Florence A City With A View:

City Views in the Habsburg and Medici Courts Ryan E. Gregg, 2018-12-10 In City Views in the Habsburg and Medici Courts Ryan E Gregg relates how Charles V Holy Roman Emperor and Duke Cosimo I of Tuscany employed city view artists such as Anton van den Wyngaerde and Giovanni Stradano to aid in constructing authority These artists produced a specific style of city view that shared affinity with Renaissance historiographic practice in its use of optical evidence and rhetorical techniques History has tended to see city views as accurate recordings of built environments Bringing together ancient and Renaissance texts archival material and fieldwork in the depicted locations Gregg demonstrates that a close knit school of city view artists instead manipulated settings to help persuade audiences of the truthfulness of their patrons official narratives Florence Mario Sabbieti, 2002-09-21 No visitors to Florence will ever forget their first view from the surrounding hills of the city s roofs and domes From a distance this extraordinary panorama exerts its influence but it is in the winding streets of the old city centre with its bustling life its varied sights sounds and smells that Florence excites the senses in a way like no other place on earth Italy is home to a vast quantity of the world s cultural treasures and Florence itself is rich in medieval and Renaissance artefacts both artistic and architectural This book guides the first time visitor through this cultural treasure trove and sheds light on the beauty and importance of the masterpieces on display For those familiar with Florence the volume shows an unfamiliar face of an old friend presenting some of the city s famous monuments and palaces in a new and distinctive manner with a blend of stunning photography and a focus on the hidden everyday details that somehow capture the very spirit of the place The result is a vivid living portrait of this unique and ancient city
