Vuelos de victoria Ernesto Cardenal,1985 Flights of Victory (Vuelos de Victoria) Ernesto Cardenal,

Footprints of God Charles E. Van Engen,Nancy Thomas,Robert Gallagher,2011-07-27 Twenty five doctoral students from around the world recently set out to forge a new path toward a theology of mission As they blazed a new trail they discovered the footprints of God evidence that God was their trial guide Charles Van Engen led this group of mission practitioners pastors teachers and mission executives as they set out to discover answers to important questions such as What is theology of mission and What is missiology The team used a new approach to answer these questions employing narrative to integrate personal story community stories cultural stories and biblical stories Each writer brings his or her own unique context to bear on these important questions through personal story and by highlighting the work of a major missiologist who has impacted their life and work By drawing from personal stories the authors show how human factors affect missiology All of the chapters are set within a unique theological framework created by Charles Van Engen that focuses on mission of the way mission in the way and mission on the way This framework reveals that mission must be of the way Christ centered in the way happening among the peoples and cultures of the world and on the way moving forward over time through God s people as they anticipate Christ s present and coming kingdom If you are concerned about connecting the Bible theology and ministry with the complexity and variety of contexts facing Christians today then you will want to join this journey to discover the footprints of God As Van Engen says you will be encouraged to think theologically about mission and missiologically about theology Sandino's Nation Stephen Henighan,2014-04-01 Ernesto Cardenal and Sergio Ramirez are two of the most influential Latin American intellectuals of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Addressing Nicaragua s struggle for self definition from divergent ethnic religious generational political and class backgrounds they constructed distinct yet compatible visions of national history anchored in a reappraisal of the early twentieth century insurgent leader Augusto Cesar Sandino During the Sandinista Revolution of 1979 90 Cardenal appointed Nicaragua s minister of culture became one of the most provocative and internationally recognized figures of liberation theology while Ramirez a member of the revolutionary junta and later elected vice president of Nicaragua emerged as an authoritative figure for third world nationalism But before all else the two were groundbreaking creative writers Through a close reading of the works by Nicaragua s best known and most prolific modern authors Sandino s Nation studies the construction of Nicaraguan national identity during three distinct periods of the country s recent history before during and after the 1979 90 revolution Stephen Henighan offers rigorous textual analyses of poems memoirs essays and novels interwoven with a sharply narrated history of Nicaragua The only comprehensive study of the careers of Cardenal and Ramirez Sandino s Nation is essential to understanding transformations to both Nicaragua and the role of the writer in Latin America Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater Richard Young,Odile Cisneros,2010-12-18 The Historical Dictionary of Latin

N.

Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North

America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West Make Waves Paula Anca Farca,2019-10-16

Water is a symbol of life wisdom fertility purity and death Water also sustains and nourishes irrigates our crops keeps us clean and healthy and contributes to our energy needs But a strain has been put on our water resources as increased energy demands combine with the effects of climate change to create a treacherous environment Individuals and communities around the globe increasingly face droughts floods water pollution water scarcity and even water wars We tend to address and solve these concerns through scientific and technological innovations but social and cultural analyses and solutions are needed as well In this edited collection contributors tackle current water issues in the era of climate change using a wide variety of recent literature and film At its core this collection demonstrates that water is an immense reservoir of artistic potential and an agent of historical and cultural exchange Creating familiar and relatable contexts for water dilemmas authors and directors of contemporary literary texts and films present compelling stories of our relationships to water water health ecosystems and conservation They also explore how global water problems affect local communities around the world and intersect with social and cultural aspects such as health citizenship class gender race and ethnicity This transformative work highlights the cultural significance of water the source of life and a powerful symbol in numerous cultures It also raises awareness about global water debates and crises Profiles in Liberation Deane W.
