Flora Tristan:

Flora Tristan Pierre Leprohon, 1979 Flora Tristan Sandra Dijkstra, 2019-07-23 Active in the 1830s and 1840s Flora Tristan is best known for her book Workers Union an account of the conditions of women and workers in Peru London Paris and the provinces of France Regarded as something of a pariah she was one of the first women radicals to draw clear connections between the plight of disaffected workers and powerless women Her version of socialism has been regarded as leading towards Marx Sandra Dijkstra aims to paint a clear picture of Tristan as a class and gender conscious women writer in a transitional historical period and to demonstrate her influence on Marxism Flora Tristan Susan Grogan, 2002-09-11 Flora Tristan is best known as a nineteenth century French social critic and reformer Her writings can be seen as a precursor to Marxism and Feminism Flora Tristan Life Stories by Susan Grogan investigates the life of Flora Tristan through an exploration of the way she represented herself in her own writings The author also examines the portrayal of Flora Tristan in paintings and literature Rather than adopting a chronological approach the author surveys the personae of Flora Tristan through thematic chapters on her roles as author socialist traveller and Mother of the Workers She places Flora Tristan in the context of contemporary debates and ideas adding to our understanding of the times in which Flora Tristan lived Flora Tristan Life Stories argues that Flora Tristan's self representations were attempts to claim a role of authority and significance not open to women in the nineteenth century This authoritative study also engages with attempts to re evaluate the writing of biography and to explore the meaning of an individual life in historical context Wollstonecraft's Daughters Clarissa Campbell Orr, 1996 This work explores Mary Wollstonecraft's 19th century legacy in relation to three themes integral to her work the nature of motherhood religion and the empowerment of women and women's contribution to the sciences of man The introduction provides a comparative framework for French and English women and situates each essay within current historical debates Flora Tristan, a Forerunner Woman Magda Portal, 2012-05-31 This book is in homage to Flora Tristan the great pioneer of the first years of the 19th century She was more than the first feminist she was the pioneer of the worker's demands against the injustice of the factories owners in the industrialization era She also emphasized a review of the tremendous injustices weighing down upon women and she demanded the elimination of laws that diminished women by making them permanently dependent on men and that subjected women to infamous medieval conditions that are endorsed by tradition and religion Flora flourished as a true torch for illuminating awareness during the first half of her century until now She did so as a real woman and without hating men She is one of the highest ranking social fighters at the forefront of women's liberation She suffered incomprehension of the society She was shooting by a jealous husband and in addition she suffered the greedy behavior of her uncle when she tried to recover her inheritance in Peru Flora wrote books asking the UNION of the movement workers and the international union of them She wrote severe criticism to the British society in Promenades dans London and she wrote hard criticism to the slave use in Peru La Vie panoramic fiction he casts the woman of the streets in a distinctive role She functions at times as a double for the walker's marginal and alienated self and at others as connector and contaminant carrier of the literal and symbolic diseases of modern urban life In Walking the Victorian Streets Deborah Epstein Nord explores the way in which the female figure is used as a marker for social suffering poverty and contagion in texts by De Quincey Lamb Pierce Egan and Dickens What then of the female walker and urban chronicler While the male spectator enjoyed the ability to see without being seen the female stroller struggled to transcend her role as urban spectacle and her association with sexual transgression In novels nonfiction and poetry by Elizabeth Gaskell¹ Flora Tristan Margaret Harkness Amy Levy Maud Pember Reeves Beatrice Webb Helen Bosanquet and others Nord locates the tensions felt by the female spectator conscious of herself as both observer and observed Finally Walking the Victorian Streets considers the legacy of urban rambling and the uses of incognito in twentieth century texts by George Orwell and Virginia Woolf
