A Critical Analysis of the Efficacy of Law as a Tool to Achieve Gender Equality Natalie Persadie,2012-07-26 Law is often perceived as an instrument that can effect social change While this might be so it must be complemented by the necessary financial and human resources to make the law effective Natalie Persadie explains that among developing countries such as Trinidad and Tobago the achievement of legal advances for women at either the international or national levels is particularly difficult where practical measures are not subsequently implemented This is perhaps attributable to a lack of political will Important issues such as gender equality and domestic violence are not given priority and laws aimed at protecting women and promoting women s rights are ineffective scant or unenforced Gender justice can only be realized through a multilevel approach from above and more importantly from below as women have the potential to effect real national and international legal and institutional change to ensure gender equality at both levels Crime and Justice, Volume 45 Michael Tonry,2017-02-22 Sentencing Policies and Practices in Western Countries Comparative and Cross national Perspectives is the forty fifth addition to the Crime and Justice series Contributors include Thomas Weigend on criminal sentencing in Germany since 2000 Julian V Roberts and Andrew Ashworth on the evolution of sentencing policy and practice in England and Wales from 2003 to 2015 Jacqueline Hodgson and Laurie Soubise on understanding the sentencing process in France Anthony N Doob and Cheryl Marie Webster on Canadian sentencing policy in the twenty first century Arie Freiberg on Australian sentencing policies and practices Krzysztof Krajewski on sentencing in Poland Alessandro Corda on Italian policies Michael Tonry on American sentencing and Tapio Lappi Seppälä on penal policy and sentencing in the Nordic countries Current Law Index ,2007 The Wiley Blackwell Concise Companion to The Hadith Daniel W.

Families and Estates International Academy of Estate and Trust Law. Annual Conference, 2005-01-01 This book focuses upon two themes the definition of family and the impact of the expansion of the concept of family in law and family fights over wills and estates what recourse family members may have in challenging an estate The first part The challenge of the new family for Law considers the challenge both in the inter vivos and the postmortem contexts in the United States Canada France the United Kingdom Australia and New Zealand A particular focus is upon the dramatic expansion of the definition of family from the traditional nuclear family consisting of a husband wife and their mutual children to a definition that includes unmarried heterosexual and same sex couples living together and in some jurisdictions to new kinds of companionate partnerships that are not based on a sexual relationship In some jurisdictions such developments are simply an expression of sharing responsibility by allocating it in the private domain as opposed to the public potentially through social welfare in others particularly in the United States it is a defence of fundamental institutions and with it a defence of society itself The second part Family fights over wills and estates examines the law in Australia Switzerland France Mexico and the United Kingdom Its comparison of civil and common law approaches shows how the law expresses the same principle objects protection of family and obligations towards key family members but does so from entirely different perspectives and where the common law which enshrined the notion of testamentary freedom is being qualified through the expanding domain of family provision legislation the civil law which is based on codified shares and allocated responsibilities expressed through proportionate entitlements in estates is being qualified through a range of disqualifying and varying mechanisms Culture of Death Wesley J. complexity reciprocity interdependence adaptation and self organization are important aspects of the epistemology of a couples and family approach Florida Administrative Weekly ,2005 Palestinian Women and Muslim Family Law in the Mandate Period Elizabeth Brownson,2019-07-01 In this volume Brownson sheds new light on Palestinian Muslim women s agency in shari a courts from the British Mandate period to the present Her extensive archival research on wife initiated maintenance claims divorce and child custody cases deepens our understanding of women s position in the courts demonstrating that Muslim women were and are active participants in their legal affairs Using court registers and interviews Brownson uncovers a variety of ways women have manipulated the system to their benefit despite its patriarchal bias She also finds that few reforms were implemented during the Mandate period The British were uninterested in improving colonized women s legal status and sought to avoid further antagonizing Palestinians At the same time Palestinians wished to uphold the one indigenous institution they still controlled while both British rule and Zionism threatened their nationalist aspirations Although Palestinian women have had few alternatives to using this male privileged system to redress grievances with their husbands and in laws they continue to resist its injustices every day Brownson finds that women s understanding of family law fundamentals has enabled some to deftly navigate the system however a unified reformed law reflecting society s current needs is required so women can have full access to their rights
