Hannah arrived in New York City from Minneapolis in the early 1970s as an art student hungry for experience game for almost anything and with a prodigious taste for drugs girls alcohol movies rock and roll books parties and everything else the city had to offer Taken directly from the notebooks Hannah kept throughout the decade Twentieth Century Boy is a fascinating sometimes lurid and incredibly entertaining report from a now almost mythical time and place Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon French Cinema R mi Fournier Lanzoni,R mi Fournier-Lanzoni,2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges M li s Alice Guy Blach  and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and Ren  Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Lethal Repetition Richard Dyer,2019-07-25 Serial killing is an extremely rare phenomenon in reality that is none theless remarkably widespread in the cultural imagination Moreover despite its rarity it is also taken to be an expression of characteristic aspects of humanity masculinity or our times Richard Dyer investigates this paradox focusing on the notion at its heart seriality He considers the aesthetics of the repetition of nastiness and how this relates to the perceptions and anxieties that images of serial killing highlight in the societies that produce them Shifting the focus away from the US which is often seen as the home of the serial killer Lethal Repetition instead examines serial killing in European culture and cinema ranging from Scandinavia to the Mediterranean and from Britain to Romania Spanning all brows of cinema including avant garde art mainstream and trash Dyer provides case studies on Jack the Ripper the equation of Nazism with serial killing and the Italian giallo film to explore what this marginal and uncommon crime is being made to mean on European screens Catalog of Copyright Entries.

Stars and Stardom in French Cinema Ginette Vincendeau, 2000-11-01 French cinema is second only to Hollywood in the number of its movie stars who have emerged to achieve international fame France is in fact arguably the only country other than the United States to have an international star system Yet these glamorous and charismatic stars differ from their U S counterparts in that they maintain more freedom to control their own images and often straddle both mainstream and auteur cinema Ginette Vincendeau a leading authority on French cinema analyzes the phenomenon of French film stardom and provides brilliant in depth studies of the major popular stars of the French cinema Max Linder Jean Gabin Brigitte Bardot Jeanne Moreau Louis de Funès Jean Paul Belmondo Alain Delon Catherine Deneuve Gérard Philipe and Juliette Binoche This volume analyzes these stars images and performance styles in the context of the French film industry but also in relation to national culture and society In the country where Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve have modeled for Marianne the effigy of the Republic and left wing politicians have held up Jean Gabin as a role model Vincendeau examines the unusual relationship between French film stars and national identity Ginette Vincendeau is professor of film studies at the University of Warwick She is the author and editor of a number of books on cinema

Natural Selection Gary Giddins, 2006 Long recognized as America's most brilliant jazz writer the winner of many major awards including the prestigious National Book Critics Circle Award and author of a highly popular biography of Bing Crosby Gary Giddins has also produced a wide range of stimulating and original cultural criticism in other fields With Natural Selection he brings together the best of these previously uncollected essays including a few written expressly for this volume The range of topics is spellbinding Writing with insight humor and a famously deft touch he offers sharp edged perspectives on such diverse subjects as Federico Fellini and Jean Renoir Norman Mailer and Ralph Ellison Marlon Brando and Groucho Marx Duke Ellington and Bob Dylan horror and noir the cartoon version of Animal Farm and the comic book series Classics Illustrated Giddins brings to criticism an uncommon ability long demonstrated in his music writing to address in very few words an entire career so that we get an in depth portrait of the artist beyond the film book or recording under review For instance Giddins offers a stunning reappraisal of

Doris Day who he terms the coolest and sexiest female singer of slow ballads in film history He argues eloquently for a reconsideration of the forgotten German language novelist Soma Morgenstern In a section on comedy he offers fresh perspectives on the three great silent film stars Chaplin Keaton and Lloyd while resurrecting the legendary Jack Benny and reevaluating the controversial Jerry Lewis There s also a memorable look at Bing Crosby s film career he calls Crosby s blockbuster Going My Way a neglected masterpiece and a close examination of Marcel Carne s beloved Children of Paradise Of course Giddins also supplies excellent commentary on jazz major and underrated figures and especially the uses of jazz in film A wonderful gathering of little known treasures Natural Selection will broaden the perception of Gary Giddins as one of our most important cultural critics

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumi re in 1895 with the invention of the cin matographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cin matographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumi re s La Sortie de l usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumi re factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges M li s Alice Guy and Charles Path Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world s best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard Fran ois Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve G rard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike
