Description Those of us who once ventured up to Palisades Amusement Park on a hot summer s evening and passed through its brightly painted portal knew right away we were entering a different world The uncertain feeling in the pit of our stomachs coupled with a flutter in our chests meant that life as we once knew it was about to change at least for a while anyway As we hurried along the bustling midway heads turning eyes flashing nothing seemed quite real as if everything was being viewed through a prism The cacophony of sounds the blinking lights and the suffocating smells were both offensive and seductive The Cyclone roller coaster was scary but who cared We stood in line to ride it again and again yet another chance to throw up our hands and scream at the top of our lungs And unlike Moses standing on the mount with a view of the Promised Land he would not enter for a mere pittance everyone was welcomed into Palisades Amusement Park man woman even child if accompanied by an adult Now like those thrilling days of yesteryear we are again about to enter another different world It is the world of a most remarkable man who has lived a most remarkable life J Fletcher Creamer III has graciously left an indelible mark on everything he has accomplished and on everyone he has met And while Palisades Amusement Park is now just a fond memory Fletch goes on doing what he does best being Fletch unpretentious yet larger than life As Shakespeare might have put it age cannot wither Fletch Creamer Yet just like the wind mortal life is a moan a sigh a sob a storm a strife And like Palisades Park s mighty Cyclone Fletch s life has endured its share of ups and downs its own particular twists and turns That is perhaps what makes his story so compelling one that must be shared So as the park attendant once hollered just before pulling the lever that unleashed the Cyclone s immense power Hold on tight folks You re in for the ride of your life Fletch, Too Gregory Mcdonald,2018-12-04 After a heck of a week at the News Tribune with only a few minor blunders Fletch is finally getting married to his blushing bride Barbara As the small gathering of friends and family converge on the gusty bluff for the ceremony Fletch is handed a curious envelope by a mustached stranger that contains something almost unbelievable a letter from his supposedly dead father inviting him and his new wife to Africa for a visit More than just a little curious Fletch convinces the skeptical Barbara to forgo the skiing adventure they had planned to find the father he s never known But upon their arrival in Nairobi just as the hunt begins for the elusive Fletch Senior a murder threatens to derail the trip before they even leave the airport Fletcher A. Manning Fletcher A. Manning,2010-05 The number of living representatives of The Greatest Generation becomes fewer with each passing year and with their diminution comes the relegation of their extraordinary experiences to second and third hand recounting an inherited oral tradition more suitable to mythology than true history Rarely one of them creates a memoir of first hand recollections framing major events in history with personal perspective and eyewitness urgency Fletcher Manning's book is such a memoir tracing the extraordinary events in the first half of the Twentieth Century with a distinctly personal hand while reviewing the historical content of a bygone age with clarity and journalistic conciseness Fletcher Manning was born in the rural America of the early Twentieth Century The eldest son of North Carolinian farmers he was born at the height of the First World War grew up in The Great Depression and as a young man distinguished himself in the Second World War while forging a new more urbane kind of life for himself and his family While serving as an officer in the US Navy he became the first member of his family ever to earn a liberal arts degree and upon leaving the Navy after thirty years of service established himself in a second career as a teacher of history In everything he undertook he ascended to leadership always by merit never by ambition His life was defined by service to country to faith and to family
