Notre coeur, and other stories, tr. from the French by Fanny Rousseau-Wallach Guy de Maupassant, 1909 Notre coeur and other stories Guy de Maupassant, 1909 Flesh, and Other Stories Clement Wood, 1949 The lily of the valley. The country doctor, and other stories Honoré de Balzac, 1901 The Return to Shakespere Samuel Asa Small, 1927 Food in China Frederick J. Simoons, 2014-03-18 This volume is a study of Chinese food from a cultural and historical perspective Its focus is on traditional China before establishment of the People s Republic It identifies and provides comprehensive information on a broad range of Chinese food plants and animals for general readers as well as for specialists whose interests have led them to More of You Amanda Martinez Beck, 2022-05-24 Too often fatness has been viewed as a moral failing Fat Christian women in particular are shamed and marginalized by the message that they are failing God because they can t change their bodies More of You will challenge that status quo teaching readers to resist the shame and guilt that is pressed onto them by the world and instead to embrace their bodies take up space and learn to navigate the world in ways that allow them to flourish With wit and candor Amanda Martinez Beck a fat woman herself compiles her hard won wisdom to give the skinny on thriving in a fat body to others who have been pushed to the margins of acceptance Offering helpful tools like The Fat Girl s Bill of Rights and a script for a weight neutral doctor s visit this book addresses real needs in the fat acceptance community from how to find self love in a thin obsessed world to navigating a world built for butts smaller than yours to advocating for equality and justice for fat women s medical care Beckett's Words David Kleinberg-Levin, 2015-07-30 At stake in this book is a struggle with language in a time when our old faith in the redeeming of the word and the word s power to redeem has almost been destroyed Drawing on Benjamin s political theology his interpretation of the German Baroque mourning play and Adorno s critical aesthetic theory but also on the thought of poets and many other philosophers especially Hegel s phenomenology of spirit Nietzsche s analysis of nihilism and Derrida s writings on language Kleinberg Levin shows how because of its communicative and revelatory powers language bears the utopian promise of happiness the idea of a secular redemption of humanity at the very heart of which must be the achievement of universal justice In an original reading of Beckett s plays novels and short stories Kleinberg Levin shows how despite inheriting a language damaged corrupted and commodified Beckett redeems dead or dying words and wrests from this language new possibilities for the expression of meaning Without denying Beckett s nihilism his picture of a radically disenchanted world Kleinberg Levin calls attention to moments when his words suddenly ignite and break free of their despair and pain taking shape in the beauty of an austere yet joyous lyricism suggesting that after all meaning is still possible The Dragon in Medieval East Christian and Islamic Art Sara Kuehn, 2011-07-12 This book is a pioneering work on a key iconographic motif that of the dragon It examines the perception of this complex multifaceted motif within the overall intellectual and visual universe of the medieval Irano Turkish world Using a broadly comparative approach the author explores the ever shifting semantics of the dragon
