Emerging Pluralism The Samoan Community In New Zealand:

Emerging Pluralism David C. Pitt, Cluny Macpherson, 1974 Social research monograph on the role of traditional culture in the social integration of western samoan immigrants in New Zealand examines motivations for migration social structure based on clan and family religion and social status employment problems and describes the educational system and aspects concerning the social adjustment of samoans living in urban areas Bibliography pp 140 and 141 photographs and statistical tables

Migration and Transnationalism Helen Lee, Steve Tupai Francis, 2009-08-01 Pacific Islanders have engaged in transnational practices since their first settlement of the many islands in the region As they moved beyond the Pacific and settled in nations such as New Zealand the U S and Australia these practices intensified and over time have profoundly shaped both home and diasporic communities This edited volume begins with a detailed account of this history and the key issues in Pacific migration and transnationalism today The papers that follow present a range of case studies that maintain this focus on both historical and contemporary perspectives Each of the contributors goes beyond a narrowly economic focus to present the human face of migration and transnationalism exploring questions of cultural values and identity transformations in kinship intergenerational change and the impact on home communities Pacific migration and transnationalism are addressed in this volume in the context of increasing globalisation and growing concerns about the future social political and economic security of the Pacific region As the case studies presented here show the future of the Pacific depends in many ways on the ties diasporic Islanders maintain with their homelands

Reinventing Capitalism in New Zealand Chris Wilkes, 2019-05-02 In the nineteenth century Britain bestrode the world Its domination depended in part on it exporting its social and economic problems to the farthest reaches of the globe In Aotearoa New Zealand Britain's lite thought they had found a ready made country in which to re-establish their way of life This invasion might ease their problems at home and extend their influence to the edge of the earth White settlers began to arrive in New Zealand in numbers during the 1840s and sought to reinvent capitalism in a new land This book traces the shape of this reinvention and the slow emergence of New Zealand's particular form of class structure The book will be of interest to anyone concerned with the history of capitalism and its colonial ambitions It sheds light on the enduring nature of inequality in New Zealand and where it might originate Students of political science sociology history and cultural studies will find its arguments of interest

The Western Samoan Kinship Bridge Kallen, 2023-07-31 Sociologies of New Zealand Charles Crothers, 2018-04-13 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the various sociologies of New Zealand from the late 19th century to the present day Opening with previously undocumented insights into the history of proto sociology in New Zealand the book then explores the parallel stories of the discipline both as a mainstream subject in Sociology departments and as a more diffuse sociology within other university units The rise and fall of departments specialties and research networks is plotted and the ways in which external and internal factors have shaped these is explained Different generations of sociologists including many immigrants are each shown to have left their unique mark on New Zealand sociology The author demonstrates that the rising interest in topics specific to New Zealand has been accompanied by increasing capacities to contribute to world sociology This book will have inter disciplinary appeal across the social sciences and provides a valuable study of the development of sociology in a semi peripheral country Saili Matagi Leulu Felise Va'a,2001 An exploration of the practice of fa a Samoa among migrants of the nature of the politics of traditionn within their communities and of the search for opportunities in new environments Su'esu'e Manogi: In Search of Fragrance Tui Atua Tupua Tamasese Ta'isi Efi,2018-07-06 This book is a celebration of His Highness Tui Atua Tupua Tamasese Ta isi Efi s intellectual and cultural legacy to Samoa providing Tui Atua s writings and thoughts on Samoan indigenous knowledge It was first compiled and published as a festschrift in commemoration of his seventieth birthday Tui Atua is Samoa s Head of State and is currently the only holder of one of Samoa s four p p aristocratic chiefly titles Tui Atua The book also contains responses from fourteen of Samoa s leading and emerging scholars including two Rhodes Scholars based within and outside Samoa The book searches for the best of what His Highness terms the Samoan indigenous reference and enlarges our contemporary understandings of indigenous knowledge Migration and Development in the South Pacific John Connell,1990 Facing the Past Ann Beaglehole,2015-12-16 In her first book A Small Price to Pay Ann Beaglehole traced the experiences of European refugees to New Zealand in the 1930s In Facing the Past she focuses on the lives of a younger generation the children of those wartime immigrants whose perceptions and experiences of both the old and the new world were very different from their parents At school in the neighbourhood or on the sportsfield many of them were painfully aware of being outsiders in a society unused to cultural diversity Yet their need to belong was frequently complicated by loyalty to the very different ideals and expectations of their parents As one of them comments I was getting two messages the always remember message and the start from now message Based on a wide range of interviews as well as documentary evidence from second generation refugees worldwide this is a fascinating account of the lives of immigrant children growing up in the decades between the 1940s and 1960s Migration, Social Change, and Health Craig Robert Janes,1990 A Stanford University Press classic Leadership and Change in the Western Pacific R. Feinberg,K. A. Watson-Gegeo,2021-01-07 An ethnographic exploration of the rise of new forms of leadership at community and national levels with islanders are synthesising traditional and Western models Return Migration of the Next Generations Dennis Conway,2016-12-05 There is renewed interest in return migration among researchers of global movement patterns Until recently it was overlooked regarded as the result of failure by emigrants or related to the return of retired elderly migrants This important study looks at the one and a half and second generation migrants the youthful contract workers and the prolonged sojourners and the consequences of their return to source communities New Zealand Identities James Hou-fu Liu,2005 Social scientists attached to the Centre for Applied Cross Cultural Research at Victoria University of

