Anna-Louise Milne,2017-12-02 Frequently referred to as the eminence grise of French literature in the interwar years Jean Paulhan 1884-1968 was not just the editor responsible for giving writers as varied as Francis Ponge and Jean Paul Sartre their first start in the pages of the renowned Nouvelle Revue Française He also produced a substantial body of work of astonishing eclecticism From dense quasi scientific texts on poetic language where his critical expertise in contemporary

ARIZONA MUSE Pragmatic Plagiarism Marilyn Randall,2001-01-01 In this illuminating study Marilyn Randall takes on the question of why some cases of literary repetition become great art while others are relegated to the ignominy of plagiarism Her discussion reveals that plagiarism is not the objective textual fact it is often taken for but a phenomenon governed by the norms and conventions of literary reception Randall turns her focus on the critical debates surrounding cases of perceived plagiarism Charting the progress of plagiarism in the history of Western letters her study ranges over centuries from the notion s first apperance in Roman times to contemporary disputes about intellectual property Randall considers the development of copyright law and the notion of authorship presents a wide range of texts and draws aptly on Foucault s notion of the discursive construction of authorship Just as Foucault studied insanity to find out what was meant by sanity says Randall so the study of plagiarism can reveal what was meant by the term literary at various cultural moments She shows that perceived instances of plagiarism are aspects of an ongoing power struggle in the literary field And as she reveals it is not the plagiarist but the accuser who is most concerned with achieving profit and power
