Elizabeth Bowen, 2019-10-15 A beautiful hardcover edition of the collected short stories of one of the best short story writers who ever lived Newsweek with an introduction by the Booker Prize winning author of The Sea Widely known for her extraordinary novels including The Heat of the Day The House in Paris and The Death of the Heart Elizabeth Bowen established herself in the front rank of twentieth century writers equally through her short fiction This collection includes seventy nine magnificent stories written over the course of four decades including such beloved classics as Mysterious K r The Demon Lover Summer Night Ivy Grippd the Steps and The Happy Autumn Fields Whether placing her reader in a remote Irish castle or a seaside Italian villa or bomb scarred London during the Blitz Bowen was famous for scene setting of almost hallucinatory vividness but her ability to evoke inner landscapes of spellbinding intensity was even more remarkable Frustrated lovers acutely observed children and even vengeful ghosts inhabit her tales with an urgency and emotional complexity that make it clear that the drama of human consciousness was her central subject These stories are enduring testimony to Bowen s reputation as a creator of finely chiseled narratives rich in imagination psychological insight and craft that transcend their time and place Elizabeth Bowen's Irish Stories Elizabeth Bowen, 1978 Elizabeth Bowen, an

Estimation Hermione Lee, 1981 A biography of the acclaimed Anglo Irish novelist follows the formation of her character and the growth of her art from her childhood in a great ancestral manor to her discovery of America and international fame

Elizabeth Bowen Neil Corcoran, 2004-09-16 Explores how Bowen adapts Irish Protestant Gothic as a means of interpreting Irish experience during the Troubles of the 1920s and the Second World War and also as a way of defining the defenselessness of those enduring the Blitz in wartime London She employs versions of the Jamesian child as a way of offering a critique of the treatment of children in the European novel of adultery and indeed implicitly of the Jamesian child itself Corcoran relates the various kinds of return and reflex in her work notably the presence of the supernatural but also the sense of being haunted by reading to both the Freudian concept of the return of the repressed and T S Eliot s conception of the auditory imagination as a return to the origin Ivy Grippd the Steps Elizabeth Bowen, 1946 Gedächtnisräume

Laurence, 2021-07-21 Elizabeth Bowen A Literary Life reinvents Bowen as a public intellectual propagandist spy cultural ambassador journalist and essayist as well as a writer of fiction Patricia Laurence counters the popular image of Bowen as a mannered reserved Anglo Irish writer and presents her as a bold independent woman who took risks and made her own rules in life and writing This biography distinguishes itself from others in the depth of research into the life experiences that fueled Bowen s writing her espionage for the British Ministry of Information in neutral Ireland 1940 1941 and the devoted circle of friends lovers intellectuals and writers whom she valued Isaiah Berlin William Plomer Maurice Bowra Stuart Hampshire Charles Ritchie Sean O Faolain Virginia Woolf Rosamond Lehmann and Eudora Welty among others The biography also demonstrates how her feelings of irresolution about national identity and gender roles were dispelled through her writing Her vivid fiction often about girls and women is laced with irony about smooth social surfaces rent by disruptive emotion the sadness of beleaguered adolescents the occurrence of cultural dislocation historical atmosphere as well as undercurrents of violence in small events and betrayal and disappointment in romance Her strong visual imagination so much a part of the texture of her writing traces places scenes landscapes and objects that subliminally reveal hidden aspects of her characters Though her reputation faltered in the 1960s 1970s given her political and social conservatism now readers are discovering her passionate and poetic temperament and writing as well as the historical consciousness behind her worldly exterior and writing Bowen's Court ; &, Seven Winters Elizabeth Bowen,1942 The Unappeasable Host Robert Tracy,1998 The Unappeasable Host Studies in Irish Identities explores some of the tensions created when Anglo Irish writers Protestant in religion of non Irish ancestry reflected upon their preferred subject matter Ireland and their unhyphenated Catholic contemporaries These tensions involve the writers sense of anxiety about their own membership in the Irish community and at the same time their anxiety about losing their distinctive identity Anglo Irish writers founded modern Irish literature in English identifying themselves with their native country and its people Yet they often felt themselves surrounded and watched by an Unappeasable Host a population that resented them Robert Tracy discusses Irish writers who in England were considered Irish in Ireland English including Maria Edgeworth and Lady Morgan the Banim brothers Roger O Connor Sheridan Le Fanu W B Yeats J M Synge Elizabeth Bowen together with James Joyce who although neither of English ancestry nor Protestant similarly focuses on individuals separated or excluded from the Irish life around them British Short-fiction Writers, 1915-1945 John Headley Rogers,1996 Essays on authors of the short story that had its origins in the mid nineteenth century and reached its maturity in England in the twentieth century The modern British short story grew slowly following by nearly fifty years the origins of this form in the United States France and Russia Discusses why several features of nineteenth century English life may have delayed the development of this literary form Bowen's Court Elizabeth Bowen,1942 Elizabeth Bowen Eibhear Walshe,2009 This innovative series meets the urgent need for comprehensive new accounts of Irish writing across the centuries which combine readability with critical authority and information with insight Each volume addresses the whole range of a writer s work in the various genres setting its vision of the world in biographical context and situating it within the intellectual cultural and political currents of the age in Ireland and the wider world This series will prove indispensable for students and specialists alike Book jacket Elegy for Iris John Bayley,1999-11-20 Elegy for Iris is a luminous memoir about the beauty of youth and of aging and a celebration of a brilliant life and an undying love So John Bayley describes his life with his wife Iris Murdoch who has Alzheimer s Who's Who
