Transnational French Studies Charles Forsdick, Claire Launchbury, 2023-10-01 The contributors to Transnational French Studies situate this disciplinary subfield of Modern Languages in actively transnational frameworks The key objective of the volume is to define the core set of skills and methodologies that constitute the study of French culture as a transnational transcultural and translingual phenomenon Written by leading scholars within the field chapters demonstrate the type of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities both material and non material that are integral to what is referred to as French culture The book considers the transnational dimensions of being human in the world by focussing on four key practices which constitute the object of study for students of French language and multilingualism the construction of transcultural places and the corresponding sense of space the experience of time and transnational subjectivities The underlying premise of the volume is that the transnational is present and has long been present throughout what we define as French history and culture Chapters address instances and phenomena associated with the transnational from prehistory to the present opening up the geopolitical map of French studies beyond France and including sites where communities identified as French have formed

Authority in Transnational Legal Theory Roger Cotterrell, Maksymilian Del Mar, 2016-09-30 The increasing transnationalisation of regulation and social life more generally challenges the basic concepts of legal and political theory today One of the key concepts being so challenged is authority This discerning book offers a plenitude of resources and suggestions for meeting that challenge After the Imperial Turn Antoinette Burton,2003-05-29 Essays in this collection assess the nation as a subject of disciplinary inquiry considering both its enduring relevance and its inadequacy as an analytical category for studying history literature and culture Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A. Banks,2012-05-17 The diversity education literature both nationally and internationally is broad and diffuse Consequently there needs to be a systematic and logical way to organize and present the state of research for students and professionals American citizens need to understand the dynamics of their increasingly diverse communities and institutions and the global world in which we live work and lead With continually evolving information on diversity policies practices and programs it is important to have one place where students scholars teachers and policymakers can examine and explore research policy and practice issues and find answers to important questions about how diversity in U S education enriched with theories research and practices in other nations are explained and communicated and how they affect institutional change at both the K 12 and postsecondary levels With about 700 signed entries with cross references and recommended readings the Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education 4 volumes in both print and electronic formats will present research and statistics case studies and best practices policies and programs at pre and postsecondary levels Diversity is a worldwide phenomenon and while most of the entries in the Encyclopedia will focus on the United States diversity issues and developments in nations around the world including the United States are intricately connected Consequently to illuminate the many aspects of diversity this volume will contain entries from different nations in the world in order to illuminate the myriad aspects of diversity From A to Z this Encyclopedia will cover the full spectrum of diversity issues including race class gender religion language exceptionality and the global dimensions of diversity as they relate to education This four volume reference work will be the definitive reference for diversity issues in education in the United States and the world Chineseness across Borders Andrea Louie,2004-03-22 Transnational ethnic identity issues studied through an ethnography of Chinese American visits to Chinese villages organized under a program set up by the Chinese government Flexible Bodies Anusha Kedhar,2020-10-05 Flexible Bodies honors the lives and labor of British South Asian dancers and celebrates their contributions to a distinct and dynamic sector of British dance Drawing on expertise gained from over seven years dancing in Britain author Anusha Kedhar presents a multifaceted picture of British South Asian dance as its own distinctive genre Analyzing dance works dance films rehearsals and touring alongside immigration policy arts funding initiatives and global economic conditions Flexible Bodies traces shifts in British South Asian dance from 1990s Cool Britannia multiculturalism to fallout from the 2008 global financial crisis and more recently the anti immigration rhetoric leading up to the Brexit referendum in 2016 Kedhar draws on over a decade of interviews and conversations with dancers in Britain as well as in depth choreographic analysis of major dance works to reveal the creative ways in which British South Asian dancers negotiate neoliberal multicultural dance markets through an array of flexible bodily practices Providing a new critical dance studies lens through which to view the precarious economic racial national and legal positions of South Asians in Britain Flexible Bodies ultimately argues for centering dance labor in studies of neoliberalism

English Language Pedagogies for a Northeast Asian Context Michael Hadzantonis,2013-03-05 This book investigates from a sociocultural linguistic and pedagogical perspective the conceptual and pragmatic frameworks that characterize secondary language learning in a Northeast Asian context Hadzantonis contextualizes these salient domains through an engagement with social and cultural themes such as the familial political as well as cultural commodities and socioeducational structures In this way the text employs tools such as transnational theory and performativity and develops a model that contributes to the resolution of one of the greatest economic issues of the time that of ineffective secondary language learning

