Flemish Drawings Xv Xvi Centuries:

Flemish Drawings Irene Immerman, 1950 Fifteenth- to Eighteenth-century European Drawings Egbert Haverkamp Begemann (Kunsthistoriker), Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 Early European art was a consuming interest of both Robert Lehman and his father Philip Lehman an interest reflected in the remarkable number and quality of drawings they owned from the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries In addition to an important group of early German drawings the collection includes a Saint Paul from a series associated with Jan van Eyck and the famous Scupstoel from the circle of Rogier van der Weyden the only design for a decorative sculpture to survive from the fifteenth century The great artists of the seventeenth century Peter Paul Rubens Jacob Jordaens Claude Lorrain and Rembrandt among them are also represented Rembrandt by seven drawings including the large study of Leonardo's Last Supper that would stay in his mind all through his career Drawings by Antoine Watteau Jean Honor Fragonard Gabriel de Saint Aubin Thomas Gainsborough Paul Sandby and George Romney are among the many from eighteenth century France and England The volume discusses all 153 drawings at length placing each in its art historical setting and complementing the discussion with comparative illustrations of related works This e book on the MetPublications website is also accompanied by links to related works and under the Additional resourcestab are links to Met works of art and Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History essays and timelines viewed May 1 2014 Flemish Drawings, XV-XVI Centuries. \[Reproductions André Leclerc, 1950 Flemish Drawings XV-XVI Centuries Irene Immerman, 1900 Flemish Drawings Irene Immerman (?writer on art), 1949 Painting Music in the Sixteenth Century H. Colin Slim, 2024-10-28 Professor Slim deals here with the several roles that music can play in the artworks of the Renaissance looking in particular at Italian painting of the 16th century For understandable reasons art historians sometimes neglect the role of music and especially that of musical notation when studying works of art These studies not only identify musical compositions wholly or partially inscribed in paintings and tapestries ceramics prints as well but also seek reasons why these particular musical compositions were included and analyse their relevance to the scene depicted Furthermore as many of these studies show identifying a musical composition especially if it has a text leads to the formation of ideas about iconographical functions and thus augments interpretations of the visual art Man, Myth, and Sensual Pleasures Jan Gossaert, Stijn Alsteens, Nadine Orenstein, Lorne Campbell, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery (Great Britain), 2010 Issued in connection with an exhibition held Oct 5 2010 Jan 17 2011 Metropolitan Museum of Art New York and Feb 23 May 30 2011 National Gallery London selected paintings only Drawings in Midwestern Collections Burton Lewis Dunbar, Edward J. Olszewski, 1996 Old master drawings kept in storage their access limited to a few will now be made widely accessible in this new series which will eventually include all drawings in some 70 midwestern collections The first volume introduces a corpus of the rarest of European drawings through the year 1500 a time when artists had just begun to value drawings as works of art It presents 30 entries written by 12 scholars each a specialist in the art of the period and each with immediate access to the artwork itself Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Dürer and Beyond Stijn Alsteens, Freyda Spira, 2012 This exhibition is the first to offer an extensive overview of the Museum's holdings of early Central European drawings many of which were acquired in the last two decades An emphasis on works by later sixteenth and seventeenth century artists is balanced by a selection of German drawings from the fifteenth and earlier sixteenth century of which some of the most exceptional ones including works by Albrecht Dürer entered the Museum with The Robert Lehman Collection in 1975 Publisher's website
