A Florentine Picture-chronicle Tommaso Finiguerra, Sidney Colvin, 1898      Engaging Symbols Adrian W. B. Randolph, 2002-01-01 Randolph shows how engaging political symbols were grounded in a revolutionary way in amorous discourses that drew on metaphors of affection desire courtship betrothal marriage homo and hetero eroticism and procreation BOOK JACKET      Bernard Berenson Ernest Samuels, 1979 Critic arbiter of taste renowned authority on Renaissance painting and oracle to millionaire art collectors Bernard Berenson was the most formidable presence in the art world for more than thirty years Four decades of his life are unfolded in this compelling book      A Florentine Picture-chronicle Maso Finiguerra, 1970      Renaissance And Renascences In Western Art Erwin Panofsky, 2018-05-04 Renaissance and Renascences in Western Art spans the period from the 10th to the 15th century including discussion of the Carolingian renaissance and the 12th century proto renaissance Erwin Panofsky posits that there were reanscences prior to the widely known Renaissance that began in Italy in the 14th century Whereas earlier renascences can be classified as revivals the Renaissance was a unique instance that led to a wider cultural transformation      The Survival of the Pagan Gods Jean Seznec, 2021-12-07 The gods of Olympus died with the advent of Christianity or so we have been taught to believe But how are we to account for their tremendous popularity during the Renaissance This illustrated book now reprinted in a new larger paperback format offers the general reader first a discussion of mythology in late antiquity and the Middle Ages and then a multifaceted look at the far reaching role played by mythology in Renaissance intellectual and emotional life      A Florentine Picture-chronicle Maso Finiguerra (Goldschmied, Italien), Tommaso Finiguerra, Sidney Colvin (Art critic, Literary scholar, Librarian, Great Britain), 1898      The Magazine of Art Marion Harry Spielmann, 1897      A Florentine Picture-chronicle Being a Series of Ninety-nine Drawings Representing Scenes and Personages of Ancient History Sacred and Profane Sidney Colvin (Sir), 1898      A Florentine picture chronicle Bernard Berenson, 1900      A Florentine Picture-chronicle Tommaso Finiguerra, 1970      Chronicle Into History Louis Green, 2008-10-30 In Florence in the fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries the essentially medieval values of the age of Dante were transformed into the intellectual attitudes characteristic of the early Renaissance Mr Green examines this change as it was reflected in the works of the city's vernacular chroniclers These merchant historians evolved out of the traditional universal chronicle of the Middle Ages an embryonic form of the modern history exemplified at the beginning of the fifteenth century by the Istoria di Firenze of Goro Dati In the course of this transition from chronicle to history the world view expressed by the chronicle which assumed that all that happened contributed to a divinely inspired historical plan yielded before a more selective conception of the significance of events as possible natural causes of change At the same time the ideals underlying the medieval sense of cosmic order with their otherworldly overtones gave way before the more secular humanist values of the emerging Renaissance

Love and Marriage in Renaissance Florence Caroline Campbell, 2009 Love and Marriage in Renaissance Florence explores an important but historically neglected art form Cassoni are pairs of chests that were lavishly decorated with precious metals and elaborate paintings and were often the most expensive of a whole suite of decorative objects commissioned to celebrate marriage alliances between powerful families in Renaissance Florence Cassoni were displayed in the husband's chamber and were used to store precious clothes and textiles The painted panels set into them told tales and history from ancient Greece Rome and Palestine as well as from Florentine literature and more recent history These pictorial narratives were intended to entertain as well as to instruct the household and its visitors This book reflects the extensive iconographic range of cassone painting Its focus however is around a pair of chests ordered in 1472 by the Florentine Lorenzo Morelli to celebrate his marriage with Vaggia Nerli These are the only pair of cassoni to be still displayed with their painted backboards spalliere The unusual survival of both the chests and their commissioning documents enables a full examination of this remarkable art form Caroline Campbell is Schroder Foundation Curator of Paintings at the Courtauld Gallery London
