Emerging African Voices, West African Women in the Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2021-09-08 This book examines fictional works by women authors who have left their homes in West Africa and now live as members of the diaspora In recent years a compelling array of critically acclaimed fiction by women in the West African diaspora has shifted the direction of the African novel away from post colonial themes of nationhood decolonization and cultural authenticity and towards explorations of the fluid and shifting constructions of identity in transnational spaces Drawing on works by

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Buchi Emecheta Ama Ata Aidoo Sefi Atta Chika Unigwe and Taiye Selasie this book interrogates the ways in which African diaspora women's fiction portrays the realities of otherness hybridity and marginalized existence of female subjects beyond Africa's borders Overall the book demonstrates that life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey of expanded opportunities along with paradoxical realities of otherness Providing a vivid and composite portrait of African women's experiences in the diasporic landscape this book will be of interest to researchers of migration and diaspora topics and African women's and world literature

Spectres from the Past Portia Owusu, 2019-11-22 Spectres from the Past The History of Slavery in West African and African American Narratives examines the merit of the claim that West African writers in comparison to African Americans authors deliberately expunge the history of slavery from literary narratives The book explores slavery in contemporary West African and African American literature by looking at the politics of history and memory It interrogates notions of History and memory by considering the possibility that shared traumas such as West African and African American experiences of slavery can be remembered and historicised differently according to critical factors such as socio economic realities cultural beliefs and familial traditions At the heart of the book are compelling and new readings of slavery in six literary narratives that draws on cultural philosophies musicology and linguistics to demonstrate diverse and unusual ways that Black writers in West Africa and North America write about slavery in literature

Postnational Feminisms Hena Ahmad, 2010 Postnational Feminisms Postcolonial Identities and Cosmopolitanism in the Works of Kamala Markandaya Tsitsi Dangarembga Ama Ata Aidoo and Anita Desai offers a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial and Third World feminist studies It reevaluates the ways in which Third World women writers interrogate the relationship between woman and nation in the postcolonial context Hena Ahmad brings forth the concept of postnational feminism which she deploys to show how these major writers challenge the role of women as signifiers of national cultures in their works This innovative concept illuminates the ambivalence of these uniquely positioned writers as Ahmad explores the connection between postnationalism and Third World feminism BOOK JACKET Juju Fission

Elizabeth R. Baer, 2017-11-20 Examines literature and art to reveal the German genocidal gaze in Africa and the Holocaust The first genocide of the twentieth century though not well known was committed by Germans between 1904 1907 in the country we know today as Namibia where they exterminated thousands of Herero and Nama people and subjected the surviving indigenous men women and children to forced labor The perception of Africans as subhuman lacking any kind of civilization history or meaningful religion and the resulting justification for the violence against them is what author Elizabeth R Baer refers to as the genocidal gaze an attitude that was later perpetuated by the Nazis In The Genocidal Gaze From German Southwest Africa to the Third Reich Baer uses the trope of the gaze to trace linkages between the genocide of the Herero and Nama and that of the victims of the Holocaust Baer also considers the African gaze of resistance returned by the indigenous people and their leaders upon the German imperialists Baer explores the threads of shared ideology in the Herero and Nama genocide and the Holocaust concepts such as racial hierarchies lebensraum living space rassenschande racial shame and endlung final solution that were deployed by German authorities in 1904 and again in the 1930s and 1940s to justify genocide She also notes the use of shared methodology concentration camps death camps intentional starvation rape indiscriminate killing of women and children in both instances While previous scholars have made these links between the Herero and Nama genocide and that of the Holocaust Baer s book is the first to examine literary texts that demonstrate this connection Texts under consideration include the archive of Nama revolutionary Hendrik Witbooi a colonial novel by German Gustav Frenssen 1906 in which the genocidal gaze conveyed an acceptance of racial annihilation and three post Holocaust texts by German Uwe Timm Ghanaian Ama Ata Aidoo and installation artist William Kentridge of South Africa that critique the genocidal gaze Baer posits that writing and reading about the gaze is an act of mediation a power dynamic that calls those who commit genocide to account for their crimes and discloses their malignant convictions Careful reading of texts and attention to the narrative deployment of the genocidal gaze or the resistance to it establishes discursive similarities in books written both during colonialism and in the post Holocaust era The Genocidal Gaze is an original and challenging discussion of such contemporary issues as colonial practices the Nazi concentration camp state European and African race relations definitions of genocide and postcolonial theory Moreover Baer demonstrates the power of literary and artistic works to condone or even promote genocide or to soundly condemn it Her transnational analysis provides the groundwork for future studies of links between imperialism and genocide links among genocides and the devastating impact of the genocidal gaze Literary Crossroads Blessing Diala-Ogamba, Elaine Sykes, 2014-11-06 This book explores the different ways women have been liberating themselves from the shackles of patriarchy and cultural laws that inhibit their independence and freedom to show that women are also contributing meaningfully to society Women have worked to attain freedom through speaking out writing memoirs fiction plays poetry and essays The creative experiences of women are captured in this book thus fulfilling the book's aim to give women voices to air their views and show that they are effectual members of society The book examines the roles played by patriarchy religion and socioeconomic and political systems that keep women to the background It also examines the issue of education otherhood marginalization cultural imposition and the diverse positions of women in local and international affairs The book testifies that women's literature and the stories of women all over the world can be appreciated and viewed from different perspectives because of the diverse cultural environment in which women find themselves This confirms that the issue of marginalization suppression and oppression of women are on going problems in different societies around the world

