B. Nisbet,Claude Rawson,2005-12-08 This is a comprehensive 1997 account of the history of literary criticism in Britain and Europe between 1660 and 1800 Unlike previous histories it is not just a chronological survey of critical writing but a multidisciplinary investigation of how the understanding of literature and its various genres was transformed at the start of the modern era by developments in philosophy psychology the natural sciences linguistics and other disciplines as well as in society at large In the process modern literary theory at first often implicit in literary texts themselves emancipated itself from classical poetics and rhetoric and literary criticism emerged as a full time professional activity catering for an expanding literate public The volume is international both in coverage and in authorship Extensive bibliographies provide guidance for further specialised study      Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1997      The Oxford Magazine ,1899      Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1865      The Living Age ,1865      Stylistic Virtue and Victorian Fiction Matthew Sussman,2021-07-01 What is style and why does it matter This book answers these questions by recovering the concept of stylistic virtue once foundational to rhetoric and aesthetics but largely forgotten today Stylistic virtues like ease and grace are distinguishing properties that help realize a text s essential character First described by Aristotle they were integral to the development of formalist methods and modern literary criticism The first half of the book excavates the theory of stylistic virtue during its period of greatest ascendance in the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries when belletristic rhetoric shaped how the art of literary style and the aesthetic were understood The second half offers new readings of Thackeray Trollope and Meredith to show how stylistic virtue changes our understanding of style in the novel and challenges conventional approaches to interpreting the ethics of art     Littell's Living Age ,1865     The Testimony of Sense Tim Milnes,2019 This book offers a new account of the relationship between empiricism and the essay in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Exploring topics such as trust testimony virtue and language it offers new perspectives on connections between philosophy and literature empiricism and transcendentalism and Enlightenment and Romanticism     Athenaeum ,1845     Education Outlook ,1900     Educational Times ,1901     Literature ,1899     The Athenaeum ,1903     The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson,Ian Roy Willison,1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries     The Athenæum ,1845     The Delineator ,1921     Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art ,1895 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910
