Playwrights on Playwriting Toby Cole, 2001-04-03 For anyone interested in drama Playwrights on Playwriting From Ibsen to Ionesco offers revealing and astute insights on modern theater and the creation of plays The book gathers the opinions and theories of the greatest names in the past 200 years of drama among them Anton Chekhov George Bernard Shaw Federico Garcia Lorca Eugene O'Neill Bertolt Brecht Tennessee Williams Sean O'Casey and Arthur Miller to name a few In the first part of the book Credos and Concepts the playwrights offer their differing philosophies on the dynamics of theatrical performance and the changes in drama since Aristotle In the second part Creations the same dramatists look at specific plays of their own commenting on their intended goals and the works overall success A unique and enlightening collection Playwrights on Playwriting is an essential resource for the enthusiast of theater

Their Other Side Helen Barolini, 2009-08-25 Our lives are Swiss Emily Dickinson wrote in 1859 So still so cool But over the Alps Italy stands the other side For Dickinson as for many other writers and artists Italy has been the land of light a seductive source of invention enchantment and freedom So it was for Helen Barolini who as a student in Rome after World War II wrote her first poetry and gave birth to her own creative life reinvigorating her mother tongue In this book Barolini celebrates the lives of other women whose imaginations succumbed to the lure of Italy Here Barolini profiles six gifted women transformed by Italy's mythic appeal Unlike Barolini herself they were not daughters of the great Italian diaspora Rather they were drawn to an idea of Italy and its gifts in whose welcome a new self could be created Or discovered Emily Dickinson traveled to Italy only in the imaginative genius of her verse Margaret Fuller struggled alongside her Italian lover in the political revolutions that gave birth to the Italian Republic while the novelist and short story writer Constance Fennimore Woolson found her home in Venice and Florence Here too is the flamboyant artist Mabel Dodge Luhan entertaining at her villa near Florence and Marguerite Chapin of Connecticut who married an Italian prince and in Rome founded the premier literary review of the mid century Botteghe Oscure Finally here is Iris Cutting Origo the Anglo American heiress who with her Italian nobleman husband built a Tuscan estate where she wrote acclaimed biographies and created a refuge from Mussolini's fascism Linking these lives Barolini shows is the transforming catalyst of change in a new land Their Other Side is a wise warm and deeply felt literary journey that brilliantly captures the enduring effects of Italy as a place a culture and an experience The Fatal Gift of Beauty: The Italies of British Travellers Manfred Pfister,2023-04-12 This is the first anthology of British travel writing on Italy which traces the development of the genre and the history of the British perception of Italy from the Renaissance to the present As an anthologie raissonne e it presents the texts in thematic clusters and chronological order providing commentary and annotations for each of them and their nearly hundred authors some of them like Smollett Byron Dickens or Huxley well known others virtually unknown amongst them many unduly neglected women writers Further features are a substantial introduction to the travelogue and the writing of Italy more than thirty illustrations visualizing the British experience of Italy and an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary sources The Penguin Guide to Italy, 1989 Barbara Hults,1988-10 Sound accurate advice is the hallmark of this handy guide to Italy Everything from accommodations to attractions is included in fifteen separate sections Special suggestions recommend out of the way places that make a trip memorable The Time Traveler's Almanac Ann VanderMeer,Jeff VanderMeer,2014-03-18 The Time Traveler's Almanac is the largest and most definitive collection of time travel stories ever assembled Gathered into one volume by intrepid chrononauts and world renowned anthologists Ann and Jeff VanderMeer this book compiles more than a century's worth of literary travels into the past and the future that will serve to reacquaint readers with beloved classics of the time travel genre and introduce them to thrilling contemporary innovations This marvelous volume includes nearly seventy journeys through time from authors such as Douglas Adams Isaac Asimov Ray Bradbury William Gibson Ursula K Le Guin George R R Martin Michael Moorcock H G Wells and Connie Willis as well as helpful non fiction articles original to this volume such as Charles Yu's Top Ten Tips For Time Travelers In fact this book is like a time machine of its very own covering millions of years of Earth's history from the age of the dinosaurs through to strange and fascinating futures spanning the ages from the beginning of time to its very end The Time Traveler's Almanac is the ultimate anthology for the time traveler in your life At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Narratives of Travel and Tourism Tijana Rakic,2016-04-22 Travel and tourism stories have been told and recorded within every culture in every period of oral and written history and across the breadth of the fact fiction continuum Taking two broad themes as its starting point travellers and their narratives and place narratives in travel and tourism the book has a deliberately wide scope with different chapters addressing the subject through various relevant lenses and in relation to a number of different contexts The narratives discussed include both historical and contemporary as well as real life and fictional narratives contained within travel writing travel and tourism stories and different types of media In relation to the principal themes of the book some chapters also explore the importance of collecting memorabilia and image making in the recording remembering writing telling or disseminating of stories about travel and tourism experiences and some examine the ways in which travel and tourism narratives may construct and reinforce personal collective and place identities The whole book is marked by an over arching concern for narrative interpretation as a means of understanding and providing a new perspective on travel and tourism