Of Minstrelsy and Masks Christine Matzke, Remi Raji, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2006 This collection is dedicated to a distinguished scholar and writer who for a quarter of a century wrote consistently on African literature and the arts and was a major voice in Nigerian literary circles Ezenwa Ohaeto made a mark in contemporary Nigerian poetry by committing pidgin to written form and by so doing introducing different creative patterns He also saw himself as a minstrel as someone who wanted to read express and enact his work before an audience First and foremost however Ezenwa Ohaeto was someone who unmasked ideas and meanings hidden in the folds of literary works and made them available to an international academic public With his outstanding work on Chinua Achebe he influenced the reception of African literary biography His networks and connections were extensive and wide ranging and they are partly reflected in the essays creative writing and personal notes assembled in this volume In their various modes and expressions the contributions included here constitute a tribute to Ezenwa Ohaeto's many talents and achievements As an extension of Ezenwa Ohaeto's legacy they expand on various aspects of minstrelsy and the unmasking of texts in a Nigerian and broader African context The book is divided into six sections In Memoriam contains personal tributes by long standing colleagues mentors and friends Poetry and Fiction collects the voices of three generations of Nigerian writing from the 1960s to the present day followed by poetic and pictorial insights into the domestic and social life of the scholar and family man Section Four comprises two interviews while Sections Five and Six are devoted to critical evaluations of Ezenwa Ohaeto's work and to contemporary perspectives on Nigerian literature respectively

Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea, 2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors

Anyanwu, 2019-05-20 Scholarly studies on the Igbo have been scant and fragmented Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria The Igbo in Perspective fills an obvious gap exploring the social cultural economic political and aesthetic traditions that distinguish the Igbo of southeastern Nigeria from their neighbors In scope content and analysis this book is both multi and cross disciplinary focusing on the experiences and forces that have shaped the Igbo society identity formation and sociocultural political and aesthetic representations Themes such as the importance of Igbo names in understanding the people's social linguistic religious gender and cultural identities as well as the intersection of language politics socialization education and aesthetic expression in the Igbo experience in Nigeria are interrogated in a refreshing fashion with an appreciable level of originality

Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2006 Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Migration and Identity in Black Women's Literature brings together a series of essays addressing black women's fragmented identities and quests for wholeness The individual essays concern culturally specific experiences of blacks in select African countries England the Caribbean the United States and Canada They examine identity struggles by establishing the Middle Passage as the first site of identity rupture and the subsequent break from cultural and historical moorings In most cases the authors themselves have migrated from their places of origin to new spaces that present challenges Their narratives replicate the displacement engendered by their own experiences of living with the complexities of diasporic existence Their female characters many of whom participate in multiple border crossings work to define themselves within a hostile environment In nearly every essay the female characters struggle against multiple yokes of oppression giving voice to what it means to be black female poor old and alone The subjects migrations and journeys are analyzed as attempts to heal the displacement both physical and psychological that results from dislocation and relocation from the homeland imagined variously as Africa This volume reveals that black women across the globe share a common ground fraught with struggles but the narratives bear out that these women are not easily divided and that they stand upon each other's shoulders dispensing healing balms Black women's history and herstory commingle the trauma that ensued when Africans were loaded onto ships in chains continues to haunt black women and men too wherever they find themselves in this present moment of the Diaspora
