Emily Faithfull:

Collection of Emily Faithfull Material Emily Faithfull, The letter to A T Stewart an Irish entrepreneur who made millions with his dry goods business displays Faithfull s indefatigable efforts as editor of the Victoria Magazine as well as her business savvy and devotion to the women s movement Addressed from 35th East 39th St New York it reads in full Sir I should much like to include in my article on New York a notice of y ou r stove Gerrit Smith has come up to attend it they are unused so Stewart presumably didn t make the lecture Intimate Friends Martha Vicinus,2004-06-30 The book gives an overview of lesbian love over a period of 150 years Drawing upon diaries letters and other archival sources the author gives biographical information on well known and historically less recognised women Emily Faithfull and the Victoria Press ... William Evan Fredeman,Emily Faithfull,1973 Three Visits to America Emily Faithfull,1884 Broken Lights Frances Power Cobbe,1864 A Reed Shaken with the Wind Emily Faithfull,1873 Women, Work and the Victorian Periodical Marianne Van Remoortel,2015-08-24 Covering a wide range of magazine work including editing illustration poetry needlework instruction and typesetting this book provides fresh insights into the participation of women in the nineteenth century magazine industry The Biograph and review ,1881 A Magazine of Her Own? Margaret Beetham,2003-09-02 Like the corset the women s magazines which emerged in the nineteenth century produced a natural idea of femininity the domestic wife the fashionable woman the romancing and desirable girl Their legacy from agony aunts to fashion plates are easily traced in their modern counterparts But do these magazines and their promises empower or disempower their readers A Magazine of Her Own is a lively and revealing exploration of this immensely popular form from its beginnings In fascinating detail Margaret Beetham investigates the desires images and interpretations of femininity posed by a medium whose readership was and still is almost exclusively female A Magazine of Her Own is at once a chronological tracing of the history a collection of intriguing case studies and an intervention into recent debates about gender and sexuality in popular reading It is a book which anyone who is interested in the unique influential world of the woman s magazine students scholars and general readers alike will want to read Mid-Victorian Poetry, 1860-1879 Catherine Reilly,2000-01-01 These two volumes list late and mid Victorian poets with brief biographical information and bibliographical details of published works The major strength of the works is the discovery of very many minor poets and their work unrecorded elsewhere Gender and the Victorian Periodical Hilary Fraser,Judith Johnston,Stephanie Green,2003-12-08 Table of contents Reforming Trollope Deborah Denenholz Morse,2016-04-01 Trollope the reformer and the reformation of Trollope scholarship in relation to gender race and genre are the intertwined subjects of eminent Trollopiian Deborah Denenholz Morse s radical rethinking of Anthony Trollope Beginning with a history of Trollope s critical reception Morse traces the ways in which Trollope s responses to the political and social upheavals of the 1860s and 1870s are reflected in his novels She argues that as Trollope s ideas about gender and race evolved over those two crucial decades his politics became more liberal The first section of the book analyzes these changes in terms of genre As Morse shows the novelist subverts and modernizes the quintessential English genre of the pastoral in the wake of Darwin in the early 1860s novel The Small House at Allington Following the Second Reform Act he reimagines the marriage plot along new class lines in the early 1870s in Lady Anna The second section focuses upon gender In the wake of the Second Reform Bill and the agitations for women s rights in the 1860s and 1870s Trollope reveals the tragedy of primogeniture and male privilege in Harry Hotspur of Humblethwaite and the viciousness of the marriage market in Ayala s Angel The final section of Reforming Trollope centers upon race Trollope s response to the Jamaica Rebellion and the ensuing Governor Eyre Controversy in England is revealed in the tragic marriage of a quintessential English gentleman to a dark beauty from the Empire s dominions The American Civil War and its aftermath led to Trollope s insistence that English identity include the history of English complicity in the black Atlantic slave trade and American slavery a history Trollope encodes in the creole discourses of the late novel Dr Wortle s School Reforming Trollope is a transformative examination of an author too long identified as the epitome of the complacent English gentleman

The Ladies' Repository ,1873 The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey s Lady s Book and Snowden s Lady s Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Frances Power Cobbe and Victorian Feminism Susan Hamilton,2006-04-04 This new book asks a key question what did it mean to have a Victorian feminist write for an established newspaper or periodical Using the example of Frances Power Cobbe it focuses on Victorian feminism and its political workings and urges us to reconsider what feminism looked like in the nineteenth century

Barbara Leigh Smith Bodichon Pam Hirsch,2010-12-07 Barbara Leigh Smith Bodichon was the most unconventional and influential leader of the Victorian women s movement Enormously talented energetic and original she was a feminist law reformer painter journalist the close friend of George Eliot and a cousin of Florence Nightingale As a painter Barbara is now recognised as a vital figure among Pre Raphaelite women artists As a feminist she led four great campaigns for married women s legal status for the right to work the right to vote and to education Making brilliant use of unpublished journals and letters Pam Hirsch has written a biography that is as lively and powerful as its subject recreating the woman in all her moods and placing her firmly in the context of women s struggle for equality The Church Monthly ,1862 Emily Faithfull, Victorian Champion of Women's Rights James Stuart Stone,1994-01-01 Arthur's Illustrated Home Magazine ,1873 The Sealed Letter Emma Donoghue,2009 Emily Fido Faithfull a spinster pioneer in the British women s movement is distracted from her cause by the details of her friend s failing marriage and affair with a young army officer in this drama of friends lovers and divorce Victorian style Barbara Leigh Smith Bodichon and the Langham Place Group Candida Ann Lacey,2013-07-04 First published in 1987 Reprints material from the 1850 s and 1860 s a period which marked a turning point in the history of British Feminism At the centre of this was Barbara Leigh Smith Bodichon whose pioneering schemes to improve the status of women made these years some of the richest in debate and reform
