scholarship across disciplines including Holocaust studies trauma studies and science fiction studies The conventional discourse around the Holocaust is one of the unapproachable unknowable and the unimaginable The Holocaust has been compared to an earthquake another planet another universe a void It has been said to be beyond language or else have its own incomprehensible language beyond art and beyond thought The othering of the event has spurred the phenomenon of non realist Holocaust literature engaging with speculative fiction and its history of the uncanny the grotesque and the inhuman This book examines the most common forms of nonmimetic Holocaust fiction the dystopia and the alternate history while firmly positioning these forms within a broader pattern of non realist engagements with the Holocaust
