Emerging Japanese Architects Of The 1990s:

Emerging Japanese Architects of the 1990s Jackie Kestenbaum, 1991 Emerging Japanese Architects of the 1990s introduces a new generation of architects to the west Six of the most exciting members of the fourth generation of architects to emerge in Japan after World War II Atsushi Kitagawara Kiyoshi Say Takeyama AMORPHE Norihiko Dan Hiroyuki Wakabayashi WORKSHOP and Hisashi Hara are profiled in this book amidst stunning photographs of their work these architects have been building and publishing extensively in Japan blessed by Japan's new wealth and love of new fashions and designs The six differ greatly in style and in education from Norihiko Dan who studied at Yale to Hiroyuki Wakabayashi who is self trained They express a variety of styles and many of their works are commercial projects They build restaurants hotels theaters and office buildings structures as practical and architecturally interesting as the buildings of their aesthetic precursors The book contains an introductory essay by Kestenbaum which places this generation in social and historical context and analyzes each of the architects' works The six architects profiled here are some of the best known in Japan today the ones to watch in the international architecture scene

Emerging Japanese Architects of the 1990s Jackie Kestenbaum, 1991 Emerging Japanese architects of the 1990s J. Kestenbaum, Contemporary Japanese Architecture James Steele, 2017-03-16 Contemporary Japanese Architecture presents a clear and comprehensive overview of the historical and cultural framework that informs the work of all Japanese architects as an introduction to an in depth investigation of the challenges now occupying the contemporary designers who will be the leaders of the next generation It separates out the young generation of Japanese architects from the crowded distinguished multi generational field they seek to join and investigates the topics that absorb them and the critical issues they face within the new economic reality of Japan and a shifting global order Salient points in the text are illustrated by beautiful descriptive images provided by the architects and from the extensive collection of the author By combining illustrations with timelines and graphics to explain complex ideas the book is accessible to any student seeking to understand contemporary Japanese architecture Area Bibliography of Japan Ria Koopmans-de Bruijn, 1998 Provides a general overview of literature relating to Japan and covers a broad range of subject matter from art feminism and linguistics to corporate culture history and medicine Includes books published since 1980 that are related to the geographical area of Japan and to Japanese culture within that area Makers of 20th-Century Modern Architecture Donald Leslie Johnson, Donald Langmead, 2013-05-13 Makers of 20th Century Modern Architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture The book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including Wright Eisenman Mies van der Rohe and Kahn It describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples The profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects Each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography      Building a New Economy D. Hugh Whittaker, 2024 Building a New Economy uses an evolutionary conceptual framework of states and markets organizations and technology and institutional change It shows how the institutional coherence of the manufacturing centred postwar model broke down and was followed by the ideological and institutional dissonance of the lost decades      Construction Index , 1994      Designing Emerging Markets Giaime Botti, 2023-05-22 This book offers a unique glance into the process of globalisation of the architectural practice during the last three decades through the lenses of innovative methodologies in architectural history based on quantitative data Focusing on the golden age of globalisation 1990 2019 it investigates the transnational work of more than one thousand architectural firms of different business models from Europe North America and the Asia Pacific in a broad sample of emerging markets Mainland China South East Asia India the Persian Gulf Sub Saharan Africa Russia and Kazakhstan and Latin America In the book different thematic geographies are presented to explore the global scope of the contemporary profession examine significant projects and the structural conditions behind them and reveal the debates that such works generated Understanding the global agency of design firms in emerging markets also becomes a way to study different market conditions modes of production and architectural trends comparatively and to highlight the shifts that occurred in the profession over the last few decades The use of quantitative methodologies produces a novel and updated narrative on contemporary architecture in emerging markets grounded in quantitative data rather than in preassumptions and purely qualitative interpretations Richly illustrated this book is further enhanced by an ample set of maps graphs and tables to visualise data better      Abstraction and Transcendence Pham Thanh Hien, 1998 This thesis introduces Tadao Ando a well known Japanese architect who is currently working on an emerging concept in the discourse of architecture and is opening an approach of high sensibility sensual reflective flexible and complex sensitively matching with every moment of life and conceptualism rational logically approaching truth that is widely considered one of the most important ways of thinking and designing architecture In the introduction chapter Tadao Ando s is introduced as a master of architecture and as a critic Secondly his goals objectives concepts and strategies are outlined These aspects are grouped and developed into major themes Those themes will later be interpreted in Chapter Four In the second chapter of the thesis the architecture of Tadao Ando is examined more closely through critics studies and his writings This part aims to open further discussions on the most substantial and important grounds and sources of his architecture which are interpreted in further detail in Chapter Four the key themes of his works and theories Being aware that Ando s architecture cannot be understood without grasping Japaneseness or the historical cultural and regional contexts of Japan the third chapter will be devoted to briefly introducing the origins philosophy traditions and culture of the country as well as major points of new waves of Japanese architecture both of which tangibly and intangibly serve as the foundation for Ando s architectural themes nature shintai and geometry as both abstract construct and substance This chapter is essential for understanding the foundation and context of Ando s thoughts that always determine his architecture Chapter Four is the key part of the thesis It focuses on two aspects Ando's philosophically based theoretical concepts and his major themes which have been introduced in the previous sections This chapter provides a general and coherent understanding of his work The concluding chapter summarizes the crucial points from among Ando's visions moving from origins and philosophical grounds through concepts strategies and theories to the unique solutions which he advances for problems of the age Thematically Tadao Ando's works may be shown to reveal Dialogue with Nature and Tradition cosmologies culture Shintai and Space mutual independence and penetration and Geometry spatial compositions minimalist form material and texture Among these three overriding themes there are many interrelated sub themes are also examined Download 1st chapter ByteSizeSystems Reader FREE and buy ByteSize b book for 5 00

