Flowers Of Hiroshima:

The Flowers of Hiroshima Edita Morris, 1959 A tale of present day Hiroshima and the aftermath of the atomic bomb The Flowers of Hiroshima Edita Morris, 1959 The Flowers of Hiroshima, Etc Edita Morris, 1959 Unfinished Atomic Bomb Cassandra Atherton, David Lowe, Alyson Miller, 2017-12-26 In its diversity of perspectives The Unfinished Atomic Bomb Shadows and Reflections is testament to the ways in which contemplations of the A bomb are endlessly shifting rarely fixed on the same point or perspective The compilation of this book is significant in this regard offering Japanese American Australian and European perspectives In doing so the essays here represent a complex series of interpretations of the bombing of Hiroshima and its implications both for history and for the present day From Kuznick s extensive biographical account of the Hiroshima bomb pilot Paul Tibbets and contentious questions about the moral and strategic efficacy of dropping the A bomb and how that has resonated through time to Jacobs reflections on the different ways in which Hiroshima and its memorialization are experienced today each chapter considers how this moment in time emerges persistently in public and cultural consciousness The discussions here are often difficult sometimes controversial and at times oppositional reflecting the characteristics of A bomb scholarship more broadly. The aim is to explore the various ways in which Hiroshima is remembered but also to consider the ongoing legacy and impact of atomic warfare the reverberations of which remain powerfully felt The Japanese and the War Michael Lucken, 2017-02-28 Memories of World War II exert a powerful influence over Japan's culture and society In The Japanese and the War Michael Lucken details how World War II manifested in the literature art film funerary practices and education reform of the time Concentrating on the years immediately before and after 1937 to 1952 Lucken explores the creation of an idea of Japanese identity that still resonates in everything from soap operas to the response to the Fukushima nuclear disaster Lucken defines three distinct layers of Japan's memory of World War II the population's expectations at the beginning the trauma caused by conflict and defeat and the politics of memory that arose after Japan lost to the Allied powers Emphasizing Japanese language sources Lucken writes a narrative of the making of Japanese cultural memory that moves away from Western historical modes and perspectives His approach also paints a new portrait of the U S occupation while still maintaining a cultural focus Lucken sets out to capture the many ways people engage with war but particularly the full range of Japan's experiences which he argues the Japanese state has yet to fully confront leading to a range of tensions at home and abroad New Zealand Journal of Crop and Horticultural Science/Experimental Agriculture ,1989 Flowers, Dragons & Pine Trees Mary M. Dusenbury, 2004 This beautifully illustrated volume introduces a little known but outstanding collection of Asian textiles in the Spencer Museum of Art at teh University of Kansas The Nightmare Considered Nancy Anisfield, 1991 These essays assess the nature of nuclear war literature from a variety of perspectives Scholars activists novelists poets and teachers challenge nuclear ideologies and traditional readings of apocalyptic texts Included Holocaust literature of the 1950s Michael Odenwald, James R. Turner, 2006 Highlighting more than 1 000 plants from trees and shrubs to vines and grasses this updated edition of Odenwald and Turners guide keeps with a traditional emphasis on the practical use of plants to solve and prevent landscape design problems The Literature of Absolute War Nil Santiáñez, 2020-05-28 This book explores for the first time the literature of absolute war in connection to World War II From a transnational and comparative standpoint it addresses a set of theoretical historical and literary questions shedding new light on the nature of absolute war the literature on the world war of 1939 45 and modern war writing in general It determines the main features of the language of absolute war and how it gravitates around fundamental semantic clusters such as the horror terror and the specter The Literature of Absolute War studies the variegated responses given by literary authors to the extreme and seemingly unsolvable challenges posed by absolute war to epistemology ethics and language It also delves into the different poetics that articulate the writing on absolute war placing special emphasis on four literary practices traditional realism traumatic realism the fantastic and catastrophic modernism of Exhibitors, 1904 Thoughts and Words charles J Hierons, 2025-01-20 The text is a compilation of reflections and poetic narratives exploring various themes of the human condition nature and personal growth It blends nostalgic reminiscences of familial warmth with philosophical musings on life s transience and the cycle of birth death and renewal Key themes include mindfulness love existential dread and the balance between life s challenges and moments of peace The narrative examines the interconnectedness of life through nature s rhythms advocating for living in the present It touches on societal issues such as exploitation of nature gender balance and the toll of professional success on personal well being Through stories and metaphors the text highlights the importance of appreciating life's limited time connections with others and finding tranquility amidst life s chaos Overall the document emphasizes the pursuit of a balanced fulfilling existence while reflecting on the continuous cycle of life and the journey of the soul Trauma and Visuality in Modernity Lisa Saltzman, Eric M. Out of Ground Zero Joan Ockman, 2002 The events that took place in New York on 11 September 2001 are the background for this series of essays exploring the response of different cities at different times to natural or man made disaster Case studies include the earthquake that shook Lisbon in 1755 and the bombing of Hiroshima Sensorium Barbara Bolt, Felicity Colman, Graham Jones, 2021-02-10 This book presents a timely reconfiguration of the relations between art philosophy ethics and aesthetics Through connection with a range of contemporary social and philosophical issues and movements this collection of essays highlights the imperative of sensorial aesthetics. The book focuses on the radical philosophical approach to aesthetics enabled by the works of Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Gilles Deleuze From these philosophers an older meaning of aesthetic has been recalled Before it indicated primarily the theory of art and beauty aesthetic referred to the sensibility the capacity to receive sensations In summoning this sensorial meaning of aesthetics in their respective works Lyotard Deleuze and other recent thinkers turn the philosophical theory of aesthetics away from the dominance of cognitivist and reception theories and towards a thinking of aesthetics through considerations of the movements of matter affect and sensation This vital transformation of aesthetics in turn allows a reconfiguration of the relationship between the domains of art aesthetics and philosophy If aesthetics focuses on sensation rather than cognition then artists musicians and philosophers alike appear not only as phenomenological and empirical thinkers but as experimenters with the parameters of the sensible able to extend our perceptual interface with the world Rather than artists deferring to philosophers in regard to the meaning of their works this new understanding of aesthetics suggests that philosophers ought to defer to artists who are understood as inventers in the realm of sensibility
