Fleetwood Or the Stain of Birth A Novel of American Life Epes Sargent, 2004-06-01 And are they then a necessary part of civilization the wretchedness the squalor the precarious subsistence the absence of regular employment of the lowest and most numerous laboring class Must men be driven to crime and women to dishonor to sustain life and is there not something wrong in the social organization which compels them to such alternatives Literary Interventions in the Campaign Biography Michael J. Blouin, 2021-11-28 Literary Interventions in the Campaign Biography considers campaign biographies written by major authors including Nathaniel Hawthorne William Dean Howells Lew Wallace Jacob Riis and Rose Wilder Lane Whereas a number of cultural historians have previously considered campaign biographies to be marginal or isolated from the fictional output of these figures this volume revisits the biographies in order to understand better how they inform and are informed by seismic shifts in the literary landscape The book illuminates the intersection of American literature and politics while charting how the Presidency has developed in the public imagination In so doing it poses questions of increasing significance about how we understand the office as well as its occupants today Twenty-six Years of the Life of an Actor and Manager Francis Courtney Wemyss, 1846 Catalogue of the Mercantile Library of Baltimore, 1851 Mercantile Library Association (BALTIMORE), 1851 The Politics of Anxiety in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Justine S. Murison, 2011-04-21 For much of the nineteenth century the nervous system was a medical mystery inspiring scientific studies and exciting great public interest Because of this widespread fascination the nerves came to explain the means by which mind and body related to each other By the 1830s the nervous system helped Americans express the consequences on the body and for society of major historical changes Literary writers including Nathaniel Hawthorne and Harriet Beecher Stowe used the nerves as a metaphor to re imagine the role of the self amidst political social and religious tumults including debates about slavery and the revivals of the Second Great Awakening Representing the romance of the nervous system and its cultural impact thoughtfully and at times critically the fictional experiments of this century helped construct and explore a neurological vision of the body and mind Murison explains the impact of neurological medicine on nineteenth century literature and culture A Manual of American Literature Theodore Stanton, 1909 This book has been prepared for publication as No 4000 a Memorial Volume of the Tauchnitz Edition Perhaps it may be well to explain to American readers what the Tauchnitz Edition is and what a Memorial Volume is in this collection The Collection of British Authors or as it is more popularly known on the European Continent the Tauchnitz Edition was instituted in 1841 at Leipsic by one of the most distinguished of German publishers the late Baron Bernhard Tauchnitz whose son is now at the head of the house The father records that he was incited to the undertaking by the high opinion and enthusiastic fondness which I have ever entertained for English literature a literature springing from the selfsame root as the literature of Germany and cultivated in the beginning by the same Saxon race As a German Saxon it gave me particular pleasure to promote the literary interest of my Anglo Saxon cousins by rendering English literature as universally known as possible beyond the limits of the British Empire In another place Baron Tauchnitz describes the mission of his Collection to be the spreading and strengthening the love for English literature outside of England and her Colonies Catalogue of the Mercantile Library of Baltimore, 1858 Anonymous,2025-08-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1858 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage American Authors, 1795-1895 Patrick Kevin Foley,1897
