Flesh Eggs And Scalp Metal:

Flesh Eggs & Scalp Metal Iain Sinclair, 1989 Flesh Eggs and Scalp Metal Iain Sinclair, 1983 Iain Sinclair: Noise, Neoliberalism and the Matter of London Niall Martin, 2015-09-24 For much of the 20th century the modernist city was articulated in terms of narratives of progress and development Today the neoliberal city confronts us with all the cultural noise of disorder and excess meaning As this book demonstrates for more than 40 years London based writer film maker and psychogeographer Iain Sinclair has proved to be one of the most incisive commentators on the contemporary city tracing the emerging contours of a metropolis where the meeting of global and local is never without incident Iain Sinclair Noise Neoliberalism and the Matter of London explores Sinclair's investigations into the nature of conflicting urban realities through an examination of the ways in which the noise of neoliberal excess intersects with the noise of literary experiment In this way the book casts new light on theorisations of the city in the contemporary era Comparative Criticism: Volume 19, Literary Devolution: Writing in Scotland, Ireland, Wales and England E. S. Shaffer, 1998-04-02 The theme of volume 19 is Literary Devolution Writing Now in Scotland Wales Ireland and England and includes poetry from Scotland with essays by David Kinloch and Christopher Whyte on Scottish Gaelic and poetry from Wales with essays by Jerry Hunter and Sam Adams from Ireland three cantos of John Montague's new poem on David Jones Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill's Gaelic poetry translated by Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon and Medbh McGuickan and a new play by Vincent Woods acclaimed in performance and published here for the first time and English poetry together with new fiction by Iain Sinclair It also includes an interview with Nathaniel Tarn editor of innovative Cape Goliard Editions Translation from European poets into English and Scottish is a seminal feature of poetry in this period represented here by translation from the Polish by Seamus Heaney from Mayakovsky by Edwin Morgan from Rimbaud and Mandelstam by Alistair Mackie and Sylvia Plath's translations from the French reviewed by Alistair Elliot The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 This Handbook offers an authoritative and up to date collection of original essays bringing together ground breaking research into the development of contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Deconstruction - Derrida Julian Wolfreys, 1998-06-22 Deconstruction Derrida contests the notion that what Jacques Derrida does can be turned into a theory for literary interpretation It also questions the idea that there is a critical methodology called deconstruction which can be applied to literary texts in a programmatic fashion In this introductory study to the work of Jacques Derrida Julian Wolfreys introduces the reader to a range of Derrida's interests and concerns while offering readings informed by Derrida's thought of canonical and less well known literary works The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton, Michelle Kelly, Elaine Minor, 2009-03-26 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of refusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of refusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of refusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture John Frow Professor of English Literary Studies at the University of Melbourne The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 12: The Last of England? Randall figures in contemporary British literature and culture The essays herein cover the key genres and periods of Sinclair's output discussing his poetry prose and filmmaking and are developed from the proceedings of the first academic conference on Sinclair which was held at the University of Greenwich in 2004 Following the introductory chapter which includes a brief survey of Sinclair's career up until now the collection is arranged thematically in four sections The first part Contexts features essays which comment on the critical categorization and definition of Sinclair's work The second part Culture and Critique includes essays which explore the political import and contexts of Sinclair's oeuvre The articles in the third part Connections look at the links between Sinclair and other writers addressing the often noted intertextuality of his writing and the final section Spaces contains three considerations of Sinclair's treatment of London's urban spaces This collection provides access to the latest research by the leading scholars working in this area and will be a key point of reference for anyone interested in Sinclair's production To some the field of London writing may increasingly look like an indifferent over populated wasteland Iain Sinclair however remains pre eminent by virtue not only of the amplitude of his knowledge of the city but of the intensity and complexity of his thought about it He is the redemptive memorialist of a host of disregarded London cultures that lie quite beyond the reach of contemporary pieties In that respect he is less our Blake as he sometimes seems to believe than our Pepys or our Defoe At the same time he is an audacious