Literature and Identity in Italian Baroque Travel Writing Nathalie Hester,2016-12-05 This first full length study in English on seventeenth century Italian travel writing enriches our understanding of an unusually fertile period for Italian contributions to the genre The intrinsic qualities of this literature can now be grasped in terms of the larger question of cultural identity in Italy For Hester the specifically literary characteristics of Italian travel writing including its humanism or Petrarchism highlight the classic eminence throughout Europe of a prestigious tradition inherent to Italy one compensating then for the peninsula's lack of a national political identity Appeals to the cultural authority of that tradition represent a means of addressing and overcoming anxieties about the Italian subject's diasporic status during the Golden Age of European global colonial expansion Self-funded travelers Francesco Carletti Pietro Della Valle Francesco Belli Francesco Negri and Giovanni Francesco Gemelli Careri are the major authors studied who journeyed through Europe the Middle East Asia and America

The Whole Literature Catalogue Mary Clark, 1983 Expat Christina Henry de Tesson, 2002-06-20 This book chronicles the experiences of 22 women living overseas

Beyond the Traveller's Gaze Giorgia Alù, 2008 This book offers a stimulating analysis of three non-canonical texts in different genres written by British women who lived in Sicily in the second half of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries These texts cover a series of crucial political events as well as social and cultural changes which affected the history of Sicily during the period in question all seen through the direct and indirect experiences of the authors The book offers a historical perspective on the late Victorian and Edwardian representations of post-Unification Italy At the same time the author challenges current critical literature on travel writing which tends to analyse travel texts without making substantial distinction between works written during a brief visit to a foreign country and those produced during a long term or permanent residence The book adopts an interdisciplinary comparative approach The three texts are studied by looking at patterns of connection in other written and visual works produced during or after an experience in Italy By drawing on theories of travel writing genre and gender along with visual and cultural studies the author aims to verify how the three texts respond to being analysed as a distinct group and hence define the specific roles and functions of expatriate women's writing

Women and the Politics of Travel, 1870-1914 Monica Anderson, 2006 Other questions of both general and critical interest such as vestimentary display in its guise as exhibitionary colonialist language are also raised Jacket

Traveling Through Egypt Deborah Manley, 2008-02-01 Egypt is one of the two wings of the world and the excellences of which it can boast are countless Its metropolis is the dome of Islam its river the most splendid of rivers al Muqaddasi c 1000 To travelers Egypt is a place of dreams a country whose lifeblood is a mighty river flowing from the heart of Africa Along the fertile fringe of its banks an astonishing civilization raised spectacular monuments that our modern minds can hardly encompass For centuries this past dominated travelers' minds yet the present and its great buildings too engaged their interest and admiration and gave them pleasure The experience of Egypt has over the centuries inspired travelers to write of what they saw and tried to understand These travelers observations are part of the history of modern Egypt for seeing ourselves through others eyes helps us to understand ourselves The compilers of this anthology have selected records of travelers from many countries and cultures over many centuries and mainly using the Nile for a pathway here offer these travelers observations on the many facets of Egypt The collection includes extracts from the writings of Herodotus Strabo Ibn Hawkal al Muqaddasi Pierre Loti Rudyard Kipling Florence Nightingale and many more
