101 African Americans Who Shaped South Carolina Bernard E. Powers, Jr.,2020-10-12 The first people of African descent to live in what is now South Carolina enslaved people living in the sixteenth century Spanish settlements of San Miguel de Gualdape and Santa Elena arrived even before the first permanent English settlement was established in 1670 For more than 350 years South Carolina s African American population has had a significant influence on the state s cultural economic and political development 101 African Americans Who Shaped South Carolina depicts the long presence and profound influence people of African descent have had on the Palmetto State Each entry offers a brief description of an individual with ties to South Carolina who played a significant role in the history of the state nation and in some cases world Drawing upon the landmark text The South Carolina Encyclopedia edited by Walter Edgar the combined entries offer a concise and approachable history of the state and the African Americans who have shaped it A foreword is provided by Walter Edgar Neuffer Professor of Southern Studies Emeritus and Distinguished Professor Emeritus of History at the University of South Carolina

South Carolina Women Marjorie Julian Spruill,2010-01-25 The biographical essays in this volume provide new insights into the various ways that South Carolina women asserted themselves in their state and illuminate the tension between tradition and change that defined the South from the Civil War through the Progressive Era As old rules including gender conventions that severely constrained southern women were dramatically bent if not broken these women carved out new roles for themselves and others The volume begins with a profile of Laura Towne and Ellen Murray who founded the Penn School on St Helena Island for former slaves Subsequent essays look at such women as the five Rollin sisters members of a prominent black family who became passionate advocates for women s rights during Reconstruction writer Josephine Pinckney who helped preserve African American spirituals and explored conflicts between the New and Old South in her essays and novels and Dr Matilda Evans the first African American woman licensed to practice medicine in the state Intractable racial attitudes often caused women to follow separate but parallel paths as with Louisa B Poppenheim and Marion B Wilkinson Poppenheim who was white and Wilkinson who was black were both driving forces in the women s club movement Both saw clubs as a way not only to help women and children but also to showcase these positive changes to the wider nation Yet the two women worked separately as did the white and black state federations of women s clubs Often mixing deference with daring these women helped shape their society through such avenues as education religion politics community organizing history the arts science and medicine Women in the mid and late twentieth century would build on their accomplishments