Wellington examine issues of New Zealand identity      A Restorative Approach to Family Violence Anne Hayden, Loraine Gelsthorpe, Allison Morris, 2016-03-16 This volume provides an essential update on current thinking practice and research into the use of restorative justice in the area of family violence It contains contemporary empirical theoretical and practical perspectives on the use of restorative justice for intimate partner and family violence including sexual violence and elder abuse Whilst raising issues relating to the implications of reporting it provides a fresh look at victims issues as well as providing accounts of those who have participated in restorative justice processes and who have been victims of abusive relationships Contributions are included from a wide range of perspectives to provide a balanced approach that is not simply polemic or advocating Rather the book genuinely raises the issue for debate with the advantage of bringing into the open new research which has not been widely published previously Given its unique experience in the development of restorative justice the book includes empirical studies relating to New Zealand contextualized within the global situation by the inclusion of perspectives on practices in the UK Australia and North America This book will be key reading for people who work with violent offending of a family nature as well as for those who are interested in the study of family violence      Samoan Medical Belief and Practice Cluny Macpherson, La'avasa Macpherson, 1990 This is the first comprehensive study of Samoan music Cluny and La'avasa Macpherson have carried out intensive investigation into the practice and beliefs of contemporary indigenous healers or fof in Western Samoa to produce a fascinating and thorough study They explain convincingly why traditional Samoan medicine and its skilled practitioners continue to flourish alongside Western medical practice both in Samoa and in Samoan immigrant communities Back cover      An Indigenous Ocean Damon Salesa, 2023-11-01 The Pacific's Indigenous times are not just smaller sections of larger histories but dimensions of their own Histories of our Pacific world are richly rendered in these essays by Damon Salesa From the first Indigenous civilisations that flourished in Oceania to the colonial encounters of the nineteenth century and on to the complex contemporary relationships between New Zealand and the Pacific Salesa offers new perspectives on this vast ocean its people its cultures its pasts and its future Spanning a wide range of topics from race and migration to Pacific studies and empire these essays demonstrate Salesa's remarkable scholarship Bridging the gap between academic disciplines and cultural traditions Salesa locates Pacific peoples always at the centre of their stories An Indigenous Ocean is a pivotal contribution to understanding the history and culture of Oceania      Writing Across Worlds John Connell, Russell King, Paul White, 2002-11-01 International migration has long been a dominant feature of world literature from both post industrial and developing countries The increasing demands of the global economic system and continued political instability in many of the world's region have highlighted this shifting map of the world's peoples Yet political concern for the larger scale economic and social impact of migration has effectively obscured the nature of the migratory nature of the migratory experience itself the emotions and practicalities of departure travel arrival and the attempt to rebuild a home Writing Across Worlds explores an extraordinary range of migration literatures from letters and diaries to journalistic articles autobiographies and fiction in order to analyse the reality of the migrant's experience. The sheer range of writings Irish Friulian Italian Jewish and South Asian British Gastarbeiter literature from Germany Pied noir French Algerian and French West Indian writing Caribbean novels Slovene emigrant texts Japanese Canadian writing migration in American novels narratives from Australia South Africa Samoa and others illustrate the diversity of global migratory experience and emphasise the social context of literature. The geographic and literary range of Writing Across Worlds makes this collection an invaluable analysis of migration giving voice to the hope pain nostalgia and triumph of lives lived in other places.