Building a Modern Japan M. Low, 2005-05-05 In the late Nineteenth century the Japanese embarked on a program of westernization in the hope of building a strong and modern nation Science technology and medicine played an important part showing European nations that Japan was a world power worthy of respect It has been acknowledged that state policy was important in the development of industries but how well organized was the state and how close were government business relations The book seeks to answer these questions and others The first part deals with the role of science and medicine in creating a healthy nation The second part of the book is devoted to examining the role of technology and business state relations in building a modern nation

□□□□□□□□, 1993      The Boston Globe Index, 1991      Itsuko Hasegawa Stephen Dobney, 1997 This monograph charts the evolution of Hasegawa's design process from her largely formal work of the late 1970s and early 80s to a more social architecture in recent years This evolution has allowed her to explore not only the problems of form as in her

Britain and Japan: Biographical Portraits, Vol. VI, 2007-05-31 There is no doubt that this sixth volume in the Japan Society's highly regarded Britain and Japan series contains many long overdue essays of leading personalities with links to Britain and Japan that will be welcomed by the researcher and general reader alike from the opening essay on Churchill and Japan by Eiji Seki to the concluding account by Rikki Kersten of the distinguished intellectual liberal Maruyama Masao's close relationship with Richard Storry and Oxford in particular and his interests in Britain in general Containing a total of thirty three entries thoughtfully and painstakingly compiled and edited by Hugh Cortazzi there may well be a case for arguing that the best has been kept until last Indeed by way of an Envoi the book concludes with an account of the Beatles visit to Tokyo in 1965 including a facsimile report for H M Government by the British Embassy's then first secretary Dudley Cheke Also of special interest are Hugh Cortazzi's portraits of Morita Akio and Honda Shoichiro as well as John Hatcher's fascinating record of Ian Fleming's 1959 five week visit to Japan on behalf of the Sunday Times The volume is divided up thematically and includes an Index of Biographical Portraits published to date by the Japan Society and by way of appendix a highly significant report by Robin Mountfield on the Nissan Negotiations of 1980-84 which resulted in the biggest foreign investment in car manufacturing in Britain     Building Innovation David Gann, 2000 David Gann considers the changes in the construction and use of the built environment that are currently emerging and how innovative practices and materials can be integrated into the construction process     Japanese Architecture as a Collaborative Process Dana Buntrock, 2014-09-04 Architects throughout the world hold Japan's best architecture in high regard considering the country's buildings among the world's most carefully crafted and innovative. While many books, magazines and exhibitions have focused on the results of architectural practice in Japan, this book is the first to explain the reasons for Japan's remarkable structures. Architecture does not occur in isolation; Japan's architects are able to collaborate with a wide variety of people from professional consultants to constructors. Dana Buntrock discusses architecture as a part of the construction community moving from historical precedents that predate the emergence of the architectural profession in Japan through to contemporary practices     Japan's New Regional Reality Saori N. Katada, 2020-07-07 Since the mid-1990s Japan's regional economic strategy has transformed. Once characterized by bilateralism, informality and neomercantilism, Japanese policy has shifted to a new liberal strategy emphasizing regional institution building and rule setting. As two major global powers, China and the United States, wrestle over economic advantages, Japan currently occupies a pivotal position capable of tipping the geoeconomic balance in the region. Japan's New Regional Reality offers a comprehensive analysis of Japan's geoeconomic strategy that reveals the country's role in shaping regional economic order in the Asia Pacific. Saori N. Katada explains Japanese foreign economic policy in light of both international and domestic dynamics. She points out the hurdles to implementing a state-led liberal strategy, detailing how domestic political and institutional changes have been much slower and stickier than the changing regional economics. Katada highlights state-market relations and shows how big businesses have responded to the country's interventionist policies. The book covers a wide range of economic issues including trade, investment, finance, currency and foreign aid. Japan's New Regional Reality is a meticulously researched study of the dynamics that have contributed to economic and political realities in the Asia Pacific today with significant implications for future regional trends.
