultural anthropologist and Juvenalian critic curmudgeon happy gardener resolute walker and keen and adroit raconteur and gourmand Williams refined decorum and speech and his sartorial style contrasted sharply yet pleasingly with his delight in the bawdy with his incisive humor and social criticism and his confidently experimental masterful poems and prose His interests raised the common to grace while paying close attention to the earthy At the forefront of the Modernist avant garde yet possessing a deep appreciation of the traditional Williams celebrated rescued and preserved those things he described as more and more away from the High Art of the city settling for what I could unearth and respect in the tall grass Subject to much indifference despite being celebrated as publisher and poet he nurtured the nascent careers of hundreds of emerging or neglected poets writers artists and photographers Recognizing this Buckminster Fuller once called him our Johnny Appleseed Guy Davenport described him as a kind of polytechnic institute while Hugh Kenner hailed Jargon as the Custodian of Snowflakes and Williams as the truffle hound of American poetry Lesser known for his extraordinary letters and essays and his photography and art collecting he is never only a poet or photographer an essayist or publisher This book of essays images and shouts aims to bring new eyes and contexts to his influence and talent as poet and publisher but also heighten appreciation for the other facets of his life and art One might call Williams life a poetics of gathering and this book a first harvest

The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1998 For over a hundred years stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world For many writers photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous As Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art Contemporary Poets, Dramatists, Essayists, and Novelists of the South Robert A. Bain, Joseph M. Flora, 1994-11-07

From the early 20th century to the present Southern literary talent has flourished The newer poets dramatists essayists and novelists of this region often use their writings to explore the changing social values of the South while also drawing upon traditional Southern values and culture This reference work is a guide to the writings of 50 contemporary Southern poets dramatists essayists and novelists Many of the authors profiled in this volume have established themselves as writers of lasting significance However the book also profiles the careers and work of authors who are emerging only now as masters of their art Each chapter in this book is devoted to a single author and arranged alphabetically for the reader s convenience Each is written by an expert on the author and includes a biographical sketch a discussion of major themes a survey of criticism and a bibliography of works by and about the author An introductory essay overviews modern Southern writing and a selected general bibliography concludes the work Literature & Photography Interactions, 1840-1990 Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1995 This remarkable book traces comprehensively for the first time the give and take between these sister arts by gathering writings about photography and photographs by and of writers from England Europe and the United States over the last century and a half
