revolution brewing in the provinces led by a failed civil servant who claimed to be the son of God and brother of Jesus The Taiping rebels drew their power from the poor and the disenfranchised unleashing the ethnic rage of millions of Chinese against their Manchu rulers This homegrown movement seemed all but unstoppable until Britain and the United States stepped in and threw their support behind the Manchus after years of massive carnage all opposition to Qing rule was effectively snuffed out for generations Stephen R Platt recounts these events in spellbinding detail building his story on two fascinating characters with opposing visions for China s future the conservative Confucian scholar Zeng Guofan an accidental general who emerged as the most influential military strategist in China s modern history and Hong Rengan a brilliant Taiping leader whose grand vision of building a modern industrial and pro Western Chinese state ended in tragic failure This is an essential and enthralling history of the rise and fall of the movement that a century and a half ago might have launched China on an entirely different path into the modern world House Documents USA Congress House of
