Hayward, 1871 Film and the Nuclear Age Toni A. Perrine, 2019-01-22 Just as we generally pay scant attention to the potential dangers of nuclear power and nuclear war until quite recently scholars have made limited critical attempts to understand the cultural manifestations of the nuclear status quo Films that feature nuclear issues most often simplify and trivialize the subject They also convey a sense of the ambivalence and anxiety that pervades cultural responses to our nuclear capability The production of popular narrative films with nuclear topics largely conforms to periods of heightened nuclear awareness or fear such as the fear of fallout from nuclear testing manifested in the atomic creatures in science fiction movies of the late 1950s By their very numbers and through a set of recurring stylistic and narrative conventions nuclear films reflect a deep seated cultural anxiety This study includes detailed textual analysis of films that depict nuclear issues including the development and use of the first atomic bombs nuclear testing and the fear of fallout nuclear power the Cold War arms race loose nukes and future nuclear war and its aftermath Includes bibliographic references index filmography chronology Illustrated Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F. Shapiro, 2013-05-13 Unfathomably merciless and powerful the atomic bomb has left its indelible mark on film In Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F. Shapiro unearths the unspoken legacy of the bombing of Nagasaki and Hiroshima and its complex aftermath in American and Japanese cinema According to Shapiro a Bomb film is never simply an exercise in ideology or paranoia He examines hundreds of films like Godzilla Dr Strangelove and The Terminator as a body of work held together by ancient narrative and symbolic traditions that extol survival under devastating conditions Drawing extensively on both English language and Japanese language sources Shapiro argues that such films not only grapple with our nuclear anxieties but also offer signs of hope that humanity is capable of repairing a damaged and divided world www.atomicbombcinema.com Cape Town - A City Imagined Stephen Watson, 2012-10-09
