Sponsler, 2021-05-11 The culture of medieval Spain was anything nut homogeneous It varied not only through time with the approach of the Renaissance but also geographically with great differences between north and south In this study author Lucy A Sponsler illuminates the role of women during this interesting period by exploring their portrayal in literature Women in the Medieval Spanish Epic and Lyric Traditions examines the various ways in which women were portrayed in the formative years of medieval society as well as the development of these views as new social mores evolved Employing a thorough examination of the literature Sponsler reveals that a high degree of respect was demonstrated toward women in Spanish prose and poetry of this period Her study sheds new light on the role of women in relation to men family and social organization in medieval Spain Black Africans in Renaissance Europe T. F. Earle, K. J. P. Lowe, 2005-05-26 This highly original book opens up the almost entirely neglected area of the black African presence in Western Europe during the Renaissance Covering history literature art history and anthropology it investigates a whole range of black African experience and representation across Renaissance Europe from various types of slavery to black musicians and dancers from real and symbolic Africans at court to the views of the Catholic Church and from writers of African descent to Black African criminality Their findings demonstrate the variety and complexity of black African life in fifteenth and sixteenth century Europe and how it was affected by firmly held preconceptions relating to the African continent and its inhabitants reinforced by Renaissance ideas and conditions Of enormous importance both for European and American history this book mixes empirical material and theoretical approaches and addresses such issues as stereotypes changing black African identity and cultural representation in art and literature Revue des langues vivantes , 1991 Antología de la poesía española (1900-1980) Gustavo Correa, 1980 Diccionario
