Floating Clouds:

Style and Narrative in Translations Hiroko Cockerill, 2014-06-03 Futabatei Shimei 1864 1909 is widely regarded as the founder of the modern Japanese novel His novel Floating Clouds 1887 1889 was written in a colloquial narrative style that was unprecedented in Japanese literature as was its negative hero Futabatei was also a pioneer translator of Russian literature translating works by Turgenev Gogol Tolstoy Gorky and others his translations had an enormous impact perhaps even greater than his novels on the development of Japanese literature In this groundbreaking work Hiroko Cockerill analyses the development of Futabatei's translation style and the influence of his work as a translator on his own writing She takes us on a journey through Russian and Japanese literature throwing light on the development of Japanese literary language particularly in its use of verb forms to convey notions of tense and aspect that were embedded in European languages Cockerill finds that Futabatei developed not one but two distinctive styles based on the influences of Turgenev and Gogol While the influence of his translations from Turgenev was immediate and far reaching his more Gogolian translations are fascinating in their own right and contemporary translators would do well to revisit them Annual Report of the Bureau of Ethnology to the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, 1894 The Sia Matilda Coxe Stevenson, 1894 form of the Yuan Dynasty 1260-1368 these 150 poems cover all major genres that students of Chinese poetry must learn. Newly designed the unique format of this volume will enhance its reputation as the definitive introduction to Chinese poetry while its introductory essay on issues of Chinese aesthetics will continue to be an essential text on the problems of translating such works into English. Each poem is printed with the original Chinese characters in calligraphic form coordinated with word for word annotations and followed by an English translation. Correcting more than a century of distortion of the classical Chinese by translators unconcerned with the intricacies and aesthetics of the Chinese language these masterful translations by Wai lim Yip a noted and honored translator and scholar allow English readers to enter more easily into the dynamic of the original poems. Each section of the volume is introduced by a short essay on the mode or genre of poem about to be presented and is followed by a comprehensive bibliography. Notes extracted from a private journal written during a tour through a part of Malabar and among the Neilgherries Robert Mignan, 1834 Poetry and Painting in Song China Alfreda Murck, 2020-10-26 Throughout the history of imperial China the educated elite used various means to criticize government policies and actions. During the Song dynasty 960-1278 some members of this elite found an elegant and subtle means of dissent: landscape painting. By examining literary archetypes, the titles of paintings, contemporary inscriptions and the historical context, Alfreda Murck shows that certain paintings expressed strong political opinions, some transparent, others deliberately concealed. She argues that the coding of messages in seemingly innocuous paintings was an important factor in the growing respect for painting among the educated elite and that the capacity of painting's systems of reference to allow scholars to express dissent with impunity contributed to the art's vitality and longevity. Theophrastus William W. Fortenbaugh, Dimitri Gutas, 2018-04-17 Theophrastus of Eresus was Aristotle's pupil and successor as head of the Peripatetic School. He is best known as the author of the amusing Characters and two ground-breaking works in botany, but his writings extend over the entire range of Hellenistic philosophic studies. Volume 5 of Rutgers University Studies in Classical Humanities focuses on his scientific work. The volume contains new editions of two brief scientific essays, On Fish and On the Air, accompanied by translations and commentary. Among the contributions are Peripatetic Dialectic in the De sensibus Han Baltussen, Empedocles' Theory of Vision and Theophrastus' De sensibus David N.
