Walker remodelled. A new critical pronouncing dictionary of the English language, adapted to the present state of literature and science ... By B. H. Smart John WALKER (the Philologist.), Benjamin Humphrey Smart, 1836 Pedagogies of Taking Care Dennis Atkinson, 2022-06-30 This book traces the notion of care and civic values in education that are largely devalued today by neoliberal economic concerns Through a discussion of educators and philosophers including Arendt Foucault Guattari Patocka Simondon Stengers and Whitehead Atkinson explores the gift of otherness in relation to an ethico politics of pedagogic practice and learning including art education He argues for pedagogical practices that facilitate and support each learner s pathways through what is called a pedagogy of taking care This involves paying due attention with empathy to each learner s pathway of learning and to the difference and divergence of such pathways It also requires the teacher to take care to be vigilant towards their own pedagogical frameworks that inform pedagogical work particularly when a student or child produces work that does not accord with such frameworks Atkinson not only critiques current educational policy but advocates possible futures of being not dominated by the neoliberal tools of force and power Pedagogies of taking care allow us to think differently about education and art education and reevaluate it s meaning within research classrooms non formal contexts of education and cultural institutions Postscript Andrea Andersson, 2018-01-01 Postscript is the first collection of writings on the subject of conceptual writing by a diverse field of scholars in the realms of
