Flight To Hollow Mountain:

Flight to Hollow Mountain Mark Sebanc,1996 In the tradition of C S Lewis s Chronicles of Narnia and J R R Tolkien s Lord of the Rings comes the Talamadh trilogy a fantasy of epic proportions Set in a mythical time this novel describes a struggle between good and evil in Circadian Middle Earth The Stoneholding James G. Anderson,Mark Sebanc,2009-09-01 Darkness looms over the ancient world of Ahn Norvys and the Great Harmony of Ardiel lies rent asunder Prince Starigan heir to the throne has been abducted and power has been usurped by a traitorous cabal In the mountainous highlands of Arvon is the small but ancient community the Stoneholding which has held out against the gathering forces of the evil Ferabek Here by tradition from earliest times the High Bard has resided as guardian of the Sacred Fire as well as the golden harp called the Talamadh But in his search for the lost prince Ferabek has attacked the Stoneholding with his Black Scorpion Dragoons and razed it to the ground Wilum the aged High Bard was forced to flee for his life with a ragged band of survivors including Kalaquinn Wright the wheelwrights s son Kal green in years and understanding was torn from his pastoral life in a remote highland clanholding and thrust out onto a broader stage in a journey of danger and escape discovery and enlightenment Now as night covers Ahn Norvys he must save what remains of the hallowed order of things and seek his destiny a destiny that lies far beyond the Stoneholding He must somehow find Prince Starigan and rekindle the Sacred Fire At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Flight of Dragons Daniel Arenson,2019-01-21 The Devourer The Dark Death Goddess of Wrath Nemoria has many names But she has only one goal To slaughter every dragon in Requiem Requiem A noble ancient kingdom The land of dragons For years Requiem has been fighting Nemoria Barely surviving And now the goddess unleashes terrifying new pets The titans rise from the sea Gargantuan beasts Tall as mountains Their feet shatter forests Their jaws feast upon cities Requiem s dragons are mighty But by these titans they seem smaller than flies The dragons fly to their final stand Their fire lights the darkness Their voices ring out For Requiem As the titans rampage Requiem s dragons must fly higher than ever before They must invade the realm of the gods They must do the impossible slay a goddess Animal Myths and Metaphors in South America Gary Urton,1985 What similarities and differences do humans see between themselves and animals Why do people commonly make metaphorical comparisons between human beings or social groups and animals and to what degree are people s attitudes and beliefs about animals parallel to or contingent upon their attitudes and beliefs about human beings and human society This collection of articles considers these issues The issues are basic in any study of totemism or human and animal relationships and they have been discussed in anthropological literature since the time of Lewis Henry Morgan s work on Iroquois social organization The contributors to this anthology have not limited themselves to the notion that clans and moieties are the only sources and objects of metaphorical comparisons between humans and animals They suggest a shift in perspective that has metaphorical comparisons generated by conceived similarities and differences between animals and particular types of human beings

Some examples of this include macaw fledglings as adolescents pumas as fully initiated men and foxes as young married men With this shift of emphasis a significantly different analytic focus in the study of human animal relations is produced

His last hope was to spend his remaining years creating a world all of his own. The world of Altheim. Yet there is something missing. An ancient prophecy in which blood of his own line must rule lest Altheim descend into chaos, the ripples of which will bring about the Twilight of the Gods themselves.
