Manners, Morals and Class in England, 1774-1858 M. Morgan,1994-03-15 This book analyses English social and occupational behavioural ideals from the courtesy book s demise in 1774 to the Medical Act s passage in 1858 Ideals from conduct and etiquette books mix gracefully with those displayed by professional groups particularly medical practitioners in an analysis that challenges conventional thinking about class and social change in early industrial England Dr Morgan s study will be essential reading for British historians as well as for all those interested in how individuals establish personal identity and infuse confidence into human relations in an impersonal urban society Flora Tristan Susan

Grogan,2002-09-11 Flora Tristan is best known as a nineteenth century French social critic and reformer Her writings can be seen as a precursor to Marxism and Feminism Flora Tristan Life Stories by Susan Grogan investigates the life of Flora Tristan through an exploration of the way she represented herself in her own writings The author also examines the portrayal of Flora Tristan in paintings and literature Rather than adopting a chronological approach the author surveys the personae of Flora Tristan through thematic chapters on her roles as author socialist traveller and Mother of the Workers She places Flora Tristan in the context of contemporary debates and ideas adding to our understanding of the times in which Flora Tristan lived Flora Tristan Life Stories argues that Flora Tristan s self representations were attempts to claim a role of authority and significance not open to women in the nineteenth century This authoritative study also engages with attempts to re evaluate the writing of biography and to explore the meaning of an individual life in historical context Respectability and the

London Poor, 1780-1870 Lynn MacKay,2015-10-06 The population of London soared during the Industrial Revolution and the poorer areas became iconic places of overcrowding and vice Focusing on the communities of Westminster MacKay shows that many of the plebeian populace retained traditional working class pursuits such as gambling drinking and blood sports

Flora Tristan Sandra Dijkstra,2019-07-23 A new edition of an influential biography of the early Victorian socialist feminist writer Flora Tristan Active in the 1830s and 1840s Flora Tristan is best known for her book Workers Union an account of the conditions of women and workers in Peru London Paris and the provinces of France Regarded as something of a pariah she was one of the first women radicals to draw clear connections between the plight of disaffected workers and powerless women Her version of socialism has been regarded as leading towards Marx Sandra Dijkstra aims to paint a clear picture of Tristan as a class and gender conscious women writer in a transitional historical period and to demonstrate her influence on Marxism Migrant Representations Peter Leese,2022-01-15 Migrant Representations pairs twenty four carefully selected histories in order to compare how migrants themselves Irish labourer Lithuanian refugee or Indian doctor and their social investigators capture in words and images defining private and historical moments These comparative case studies from the 1780s to the 2000s explore how migrants constructed their own narratives of mobility and settlement through procedures of reflecting remembering and recording Moreover these studies examine how speech writing and picture were used for instance by a missionary social scientist or activist to make outside representations of the migrant Such life stories social surveys and pictures emerge as alternative archives Leese s transnational cultural history considers life story forms and their uses the tension between external surveillance and self observation the power of narratives to afford legibility and acknowledgement Leese argues that historically and in the present first person migrant stories and outsider investigations create a continuous charged exchange of views where both migrant and observer negotiate position authority authenticity and potential advantage Within the history of migrant representations this exchange generates a persistent subversive strain of opposition and critique Such self observations observations of others and images never settle

Englishness Identified Paul Langford, 2001 In the seventeenth century the English were often depicted as a nation of barbarians fanatics and king killers Two hundred years later they were more likely to be seen as the triumphant possessors of a unique political stability vigorous industrial revolution and a world wide empire These may have been British achievements but the virtues which brought about this transformation tended to be perceived as specifically English Ideas of what constituted Englishness changed from a stock notion of waywardness and unpredictability to one of discipline and dedication The evolution of the so called national character today once more the subject of scrutiny and debate is traced through the impressions and analyses of foreign observers and related to English ambitions and anxieties during a period of intense change The Trial of Woman D. Basham, 1992-01-14 The Trial of Woman examines the impact of the nineteenth century Occult Revival on the Victorian Women's Movement both in the lives of individual women and in the literature surrounding the Woman Question The book explores the Victorian Myth of Occult Womanhood and argues that the notion of female occult power was deeply influenced by the advent of Mesmerism Spiritualism and Theosophy This myth was itself a determining factor in women's struggle for legal and political rights Women in Nineteenth-Century Europe Rachel Fuchs, Victoria E. Thompson, 2004-11-21 During the nineteenth century European women of all countries and social classes experienced dramatic and enduring changes in their familial working and political lives However the history of women at this time is not one of unmitigated progress theirs was an uphill struggle fraught with hindrances hard work and economic downturns and the increasing intrusion of the public into their innermost private and personal lives Breaking away from traditional categories Rachel G Fuchs and Victoria E Thompson provide a sense of the variety and complexity of women's lives across national and regional boundaries juxtaposing the experiences of women with the perceptions of their lives Three themes unite this study The tension between tradition and modernity The changing relationship between the community and individual The shifting boundaries between public and private Dealing with individual women's lives within a large social and cultural context Fuchs and Thompson demonstrate how strong and courageous women refused to live within the prescribed domestic roles and how many became the modern women of the twentieth century Convict Voices Anne Schwan, 2014-12-02 In this lively study of the development and transformation of voices of female offenders in nineteenth century England Anne Schwan analyzes a range of colorful sources including crime broadsides reform literature prisoners own writings about imprisonment and courtroom politics and conventional literary texts such as Adam Bede and The Moonstone Not only does Schwan demonstrate strategies for interpreting ambivalent and often contradictory texts she also provides a carefully historicized approach to the work of feminist recovery Crossing class lines genre boundaries and gender roles in the effort to trace prisoners authors and female communities imagined or real Schwan brings new insight to what it means to locate feminist or protofeminist details arguments and politics In this case she tracks the emergence of a contested and often contradictory feminist consciousness through the prism of nineteenth century penal debates The historical discussion is framed by reflections on contemporary debates about prisoner perspectives to illuminate continuities and differences Convict Voices offers a sophisticated approach to interpretive questions of gender genre and discourse in the representation of female convicts and their voices and viewpoints The Feminism of Flora Tristan Maire Cross, Tim Gray, 1992 This book arose out of a doctoral thesis presented by Maire Cross at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne in 1988 The emphasis of the book is however rather different from that of the thesis While the thesis focused essentially upon the relationship between Flora Tristan s feminism and her socialism the book seeks in addition to explore more fully the elements in Tristan s writings which are not obviously linked to the socialist tradition Darwin Adrian J. Desmond, James Richard Moore, 1994 In lively and accessible style the authors tell how Darwin came to his world changing conclusions and how he kept his thoughts secret for twenty years Hailed as the definitive biography this book explains Darwin s paradox and offers a window on Victorian science theology and mores Contains a wealth of new information and 90 photographs

Information and Power in History Ida Nijenhuis, Marijke van Faassen, Ronald Sluiter, Joris Gijzenbergh, Wim de Jong, 2020-01-29 The relationship between information and power is a relevant subject for all times Today s perceived information revolution has caused information to become a separate object of study during the last two decades for several disciplines As the contemporary perspective is dominant information history as a discipline of its own has not yet crystallized In bringing together studies around a new research agenda on the relationship between information and power across time and space presenting various governance regimes media materials and modes of communication this book forces us to rethink the prospects and challenges for such a new discipline
