Modernist Literature and European Identity Birgit Van Puymbroeck, 2020-05-13 Modernist Literature and European Identity examines how European and non European authors debated the idea of Europe in the first half of the twentieth century. It shifts the focus from European modernism to modernist Europe and shows how the notion of Europe was constructed in a variety of modernist texts. Authors such as Ford Madox Ford, T.S. Eliot, Gertrude Stein, Aimé Césaire and Nancy Cunard each developed their own notion of Europe. They engaged in transnational networks and experimented with new forms of writing supporting or challenging a European ideal. Building on insights gained from global modernism and network theory, this book suggests that rather than defining Europe through a set of core principles, we may also regard it as an open or weak construct, a crossroads where different authors and views converged and collided. World Literature in an Age of Geopolitics Theo D'haen, 2021-07-19 If you want to know how globalisation affects literary studies today, this is the book for you. Why has world literature become so hotly debated? How does it affect the study of national literatures? What does geopolitics have to do with literature? Does American academe still set an example for the rest of the world? Is China taking over? What about European literature? Europe's literatures? Do minor European literatures get lost in the shuffle? How can authors from such literatures get noticed? Who gains and who loses in an age of world literature? If those are questions that bewilder you, look no further: this book provides answers and leaves you fully equipped to dig deeper into the fascinating world of world literature in an age of geopolitics. European Encounters Carlos Reijnen, Marleen Rensen, 2014-04-20 European Encounters explores the making and remaking of ideas of Europe between 1914 and 1945 as a result of intellectual encounters and intellectual exchange. Against the background of the first half of the twentieth century, European intellectuals feverishly chased new and uncharted territories, most often across national borders. Their encounters with other intellectuals or ideas, cultures, concepts and practices produced new understandings of Europe and triggered projects for Europe's future. West European writers turned to Russian literature. Catholic politicians from Northern Europe embraced corporatist and fascist solutions from Mediterranean Europe. Scientists pointed at science and their network as sources of peace and reconciliation, and others committed themselves to the European federalism of the Pan-Europa Movement. This volume unravels the encounters and exchanges that lie at the roots of this attempt at rethinking Europe.

Cultural Organizations, Networks and Mediators in Contemporary Ibero-America Diana Roig-Sanz, Jaume Subirana, 2020-01-03 This book proposes an innovative conceptual framework to explore cultural organizations at a multilateral level and cultural mediators as key figures in cultural and institutionalization processes. Specifically, it analyzes the role of Ibero-American mediators in the institutionalization of Hispanic and Lusophone cultures in the first half of the 20th century by means of two institutional networks: PEN, the non-governmental writers' association, and the International Institute of Intellectual Cooperation predecessor to UNESCO Attempting to combine cultural and global history sociology and literary studies the book uses an analytical focus on intercultural networks and cultural transfer to investigate the multiple activities and roles that these mediators and cultural organizations set in motion Literature has traditionally studied major figures and important centers of cultural production but other regions and localities also played a crucial role in the development of intellectual cooperation This book reappraises the place of Ibero America in international cultural relations and retrieves the lost history of key secondary actors The book will appeal to scholars from international relations global and cultural history sociology postcolonial Studies world and comparative literature and New Hispanisms The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429299407> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Studying Transcultural Literary History
Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, 2012-03-12 In our globalised world literature is less and less confined to national spaces Europe centred frameworks for literary studies have become insufficient academics are increasingly called upon to address matters of cultural difference In this unique volume leading scholars discuss the critical and methodical challenges that these developments pose to the writing of literary history What is the object of literary history What is the meaning of the term world literature How do we compare different cultural systems of genres How do we account theoretically for literary transculturation What are the implications of postcolonial studies for the discipline of comparative literature Ranging in focus from the Persian epic of Majnun Layla and Zulu praise poetry to South Korean novels and Brazilian antropofagismo the essays offer a concise overview of these and related questions Their aim is not to reach a consensus on these matters They show instead what is at stake in the emergent field of global comparatism

Jean-Michel Guieu, Christophe Le Dréau, 2009 Au lendemain de la Seconde Guerre mondiale la nécessité de construire une Europe unie s'impose progressivement au sein du débat public et la tenue d'un Congrès de l'Europe La Haye du 7 au 10 mai 1948 rassemblement sans égal de quelque 800 personnalités représentatives des forces vives de l'Europe d'alors en est l'illustration la plus éclatante Bien que souvent citée cet événement n'avait encore donné lieu à aucune étude systématique et approfondie Cet ouvrage entend donc combler une lacune en livrant au lecteur le fruit de travaux menés autour du Congrès de La Haye par une trentaine d'historiens et de politistes issus de toute l'Europe Grâce à la mobilisation des
