 Gautier s poetry merits an attentive reading which respects his own essential criterion of poeticity namely textuality This is a poetry which puts on display its literariness that is its existence as cultural artifact In so doing however it also puts on display the absence of and its resistance to whatever personal or real signified it would evoke or name Its beauty and self indulgent pleasure reveal their hollowness and inadequacy Its chiseled polished surface renders its borders or limits and its play unsatisfyingly and teasingly perceptible Its very superficiality allows invites and seduces the reader to go entre les lignes and perceive the mystery not of what has been symbolically buried unburied concealed revealed but of the truly absent the ab mes superficiels Chapter 1 focusing on texts from the Po sies of 1830 studies the intextual repetition of Gautier s poetry the citations imitations and transpositions which make evident the poetry s displacement of the significant and the personal into aesthetic simulacra Chapter 2 deals with the poems of Gautier s second collection Albertus and analyzes the use of allegory and of humor as further markers of textual substitution The inherent lifelessness and illusoriness of the textual artifact is revealed in the poems of La Com die de la Mort the collection examined in chapter 3 Chapter 4 analyzes the so called descriptive referential poetry of Espa a and finds that the monde ext rieur of Gautier s poetry functions to express an absence of self and is itself always shown to be other than the Other The diminution of the poetic effected in Emaux et Cam esis is the subject of chapter 5 and chapter 6 deals with the contextuality the fetishism and the eroticism revealed in a miscellany of poems in particular the libertine poems which do not figure in Gautier s five major collections By short circuiting significations and transforming them into seductive appearances Gautier reveals himself to be the acknowledged ma tre of both Baudelaire and Mallarm Three Gothic Novels Horace Walpole, Mary Shelley, William Beckford, 1974-06-27 The Gothic novel which flourished from about 1765 until 1825 revels in the horrible and the supernatural in suspense and exotic settings This volume with its erudite introduction by Mario Praz presents three of the most celebrated Gothic novels The Castle of Otranto published pseudonymously in 1765 is one of the first of the genre and the most truly Gothic of the three Vathek 1786 an oriental tale by an eccentric millionaire exotically combines Gothic romanticism with the vivacity of The Arabian Nights and is a narrative tour de force The story of Frankenstein 1818 and the monster he created is as spine chilling today as it ever was as in all Gothic novels horror is the keynote The Diary of Anaïs Nin, 1934-1939 Anaïs Nin, 1970-03-25 The second volume of one of the most remarkable diaries in the history of letters Los Angeles Times Beginning with the author s arrival in New York this diary recounts Ana s Nin s work as a psychoanalyst and is filled with the stories of her analytical patients as well as her musings over the challenges facing the artist in the modern world The diary of this remarkably daring and candid woman provides a deeply intimate look inside her mind as well as a fascinating chapter in her tumultuous life in
