 Cards bags boxes albums sweet gifts and more The Vamp for Me: Part One: A Box Set Bailey Bradford, 2019-08-06 The Vamp for Me series Part One My Life Without Garlic Some things in life just might be worth giving up garlic for It was simple curiosity that led Augustin to the vampire dating site he thought it must be a joke started up by a bunch of weirdos Man was he right but it just so happens that those weirdos really are vampires and when one shows up at his place Augustin's world is turned upside down First he's got a psychotic vampire to deal with Then he's got one who is much more fun hanging around Except now that Augustin knows that vampires exist he can't be left alive Or can he When an alternative is offered up Augustin doesn't care for it either After all he doesn't want to be whisked off to some disgusting vampire den Tony's the vampire next in line to lead the coven He wants to be a fair man and that means arguing against killing Augustin If he's also attracted to the sarcastic adorable man where's the harm in that The attraction between Augustin and Tony is undeniable but deny it is what they both try to do Someone is going to have to bend or break Don't Stake My Life on It Stakes kilts and holy water Andrew Meyer is in for the time of his life Radney's tired of being the coven oddball He had his reasons for being the way he was and he let those reasons rule his life for centuries Another mistake almost harming a human he'd been sent to keep an eye on has sent Radney on a mission of self improvement He's going to conquer his issues and be the best damned vamp ever Maybe Andrew Meyers has the term paper from hell to write It needs to be original and intriguing What could be more so than people with a vampire fetish But when that fetish turns out to be one he has for a very sexy kilt wearing neurotic vampire the tables are turned Andrew isn't prepared to find out that vampires are real but he learns it anyway With help from his twin brother Erin he just might be able to find a happy ending or an ecstatic beginning for him and his hot as hell red headed vamp If he's careful and patient he might even find the vamp for him Sunshine is Overrated Life with vamps is never easy Abernathy Meyers is already mated to a vamp Zebulon It's just too bad that Zebulon doesn't give a darn about him Abbie's stuck with the man for eternity or until they die Some days Abbie thinks that can't happen soon enough He's tired of being treated badly yet he doesn't really want to make his earthly exit yet Because he's longed for another man another vampire for years Forbidden love is anything more compelling or more heart breaking There's a twisted past a hidden story linking Abbie Zebulon and the coven leader Claude Claude lives with a fear of turning to dust at any moment It isn't reasonable but he can't shake it He's let his own fears impede his potential happiness and instead he puts the needs of his coven first ignoring his own But if he's deliberately blind to one particular human's needs because that human is a mate to another vampire then is Claude truly leading to the best of his ability It's a tough question for him to answer and soon he'll have to make a choice that will affect him and Abbie forever House & Garden ,1918 Harlequin Intrigue October
