Floating Lives The Media And Asian Diasporas:

Floating Lives Stuart Cunningham, John Sinclair, 2001 This is an examination of media and communication within diasporic ethnic communities in Australia the Chinese Indian Vietnamese and Thai communities The study explores the ethnic community as a force in negotiating new hybrid identities and experiences common to diasporic groups worldwide

The Media of Diaspora Karim H. Karim, 2003-08-29 The Media of Diaspora examines how diasporic communities have used new communications media to maintain and develop community ties on a local and transnational level This collection of essays from a wide range of different diasporic contexts is a unique contribution to the field Media and the Chinese

Diaspora Wanning Sun, 2009-03-04 The importance of the Chinese diaspora is widely recognized Wanning Sun examines the key role of the media in the Chinese diaspora She focuses especially on the media's role in communication in fostering a sense of community in defining different kinds of transnational Chineseness overseas Chinese communities are often very different from one country to another and in showing how media communication is linked to commerce which is often a key activity of the overseas Chinese Revealing a great deal about the vibrancy and dynamism of the Chinese language media the book considers the Chinese diaspora in Singapore Indonesia Thailand and Australia showing how it plays a crucial role in the changing nature of the Chinese diaspora Media and Communication in the Chinese Diaspora Wanning Sun, John

Sinclair, 2015-09-16 The rise of China has brought about a dramatic increase in the rate of migration from mainland China At the same time the Chinese government has embarked on a full scale push for the internationalisation of Chinese media and culture Media and communication have therefore become crucial factors in shaping the increasingly fraught politics of transnational Chinese communities This book explores the changing nature of these communities and reveals their dynamic and complex relationship to the media in a range of countries worldwide Overall the book highlights a number of ways in which China's going global policy interacts with other factors in significantly reshaping the content and contours of the diasporic Chinese media landscape In doing so this book constitutes a major rethinking of Chinese transnationalism in the twenty first century The Media of Diaspora Karim Haiderali Karim, 2003 The Media of Diaspora examines how diasporic communities have used new communications media to maintain and develop community ties on a local and transnational level This collection of essays from a wide range of different diasporic contexts is a unique contribution to the field Media Studies Eoin Devereux, 2007-06-21 Bringing together a range of renowned scholars in the field this book examines eighteen key issues within contemporary media studies Written in an accessible student friendly style Media Studies Key Issues and Debates is an authoritative landmark text for undergraduate students Each individual chapter begins with a concise definition of the concept's under investigation This is followed by a 5 000 word discussion on the current state of play within research on the specific area Chapters contain case studies and illustrative materials from Europe North America Australasia and beyond Each chapter concludes with annotated notes which guide the student reader in terms of future study With a preface by Denis McQuail contributors include Janet McCabe John Corner David Croteau William Hoynes Natalie Fenton Jenny Kitzinger Jeroen de Kloet Liesbet van Zoonen Sonia Livingstone and Greg Philo Alternative Media in Canada Kirsten Kozolanka, Patricia Mazepa, David Skinner, 2012-04-01 Alternative media hold the promise of building public awareness and action against the constraints and limitations of media conglomeration and cutbacks to public broadcasting But what exactly makes alternative media alternative This path breaking volume gets to the heart of this question by focusing on the three interconnected dimensions that define alternative media in Canada structure participation and activism The contributors reveal not only how various kinds of alternative media including indigenous anarchist ethnic and feminist media are enabled and constrained within Canada s complex policy environment but also how in the context of globalization the Canadian experience parallels media and policy challenges in other nations The Handbook of Ethnic Media in Canada Daniel Ahadi, Sherry S. Yu, Ahmed Al-Rawi, 2023-12-15 Ethnic minority groups in Canada have set up their own communication infrastructure that has evolved over time from the analog to the digital age and continues to remain relevant across generations Offering a reassessment of contemporary media outlets The Handbook of Ethnic Media in Canada asks how ethnic media have changed why they continue to be relevant and what impact this media sector has on ethnocultural communities as well as broader society Building on past studies that highlight particular functions of ethnic media publishing information that is vital to settlement and civic engagement and providing an alternative to mainstream media among others this volume generates insights on new dynamics of the ethnic media sector that are prevalent in the digital age Contributors re examine theoretical and methodological approaches to ethnic media research explore the practices of ethnic media along cultural linguistic and religious lines and interrogate the policies that affect ethnic media production and consumption At its core the question of how Canadians engage with ethnic media is a question about what this media sector means for the sociocultural economic and political integration of Canadians both majority and minority and Canada s race relations The Handbook of Ethnic Media in Canada provides a rich resource for anyone concerned about the role media plays in the complex relationship between ethnicity race belonging and marginality The Australian TV Book Stuart Cunningham, 2020-07-25 Television is the most pervasive mass medium of the industrialised world It is blamed for creating alienation and violence in society yet at the same time regarded as trivial and unworthy of serious attention It is the main purveyor of global popular culture yet also intensely local The Australian TV Book paints the big picture of the small screen in Australia It examines industry dynamics in a rapidly changing environment the impact of new technology recent changes in programming and the ways in which the television industry targets its audiences The authors highlight what is distinctive about television in Australia and how it is affected by international developments This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand Australian television today Stuart Cunningham is Professor of Media and Journalism at Queensland University of Technology Graeme Turner is director of the Centre for Critical and Cultural Studies at the University of Queensland They are editors of the leading textbook The Media in Australia and authors of many other works on the media

Migration and the Media Gaoheng Zhang, 2019-08-22 The first book to analyse cultural dynamics of Chinese migration to Italy Migration and the Media compares Italian Chinese migrant and international media interpretations between 1992 and 2012 From paternalistic tones reducing migrants motives to poverty or political oppression to fear mongering diatribes about illegal business practices tax evasion and unfair competition the Italian and international media covered this large scale migration extensively during this period The Chinese community also joined in the media polyphony with articles in their own newspapers and magazines more likely refuting biased mainstream media coverage or protesting the harsh regulations that seemed to target the Chinese but sometimes even advising fellow migrants on how to counter the media s criticism Gaoheng Zhang places the strong media interest in Italian Chinese migrant relations within relevant economic political cultural and linguistic contexts Examining how journalists entrepreneurs and politicians debated Italy s Chinese Zhang argues that these stakeholders viewed the migration as a particularly effective example to support or dispute Italy s general stance toward migrant integration and economic globalization