The Ethics of Teaching Michael A. Boylan,2017-05-15 Education is at a crossroads While bureaucrats and teachers fight over the best way to structure and deliver education to students much of the friction generated relates to the different conceptions of what education is about in the first place The crisis in education is therefore of key importance and demands careful attention in order to formulate the best possible response But before policies can be formulated there needs to be a clear agreement on what education should be about To this end this collection of previously published essays facilitates just such discussion The anthology is designed to give a snapshot of the seminal work in the philosophy of education and the input of ethical issues upon that work It provides an authoritative tour of the profession and pivotal issues that confront it written from a variety of international and critical perspectives

The Transnational Experiences of Chinese Immigrant Youth in the US Xiangyan Liu,2021-02-09 Detailing ethnographic research conducted in U S public high schools this text considers how Chinese immigrant youth s educational positionality and identity are shaped by diasporic and transnational migrant experiences The Transnational Experiences of Chinese Immigrant Youth in the US presents a critical examination of themes relevant to Chinese immigrant education such as academic achievement English language proficiency and cultural and social capital The intersection between diaspora and education is explored to highlight the existence of multi layered youth identities which exist beyond and between national boundaries and which embody the concept of global citizenship Building on this realization chapters consider how institutional structures might be better designed to meet the needs of students who arrive in host countries due to larger global forces This text will primarily be of interest to doctoral students researchers and scholars with an interest in multicultural education and the sociology of education Those interested in the Asian diaspora race and ethics and educational research methods more broadly will also benefit from this volume

Asian American Studies Now Jean Yu-Wen Shen Wu,Thomas Chen,2010-03-08 Asian American Studies Now truly represents the enormous changes occurring in Asian American communities and the world changes that require a reconsideration of how the interdisciplinary field of Asian American studies is defined and taught This comprehensive anthology arranged in four parts and featuring a stellar group of contributors summarizes and defines the current shape of this rapidly changing field addressing topics such as transnationalism U S imperialism multiracial identity racism immigration citizenship social justice and pedagogy Jean Yu wen Shen Wu and Thomas C Chen have selected essays for the significance of their contribution to the field and their clarity brevity and accessibility to readers with little to no prior knowledge of Asian American studies Featuring both reprints of seminal articles and groundbreaking texts as well as bold new scholarship Asian American Studies Now addresses the new circumstances new communities and new concerns that are reconstituting Asian America

Routledge Handbook of Indian Transnationalism Ajaya Sahoo,Bandana Purkayastha,2019-07-11 This book introduces readers to the many dimensions of historical and contemporary Indian transnationalism and the experiences of migrants and workers to reveal the structures of transnationalism and the ways in which Indian origin groups are affected The concept of crossing borders emerges as an important theme along with the interweaving of life in geographic and web spaces The authors draw from a variety of archives and intellectual perspectives in order to map the narratives of Indian transnationalism and analyse the interplay of culture and structures within transnational contexts The topics covered range from the history of transnational networks activism identity gender politics labour policy performance literature and more This collection presents a wide array of issues and debates which will reinvigorate discussions about Indian transnationalism This handbook will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers and students interested in studying South Asia in general and the Indian diaspora in particular US Education in a World of Migration Jill Koyama,Mathangi

Subramanian,2014-03-14 Given the protracted varied and geographically expansive changes in migration over time it is difficult to establish an overarching theory that adequately analyzes the school experiences of immigrant youth in the United States This volume extends the scholarly work on these experiences by exploring how immigrants carve out new identities construct meanings and negotiate spaces for themselves within social structures created or mediated by education policy and practice It highlights immigrants that position themselves within global movements while experiencing the everyday effects of federal state and local education policy a phenomenon referred to as glocal global local or localized global phenomena Chapter authors acknowledge and honor the agency that immigrants wield and combine social theories and qualitative methods to empirically document the ways in which immigrants take active roles in enacting education policy Surveying immigrants from China Bangladesh India Haiti Japan Colombia and Liberia this volume offers a broad spectrum of immigrant experiences that problematize policy narratives that narrowly define notions of immigrant citizenship and student East Asian Cinemas Leon Hunt,Leung Wing-Fai,2010-10-18 Cinemas from East Asia are among the most exciting and influential in the world They are attracting popular and critical attention on a global scale with films from the region circulating as art house cult blockbuster and extreme cinema or as Hollywood remakes This book explores developments in the global popularity of East Asian cinema from Chinese martial arts through Japanese horror to the burgeoning new Korean cinema with particular emphasis on crossovers remakes hybrids and co productions It examines changing cinematic traditions in Asia alongside the Asianisation of western cinema It explores the dialogue not only between East and West but between different cinemas in the Asia Pacific What do these trends mean for global cinema How are co productions and crossover films changing the nature of Hollywood and East Asian cinemas The book includes in depth studies of Park Chan wook Infernal Affairs Seven Samurai and Princess Mononoke Chinese Populations in Contemporary Southeast Asian Societies

