Apostolos-Cappadona, 2020-05-14 A one volume introduction to and overview of Christian art from its earliest history to the present day Diane Apostolos Cappadona begins by examining how art and Christianity have intersected throughout history and charts this tumultuous relationship that has yielded some of the greatest outpourings of human creativity To introduce readers to the way a painting can be read Apostolos Cappadona begins with an analysis of a painting of the Adoration of the Magi helping readers to see how they can interpret for themselves the signs symbols and figures that the book covers In the more than 1000 entries that follow Apostolos Cappadona gives readers an expert overview of all the frequently used symbols and motifs in Christian art as well as the various saints historical figures religious events and biblical scenes most frequently depicted Readers are introduced to the ways in which religious paintings are often coded such as what a lily means in a picture of Mary how a goldfinch can be Christological or how the presence of an Eagle means it is likely to be a picture of St John The entries are organized by topic so that students and beginners can easily find their way to discussion of the themes and motifs they see before them when looking at a painting A Handbook of Symbols in Christian Art Gertrude Grace

Wimbush, 2015-07-16 Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho-cultural and socio-political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self-illumination and self-analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un-making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social-cultural phenomena and dynamics Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1858

The Role of Horticulture in Human Well-being and Social Development Diane Relf, 1992 America, 1913 The Oxford Handbook of British and Irish War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2007-02-22 Thirty-seven chapters written by leading literary critics from across the world describe the latest thinking about twentieth-century war poetry The book maps both the uniqueness of each war and the continuities between poets of different wars while the interconnections between the literatures of war and peacetime and between combatant and civilian poets are fully considered The focus is on Britain and Ireland but links are drawn with the poetry of the United States and continental Europe The Oxford Handbook feeds a growing interest in war poetry and offers in toto a definitive survey of the terrain It is intended for a broad audience made up of specialists and also graduates and undergraduates and is an essential resource for both scholars of particular poets and for those interested in wider debates about modern poetry This scholarly and readable assessment of the field will provide an important point of reference for decades to come
