Eminent Europeans:

Eminent Victorians Lytton Strachey, 1925 Eurocentrism Michael Wintle, 2020-09-01 This book raises awareness of Eurocentrism's enormous impact and shows how over the course of five centuries Eurocentrism has extended its power across the globe. In the twenty-first century Eurocentrism's hegemony remains powerful. By exploring a wide range of sources including Eurocentric maps and images, historiography, and Rudyard Kipling's White Man's Burden, Wintle uncovers Eurocentrism's gradual evolution and reveals the ways in which it functions at both seen and unseen levels. Taking a thematic and then empirical approach, Eurocentrism offers a detailed and comprehensive discussion of Eurocentrism's problems and dangers, pays special attention to the work of Samir Amin and James Blaut, and applies notions garnered in the book to discuss Eurocentrism within the context of the twenty-first century European Union. This study questions Eurocentrism's function, its history, and its importance, providing a fresh insight into one of the world's most complex and powerful cultural phenomena. With its multi- and interdisciplinary analysis, this book is an indispensable tool for both scholars and students concerned with modern history, politics, visual culture, and political geography.

The Character of Races as Influenced by Physical Environment, Natural Selection and Historical Development Ellsworth Huntington, 1924 The Idea of Europe, 2021-03-22 Recent developments within and beyond Europe have variously challenged the very idea of Europe, calling it into question and demanding reconsideration of its underlying assumptions. The essays collected here reassess the contemporary position of a perceived European identity in the world, overshadowed as it is by the long antecedents and current crisis of triumphalist Eurocentrism. While Eurocentrism itself is still a potent mind-set, it is now increasingly challenged by intra-European crises and by the emergence of autonomously non-European perceptions of Europe. The perspectives assembled here come from the fields of political, cultural, and literary history, contemporary history, social and political science, and philosophy. Contributors are Damir Arsenijević, Luiza Bialasiewicz, Vladimir Biti, Lucia Boldrini, Gerard Delanty, César Domínguez, Nikol Džuić, Rodolphe Gasché, Aage Hansen, Lieve Shigemitsu Inaga, Joep Leerssen, and Vivian Liska.

New Borders for a Changing Europe Liam O'Dowd, James Anderson, Thomas M.