M. Jocelyn Armstrong, R. Warwick Armstrong, Kent Mulliner, 2012-10-12 New perspectives on the past and present contributions of the 25 million strong Chinese diaspora in Southeast Asia to the development of contemporary society Case studies feature organisational community religious and other arenas of Chinese activity and identity definition and the book analyses the interplay of local regional global and transnational networks and identities Living Cargo Steven

Blevins, 2016-10-15 Offering a wide ranging study of contemporary literature film visual art and performance by writers and artists who live and work in the United Kingdom but also maintain strong ties to postcolonial Africa and the Caribbean Living Cargo explores how contemporary black British culture makers have engaged with the institutional archives of colonialism and the Atlantic slave trade in order to reimagine blackness in British history and to make claims for social and political redress Steven Blevins calls this reimagining unhousing history an aesthetic and political practice that animates and improvises on the institutional archive repurposing it toward different ends and new possibilities He discusses the work of novelists including Caryl Phillips Fred D Aguiar David Dabydeen and Bernardine Evaristo filmmakers Isaac Julien and Inge Blackman performance poet Dorothea Smartt fashion designer Ozwald Boateng artists Hew Locke and Yinka Shonibare and the urban redevelopment of Bristol England which unfolded alongside the public demand to remember the city's slave trading past Living Cargo argues that the colonial archive is neither static nor residual but emergent By reassembling historical fragments and traces consolidated in the archive these artists not only perform a kind of counter historiography they also imagine future worlds that might offer amends for the atrocities of the past Chinese Transnational

Migration in the Age of Global Modernity Liangni Sally Liu, 2018-01-17 The term circulatory transnational migration best describes the unconventional migratory route of many contemporary Chinese migrants that is an unfinished set of circulatory movements that these migrants engage in between the homeland and various host countries Return migration step migration to a third destination and the astronauting strategy are all included within this circulatory migration movement wherein returning to the country of origin does not always mean to settle back to the homeland permanently while step migration also does not necessarily mean to re migrate to a third destination country for a permanent purpose Liu takes a longitudinal perspective to study Chinese migrants transnational movements and looks at their transnational migratory movements as a family matter and progressive and dynamic process using New Zealand as a primary case study She examines Chinese migrants initial motives for immigrating to New Zealand the driving forces behind their adoption of a transnational lifestyle which includes leaving New Zealand to return to China moving to a third country typically Australia or commuting across borders family related considerations inter generational dynamics in transnational migration as well as their future movement intentions Liu also discusses Chinese migrants conceptualisation of home citizenship identity and sense of belonging to provide a deeper understanding of their transnational migratory experiences Rhetoric of a Global Epidemic Huiling Ding, 2014-04-17 2016 CCCC Best Book Award in Technical and Scientific Communication In the past ten years we have seen great changes in the ways government organizations and media respond to and report on emerging global epidemics The first outbreak to garner such attention was SARS severe acute respiratory syndrome In Rhetoric of a Global Epidemic Huiling Ding uses SARS to explore how various cultures and communities made sense of the epidemic and communicated about it She also investigates the way knowledge production and legitimation operate in global epidemics the roles that professionals and professional communicators as well as individual citizens play in the communication process points of contention within these processes and possible entry points for ethical and civic intervention Focusing on the rhetorical interactions among the World Health Organization the United States China and Canada Rhetoric of a Global Epidemic investigates official communication and community grassroots risk tactics employed during the SARS outbreak It consists of four historical cases which examine the transcultural risk communication about SARS in different geopolitical regions at different stages The first two cases deal with risk communication practices at the early stage of the SARS epidemic when it originated in southern China The last two cases move to transcultural rhetorical networks surrounding SARS With such threats as SARS avian flu and swine flu capturing the public imagination and prompting transnational public health preparedness efforts the need for a rhetoric of global epidemics has never been greater Government leaders public health officials health care professionals journalists and activists can learn how to more effectively craft and manage transcultural risk communication from Ding s examination of the complex and varied modes of communication around SARS In addition to offering a detailed case study Rhetoric of a Global Epidemic provides a critical methodology that professional communicators can use in their investigations of epidemics and details approaches to facilitating more open participatory risk communication at all levels