experimenter with prose forms in the modernist tradition from Joyce to Burroughs and beyond Like the Sinclair phenomenon itself this valuable collection of essays is multifaceted illuminating its subject from a variety of different angles whilst very well aware that it is part of a work in progress It offers important testimony to the scope and power of a writer engaged in an original serious and necessary project Andrew Gibson Research Professor of Modern Literature and Theory Royal Holloway University of London This is an important and timely collection about arguably the most significant living London writer who is increasingly being recognised as an important contemporary English author in every sense Lawrence Phillips Principal Lecturer in English University of Northampton At last Iain Sinclair has the readers he deserves at least on the ample often provocative and always fascinating evidence of City Visions a collection of essays marked equally by panache and verve awareness of alternative cultural history and theoretical sophistication Over fourteen chapters critics with wide ranging interests gather their restless energies and obsessions in response to the scatter gun agitprop and guerilla intellectualism of Sinclair to produce a necessary and necessarily edgy volume In this admirably relentless collection Jenny Bavidge and Robert Bond offer an unnerving and inventive critical topography that uncovers the dark heart of a writer who is simultaneously the enfant terrible and minence grise of English letters Belles lettrists and other dilettantes be warned this is not a volume for the faint hearted these essays manifest an evangelical zeal equal to their subject's own in doing so they take us on an exhilarating intellectual adventure so refreshing in the world of lit crit where the polite formulas of sensible reading make one want to faint from ennui Professor Julian Wolfreys Loughborough University Blake, Modernity and Popular Culture S. Clark, J. Whittaker, 2007-04-11 This book explores the ways in which Blake reacted to the subcultures of his day as well as how he has inspired popular modernist and postmodernist figures until the present day Blake's influence on later generations of writers and artists is more important than ever extending into film psychology children's literature and graphic novels Other Richard Caddel, Peter Quartermain, 1999 The most significant US anthology of innovative poetries from the UK and Ireland in over 25 years When most Americans think of contemporary British poetry they think of such mainstream poets as Ted Hughes Philip Larkin and Geoffrey Hill Yet there is a vibrant diverse alternative poetry movement in the UK inspired in large measure by the work of such significant mentors as Basil Bunting and J H Prynne There is growing interest in this work in the United States as alternative American poetries express increasingly transnational concerns and yet almost none of it is available here OTHER is a highly focused anthology bringing together several important strands of English language poetry that are not otherwise so readily accessible It includes work by 55 poets among them Cris Cheek Brian Coffey Fred d Aguiar Allen Fisher Ulli Freer Randolph Healy Linton Kwesi Johnson Wendy Mulford Tom Raworth Denise Riley Catherine Walsh a critical introduction addressing such topics as the interaction of British and American poetic traditions and brief biographical and bibliographical notes on each poet London Iain Sinclair, 2007-10-25 A book full of richness unexpected enticements short sharp shocks and breathtaking writing Guardian Welcome to the real unauthorised London the disappeared the unapproved the unvoiced the mythical and the all but forgotten The perfect companion to the city Exhilarating truly wonderful a cavalcade of eloquent writing London demands an anthology like this to remind us of the irascible quirkiness of its residents and we have Sinclair to thank for marshalling such a perverse and ultimately pleasurable exercise Independent on Sunday Iain Sinclair Robert Sheppard, 2007 This study covers Iain Sinclair's major works but also seeks to trace the connections between his writings and earlier books of poetry Iain Sinclair Brian Baker, 2013-01-18 A clearly written comprehensive critical introduction to one of the most original contemporary British writers providing an overview of all of Sinclair's major works and an analysis of his vision of modern London This book places Sinclair in a range of contexts including the late 1960s counter culture and the British Poetry Revival London's underground histories the rise and fall of Thatcherism and Sinclair's writing about Britain under New Labour Sinclair's connection to other writers and artists such as J G Ballard Michael Moorcock and Marc Atkins This book makes a significant contribution to the growing scholarship surrounding Sinclair's work offering the first critical text that covers in detail all of Sinclair's work his poetry fiction non fiction including his book on John Clare Edge of the Orison and his film work British Fiction of the 1990s Nick Bentley, 2007-05-07 Presenting a fresh perspective on the diverse writings that appeared in British fiction during the 1990s this book brings together leading academics in the field
