Yankee Go Home (& Take Me With U) George McKay,2016-10-06 We can do little to escape the experience of the United States of America through many media TV pop music youth culture Hollywood fast food How do these traces and images affect us Do we internalize them want to be American Do we can we resist them Is our desire for them a symptom of European pop culture s crisis From black face minstrelsy rap music and fiction to McDonald s rock festivals and Star Trek the cultural conception of America is critically unpacked by contributors from Europe Israel and the USA McKay rounds off the picture by offering a comprehensive introduction that explains theoretical approaches to Americanization from the thesis of Yankee cultural imperialism to America as site of liberation or fantasy Circular Breathing George McKay,2005-11-23 An exploration of the political and cultural experience of jazz performers in Britain from the 1950s traditional jazz boom on

Popular Music, Gender and Postmodernism Neil Nehring,1997-03-20 Popular Music Gender and Postmodernism begins by tracing the migration of cynical academic ideas about postmodernism into music journalism The result has been a widespread fatalism over the presumed ability of the music industry to absorb any expression of defiance in hiphop and rock Commercial incorporation supposedly makes a charade of musical outrage somehow disconnecting anger in music from any meaning or significance Author Neil Nehring documents the considerable damage done by the journalistic employment of this tenet of postmodern theory particularly in the case of the late Kurt Cobain of Nirvana whose emotional intensity was repeatedly belittled for its purported incoherence As a rebuttal to academic postmodernism and its exploitation by the mass media Popular Music Gender and Postmodernism emphasizes that emotion and reason are mutually interdependent Though mistakes can occur in the conscious choice of an object at which to direct one s feelings the preverbal appraisal of social situations that generates emotions is always perfectly rational Nehring also surveys work in literary criticism psychology and especially feminist philosophy that argues on the basis for the political significance of anger even prior to its full articulation The emotional performance in popular music he concludes cannot be discounted on the grounds for example that lyrics such as Cobain s are difficult to understand After detailing more and less progressive approaches to emotion in music criticism Nehring focuses on recent punk rock by women including the Riot Grrrls Fictions of State Patrick Brantlinger,2019-06-30 In this ambitious book Patrick Brantlinger offers a cultural history of Great Britain focused on the concept of public credit from the 1694 founding of the Bank of England to the present He draws on literary texts ranging from Augustan satire such as Gulliver s Travels to postmodern satire such as Martin Amis s Money A Suicide Note All critique the misrecognition of public credit as wealth The economic foundations of modern nation states involved national debt public credit and paper money Brantlinger traces the emergence of modern imperial Great Britain from those foundations He analyzes the process whereby nationalism both the cause and the result of wars and imperial expansion multiplied national debt and produced crises of public credit resolved only through more nationalism and war During the first half of the eighteenth century conservatives attacked public credit as fetishistic and characterized national debt as alchemical From the 1850s the stabilizing theories of public credit authored by David Hume Adam Smith Henry Thornton and others helped initiate the first social science economics In the nineteenth century literary criticism both paralleled and questioned early capitalist discourse on public credit and nationalism while the Victorian novel refigured debt as the individual private credit and debt During the era of high modernism and Keynesian economics the notion of high culture as genuine value recast the debate over money and national indebtedness Brantlinger relates this cultural historical trajectory to Marxist poststructuralist and postcolonial theories about the decline of the European empires after World War II the global debt crisis and the weakening of western nation states in the postmodern era

The Anarchist in the Library Siva Vaidhyanathan, 2005-05-11 From Napster to Total Information Awareness to flash mobs the debate over information technology in our lives has revolved around a single question How closely do we want cyberspace to resemble the real world Siva Vaidhyanathan enters this debate with a seminal insight While we ve been busy debating how to make cyberspace imitate the world the world has been busy imitating cyberspace More and more of our social political and religious activities are modeling themselves after the World Wide Web Vaidhyanathan tells us the key information structure of our time and the key import from cyberspace into the world is the peer to peer network Peer to peer networks have always existed but with the rise of electronic communication they are suddenly coming into their own And they are drawing the outlines of a battle for information that will determine much of the culture and politics of our century affecting everything from society to terrorism from religion to the latest social fads The Anarchist in the Library is a radically original look at how this battle defines one of the major fault lines of twenty first century civilization

Re-presentations of Dante Gabriel Rossetti , From Hegel to Madonna Robert Miklitsch, 1998-01-01 Moves from the discourses of dialectical negation to cultural populist affirmation that is from Hegel to Madonna Studies in order to envision a mode of critique that can persuasively describe and explain the cultural contradictions of late capitalism

We Fight To Win Hava Rachel Gordon, 2009-10-09 In an adult dominated society teenagers are often shut out of participation in politics We Fight to Win offers a compelling account of young people s attempts to get involved in community politics and documents the battles waged to form youth movements and create social change in schools and neighborhoods Hava Rachel Gordon compares the struggles and successes of two very different youth movements a mostly white middle class youth activist network in Portland Oregon and a working class network of minority youth in Oakland California She examines how these young activists navigate schools families community organizations and the mainstream media and employ a variety of strategies to make their voices heard on some of today s most pressing issues war school funding the environmental crisis the prison industrial complex standardized testing corporate accountability and educational reform We Fight to Win is one of the first books to focus on adolescence and political action and deftly explore the ways that the politics of youth activism are structured by age inequality as well as race class and gender
