The aim is to explore the various ways in which Hiroshima is remembered but also to consider the ongoing legacy and impact of atomic warfare the reverberations of which remain powerfully felt The Japanese and the War Michael Lucken, 2017-02-28 Memories of World War II exert a powerful influence over Japan's culture and society In The Japanese and the War Michael Lucken details how World War II manifested in the literature art film funerary practices and education reform of the time Concentrating on the years immediately before and after 1937 to 1952 Lucken explores the creation of an idea of Japanese identity that still resonates in everything from soap operas to the response to the Fukushima nuclear disaster Lucken defines three distinct layers of Japan's memory of World War II the population's expectations at the beginning the trauma caused by conflict and defeat and the politics of memory that arose after Japan lost to the Allied powers Emphasizing Japanese language sources Lucken writes a narrative of the making of Japanese cultural memory that moves away from Western historical modes and perspectives His approach also paints a new portrait of the U S occupation while still maintaining a cultural focus Lucken sets out to capture the many ways people engage with war but particularly the full range of Japan's experiences which he argues the Japanese state has yet to fully confront leading to a range of tensions at home and abroad New Zealand Journal of Crop and Horticultural Science/Experimental Agriculture ,1989 Flowers, Dragons & Pine Trees Mary M. disaster Case studies include the earthquake that shook Lisbon in 1755 and the bombing of Hiroshima Sensorium Barbara Bolt, Felicity Colman, Graham Jones, 2021-02-10 This book presents a timely reconfiguration of the relations between art philosophy ethics and aesthetics Through connection with a range of contemporary social and philosophical issues and movements this collection of essays highlights the imperative of sensorial aesthetics. The book focuses on the radical philosophical approach to aesthetics enabled by the works of Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Gilles Deleuze From these philosophers an older meaning of aesthetic has been recalled Before it indicated primarily the theory of art and beauty aesthetic referred to the sensibility the capacity to receive sensations In summoning this sensorial meaning of aesthetics in their respective works Lyotard Deleuze and other recent thinkers turn the philosophical theory of aesthetics away from the dominance of cognitivist and reception theories and towards a thinking of aesthetics through considerations of the movements of matter affect and sensation This vital transformation of aesthetics in turn allows a reconfiguration of the relationship between the domains of art aesthetics and philosophy If aesthetics focuses on sensation rather than cognition then artists musicians and philosophers alike appear not only as phenomenological and empirical thinkers but as experimenters with the parameters of the sensible able to extend our perceptual interface with the world Rather than artists deferring to philosophers in regard to the meaning of their works this new understanding of aesthetics suggests that philosophers ought to defer to artists who are understood as inventers in the realm of sensibility
