The City in African-American Literature Yoshinobu Hakutani, Robert Butler, 1995 More recent African American literature has also been noteworthy for its largely affirmative vision of urban life Amiri Baraka's 1981 essay Black Literature and the Afro American Nation The Urban Voice argues that from the Harlem Renaissance onward African American literature has been urban shaped producing a uniquely black urban consciousness And Toni Morrison although stressing that the American city in general has often induced a sense of alienation in many African American writers nevertheless adds that modern African American literature is suffused with an affection for the village within the city      Guided Drawing With Multilingual Preschoolers Christina M. Cassano, Kathleen A.
