Flowers of Three Centuries Fitzwilliam Museum, David Scrase, 1983      Dictionary Of British And Irish Botanists And Horticulturalists Including plant collectors, flower painters and garden designers Ray Desmond, 2020-12-23

Over the past four centuries botanists and gardeners in the British Isles have gathered maintained and propagated many varying species of plants Their work has been documented in innumerable books and articles which are often difficult to trace The Dictionary of British and Irish Botanists and Horticulturalists represents a time saving reference source for those who wish to discover more about the lives and achievements of the horticulturalists listed The dictionary s utility comes not only from indicating the major publications of the named authors but also the location of their herbaria and manuscripts The previous 1977 edition of the Dictionary has for many years been a much used source of information for botanists botanic artists and archivists In this revised edition the scope has been expanded to include among its 13 000 entries flower painters in addition to botanical artists over 1400 entries and for the first time garden designers Finally the Dictionary should have international appeal since so many botanists and gardeners worked on collective plants overseas in particular in North America and the British Commonwealth Each entry gives wherever possible details of dates and places of birth and death educational qualifications professional posts honours and awards publications location of plant collections manuscripts drawings and portraits Its main function however is to provide further biographical references to books and periodicals Comprehensive classified indices facilitate access by professions and activities countries and plant interests      Three Centuries of Travel Writing by Muslim Women Siobhan Lambert-Hurley, Daniel Majchrowicz, Sunil Sharma, 2022-08-02

When thinking of intrepid travelers from past centuries we don t usually put Muslim women at the top of the list And yet the stunning firsthand accounts in this collection completely upend preconceived notions of who was exploring the world Editors Siobhan Lambert Hurley Daniel Majchrowicz and Sunil Sharma recover translate annotate and provide historical and cultural context for the 17th to 20th century writings of Muslim women travelers in ten different languages Queens and captives pilgrims and provocateurs these women are diverse Their connection to Islam is wide ranging as well from the devout to those who distanced themselves from religion What unites these adventurers is a concern for other women they encounter their willingness to record their experiences and the constant thoughts they cast homeward even as they traveled a world that was not always prepared to welcome them Perfect for readers interested in gender Islam travel writing and global history Three Centuries of Travel Writing by Muslim Women provides invaluable insight into how these daring women experienced the world in their own voices      The Manor: Three Centuries at a Slave Plantation on Long Island Mac Griswold, 2013-07-02 In 1984 the landscape historian Mac Griswold was rowing along a Long Island creek when she came upon a stately yellow house and a garden guarded by looming boxwoods She instantly knew that boxwoods that large twelve feet tall fifteen feet wide had to be hundreds of years old So as it happened was the house Sylvester Manor had been held in the same family for eleven generations Formerly encompassing all of Shelter Island a pearl of 8 000 acres caught between the North and South Forks of Long Island the manor had dwindled to 243 acres Still its hidden vault proved to be full of revelations and treasures including the 1666 charter for the land and correspondence from Thomas Jefferson Most notable was the short and steep flight of steps the family had called the slave staircase which would provide clues to the extensive but little known story of Northern slavery Alongside a team of archaeologists Griswold began a dig that would uncover a landscape bursting with stories Based on years of archival and field research as well as voyages to Africa the West Indies and Europe The Manor is at once an investigation into forgotten lives and a sweeping drama that captures our history in all its richness and suffering

An Oak Spring Flora Lucia Tongiorgi Tomasi,1997-05-29 This is the latest volume in a major series that describes selections of the rare books manuscripts and other works of art held at Oak Spring Garden Library a collection formed by Rachel Lambert Mellon The 111 items chosen for this volume on floral illustration since the later Middle Ages include Books of Hours still life and vanitas paintings botanical prints and books of instruction of every kind from planting a garden to making flowers using colored papers or wax Lucia Tongiorgi Tomasi groups the works into chapters on such topics as florilegia women artists tulipomania Dutch and Flemish painting and exotic flowers from distant lands providing an introduction to each chapter that gives the contextual background necessary for a real understanding and appreciation of floral illustration past and present The sheer beauty as well as extraordinary skills encountered for example in manuscript florilegia by Jacob Marrel and Maria Sibylla Merian in hand colored books by Jacques Le Moyne de Morgues and G B Ferrari and in flower studies painted by John Constable Margaret Mee and others are testament to the high status accorded floral illustration over the centuries This handsome richly illustrated volume will attract all those with an interest in rare books and the history of art as well as horticulturalists botanists and garden historians
