The contributions cover a broad spectrum of topics including clitics, nominalizations, participles, the dual, verbal prefixes, assimilation, verbal and adjectival morphology, lexical stress, vowel reduction, focus particles, aspect, multiple WH-fronting, definiteness, polar questions, negation words, and argument structure in such languages as BCMS, Bulgarian, Czech, Macedonian, Polish, Russian, Slovenian, Ukrainian, and Upper Sorbian. The wide range of topics explored in this volume underscores the diversity and complexity of Slavic languages. The contributions not only advance our understanding of languages belonging to the Slavic group but also offer fresh perspectives for linguistics more broadly.

Drop It! Ryan Lessard, 2003-02-26 So who is Ryan Lessard? For a long time he was the produce guy, as this is the only contact I'd ever had with him, seeing him stock produce at a local supermarket at which we both worked. We never discussed the ripeness of lettuce or what season was best for growing tomatoes, and whereas I'm sure neither of us lost much sleep over that fact, what is unfortunate is that it took almost 10 years before I knew that he was much more than just the produce guy. Ryan is not just a poet or a writer; for that matter, he's what I call a reactive visionary. He's not a prophet; he simply sees. And then he writes. His poetry comes from all elements of life, things that he embraces and expresses to the fullest. His words are honest and powerful without being overtly obvious or strung out with clichés and typicality; his mind is a maze one you will want to get lost in and lose yourself in time and time again. There isn't enough poetry like this in the world. It's gut wrenching but not vomit inducing like a lot of so-called modern poetry. It'll trap you yet it's irresistibly inviting. His words are many things forgettable is not one of them. Kenneth Wood, Author of The Silent Winds of October. He paints the canvas of the mind with the color of thought. What is real remains the same, and what was once surreal becomes more than that. A catalyst for the movement, he too is a ready man prepared for the cascaded journey ahead. Remembering the past, recognizing the now, and understanding the randomness of the future that may be encountered: no sunrise will go unnoticed, the sun will not set until the task at hand is complete. The illumination places him in his own reflection, forcing the confirmation of his existence and the evaluation of ours. The power lies within him; it's on the mind. Liam Ahearn, Author of Floating Back To the Present Tense.

The Solipsism of Modern Fiction Harold Kaplan,2017-07-05 In The Solipsism of Modern Fiction Harold Kaplan deals with the problem of action and its adequate motive in the modern novel In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries modern scientific knowledge abandoned the human centred view of the universe and thus the fictional modes that had been rooted in religion or myth The result for fiction was a radical skepticism on the part of the protagonist who now appeared as a reflective self critical passive figure lacking the dynamism of the epic hero or religious seeker One response to the scientific worldview was the naturalism of Zola and his followers in which the action of characters is determined by social or biological forces Kaplan however focuses his study on such novelists as Flaubert Joyce Conrad Faulkner Lawrence and Hemingway who dramatised the isolated individual consciousness in contention with the world and with the ambiguity of their own motivations The Solipsism of Modern Fiction deals with several related topics that grow from one source the crisis of knowledge in modern intellectual history The effects of solipsism and of moral passivity the split consciousness that divides action and understanding the perspectives of primitive naturalism and stoic naturalism the variations of the comic mood and the example of tragedy are all themes that are dramatised in Kaplan s readings of Madame Bovary Light in August Ulysses Lord Jim and other exemplary modern novels that associate themselves with the problem of self criticism knowing and acting Written by one of the outstanding literary scholars of our time this book will inspire new generations of readers and writers

Tonal Accents in Norwegian Allison Wetterlin,2010-09-29 Tonal accents in Norwegian Phonology morphology and lexical specification breaks from the traditional and contemporary analyses of word accent in North Germanic with the goal of providing a more simplex and unified morphophonological analysis of word accents in North Germanic It gives the facts of accent distribution in Standard East Norwegian discusses how three of the more recent and most important analyses of accent assignment in Norwegian and Swedish deal with these facts and provides an alternative analysis Given that many Accent 1 words are loans the book also discusses how loanword incorporated in East Norwegian and other North Germanic dialects and the question of why loans predominantly bear Accent 1 Although the focus of the book is word accent assignment in Standard East Norwegian it also refers to Central Swedish and Old Norse In this way it accounts for many aspects of accent assignment the true nature of which might have gone undetected had only one of the North Germanic language been taken into consideration The book also dedicates one chapter to the phonetics of the tonal contrast

Addressing the question of how perceptually salient the tonal contrast is W.B. Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Sean Pryor,2016-02-24 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor s ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor s discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature Glamour in Six Dimensions Judith Brown,2018-09-05

Glamour is an alluring but elusive concept We most readily associate it with fashion industrial design and Hollywood of the Golden Age and yet it also shaped the language and interests of high modernism In Glamour in Six Dimensions Judith Brown looks at the historical and aesthetic roots of glamour in the early decades of the twentieth century arguing that glamour is the defining aesthetic of modernism In the clean lines of modernism she finds the ideal conditions for glamour blankness polish impenetrability and the suspicion of emptiness behind it all Brown focuses on several cultural products that she argues helped to shape glamour s meanings the most significant perfume of the twentieth century Chanel No 5 the idea of the Jazz Age and its ubiquitous cigarette the celebrity photograph the staging of primitivism and the invention of a shimmering plastic called cellophane Alongside these artifacts she takes up the development refinement and analysis of glamour in Anglo American poetry film fiction and drama of the period Glamour in Six Dimensions thus asks its reader to see the proximity between the vernacular and elite cultures of modernism and particularly how glamour was animated by artists working at the crossroads of the mundane and the extraordinary Wallace Stevens F Scott Fitzgerald Virginia Woolf Josephine Baker D H Lawrence Gertrude Stein Nella Larsen and others
