Hoekema, Marcel Maussen, Prakash Shah, 2016-12-05 Legal Practice and Cultural Diversity considers how contemporary cultural and religious diversity challenges legal practice how legal practice responds to that challenge and how practice is changing in the encounter with the cultural diversity occasioned by large scale post war immigration Locating actual practices and interpretations which occur in jurisprudence and in public discussion this volume examines how the wider environment shapes legal processes and is in turn shaped by them In so doing the work foregrounds a number of themes principally relating to changing norms and practices and sensitivity to cultural and religious difference in the application of the law Comparative in approach this study places particular cases in their widest context taking into account international and transnational influences on the way in which actors legal and other respond Zionism and the Roads Not Taken Noam Pianko, 2010-06-03 Uncovers the thought of three key interwar Jewish intellectuals who defined Zionism s central mission as challenging the model of a sovereign nation state historian Simon Rawidowicz religious thinker Mordecai Kaplan and political theorist Hans Kohn Writing British Muslims Rehana Ahmed, 2024-06-04 The Rushdie affair September 11 2001 and 7 7 pushed British Muslims into the forefront of increasingly fraught debate about multiculturalism Stereotyping images have proliferated reducing a heterogeneous minority group to a series of media soundbites This book examines contemporary literary representations of Muslims by British writers of South Asian Muslim descent including Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali and Nadeem Aslam to explore the contribution they make to urgent questions about multicultural politics and the place of Muslims within Britain By focusing on class and its intersection with faith race and gender in identity and community formation it challenges the dichotomy of secular freedom versus religious oppression that constrains thinking about British Muslims and offers a more nuanced perspective on multicultural debates and controversies Writing British Muslims will appeal to academics and postgraduate and final year undergraduate students in the fields of postcolonial studies English studies and cultural studies Long Journey Pitrim A. authors Vladimir Nabokov Robert Frank Alfred Hitchcock and Wim Wenders to unveil an early phenomenology of the postwar American highway one that anticipates the works of late twentieth century spatial theorists Jean Baudrillard Michel Foucault and Marc Aug and sketches a postmodern aesthetic of western mobility and consumption that has become synonymous with contemporary America Émigré Voices Bea Lewkowicz,Anthony Grenville,2021-11-22 In migr Voices Lewkowicz and Grenville present twelve oral history interviews with men and women who came to Britain as Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria in the late 1930s Many of the interviewees rose to great prominence in their chosen career such as the author and illustrator Judith Kerr the actor Andrew Sachs the photographer and cameraman Wolf Suschitzky the violinist Norbert Brainin and the publisher Elly Miller The narratives of the interviewees tell of their common struggles as child or young adult refugees who had to forge new lives in a foreign country and they illuminate how each interviewee dealt with the challenges of forced emigration and the Holocaust The voices of the twelve interviewees provide the reader with a unique and original source which gives direct access to the lived multifaceted experience of the interviewees and their contributions to British culture Post-beur Cinema Will Higbee,2013-07-22 Since the early 1980s filmmakers of Maghrebi origin have made a key contribution to the representation of issues such as immigration integration and national identity in French cinema However they have done so mostly from a position on the margins of the industry In contrast since the early 2000s Maghrebi French and North African migr filmmakers have occupied an increasingly prominent position in on both sides of the camera announcing their presence on French screens in a wider range of genres and styles than ever before This greater prominence and move to the mainstream has not automatically meant that these films have lost any of the social or political relevance of Beur cinema of the 1980s or the banlieue film of the 1990s Indeed in the 2000s these films have increasingly questioned the boundaries between national transnational and diasporic cinema whilst simultaneously demanding either implicitly or explicitly a reconsideration of the very difference that has traditionally been seen as a barrier to the successful integration of North African immigrants and their descendants into French society Through a detailed study of this transformative decade for Maghrebi French and North African migr filmmaking in France this book argues for the emergence of a Post Beur cinema in the 2000s that is simultaneously global and local in its outlook An absorbing introduction to this key development in contemporary French cinema Post Beur Cinema is essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies French Studies and Diaspora Studies The Glyndebourne Émigrés Nils Grosch,Beth Snyder,2025-06-30 In its first years of existence in the 1930s the Glyndebourne Festival Opera set out to internationalize English opera culture both by attracting international artists and by giving migr s the chance to further hone skills developed in Central Europe and beyond This book writes the history of those immigrants into the history of Glyndebourne The Great War Rakhshanda Jalil,2021-12-30 It is very hard to endure the bombs Father It will be difficult for anyone to survive and come back safe and sound from the war The son who is very lucky will see his father and mother Extract from a letter by an Indian soldier serving in France written on 14 January

1915 to his father The Great War as the First World War was referred to saw the service of over 13 million Indians of whom 74 000 never made it back home For their families the War was something they could not fully fathom Soldiers from the Indian subcontinent won over 12 908 awards for bravery including 11 Victoria Crosses Yet this unprecedented show of valour by Indian soldiers remains largely unsung and unrecognised particularly in India Commemorating hundred years of the end of the First World War this volume brings together diverse voices Rabindranath Tagore Mulk Raj Anand Sarojini Naidu Mohamed Ali Chandradhar Sharma Guleri and many more that reflect a variety of attitudes among Indians towards the War Included too are Rakhshanda Jalil's original translations of the works of Urdu poets of the time capturing their responses to the War This volume of writings originally written in Urdu Hindi Bengali and English attempts to recognise and remember the contribution of the unknown soldiers to the Great War

Bill Clinton: An American Journey Nigel Hamilton, 2003-09-30

Bill Clinton forty second president of the United States is the quintessential baby boomer on the one hand blessed with a near genius IQ on the other beset by character flaws that made his presidency a veritable soap opera of high ideals distressing incompetence model financial stewardship and domestic misbehavior In an era of cultural civil war the Clinton administration fed the public an almost daily diet of scandal and misfortune Who is Bill Clinton though and how did this baby boom saga begin Clinton's upbringing in Arkansas and his student years at Georgetown Oxford and Yale universities help us to see his life not only as a personal story but as the story of modern America Behind the closed doors of the house on the hill above Park Avenue in Hot Springs the struggle between Clinton's stepfather and mother became ultimately unbearable causing Virginia to move out and divorce Roger Clinton Dreading confrontation Bill Clinton excelled in almost every field save athletics But the fabled success of the scholarship boy would be marred by the decisions he came to make regarding Vietnam and military service choices that haunt him to this day We watch with a mixture of alarm fascination and awe as Bill Clinton does so much that is right and so much that is wrong He sets his cap for the star student at Yale young Hillary Rodham seducing her with his dreams of a better America and an aw shucks grin Wherever he goes he charms and disarms young and old men and women and more women He becomes a law professor straight out of college he contests a congressional election in his twenties and almost wins it He becomes attorney general of his state and within two years is set to become the youngest ever governor of Arkansas at only thirty two Yet always there is a curse a drive toward personal self destruction and with that the destruction of all those who are helping him on his legendary path His affair with Gennifer Flowers strains his marriage and later nearly scuttles his bid for the presidency He is thrown out of the governor's office after only one term and suffers a life shaking crisis of confidence Though with the stalwart help of a female chief of staff he regains his crown it is clear that Bill Clinton's charismatic career is a ceaseless tightrope walk above the forces that threaten to pull him down the most potent of them residing in his own being Imbued with sympathy deep intelligence and the storyteller's art this extraordinary biography helps us at last to understand the real Bill Clinton as he stumbles and withdraws from the 1988 presidential nomination race but enters it four years later to make one of the most astonishing bids for the presidency in the twentieth century the climax of this gripping political social and scandalous journey
