Emotional Pieces Of Life:

The Awakening, Pieces of Life Volume 2 Serena T. Wills, 2019-12-11 From the author of Reconstruction Pieces of Life Volume 1 and Crying Tears of Teal Serena continues where she left off with a book filled with the ebbs and flow of life while one is healing from a relationship As one was reconstructing their foundation based on giving too much of themselves to someone in Pieces of Life Volume 1 and rediscovering their spirituality and loving themselves other things were happening The pathway still has its challenges and opposition such as work place blues racial incidents illness and losing loved ones It also has great joy and opportunities are birthed through creativity taking a leap of faith and rediscovering one's passion Come along this new poetic journey that reflects on the path of one being raised without a father trials and tribulations cradling a baby born to a teenage mother and beginning to discover their true calling in life Experience The Awakening I read Serena's poetry book every morning as a form of mental sustenance and meditation She has brought more beauty to my world Lindsay Greene ESQ Your writing is a gift from God utilize it in every way possible Kendall Washington Published Author

Step-by-Step Guide to Living with Less David Morgan, Do you ever feel overwhelmed by the clutter in your home your schedule or even your thoughts How to Declutter Your Life and Simplify Everything offers a practical easy to follow guide to reducing the noise and stress in every part of your life With step by step methods personal stories and helpful tips this book walks you through the process of decluttering your space streamlining your schedule simplifying your relationships and even calming your mind Whether you want to tackle your overflowing closet reduce digital distractions or learn how to let go of emotional clutter this book provides you with the tools to live a simpler more fulfilling life Say goodbye to chaos and hello to clarity and calm Life and Poetic Emotions LadyBlue2000,2011-07-28 I started writing many years ago At fi rst it was just mental therapy for me My doctor very great psychologist told me that if I wrote my feelings down on paper that it would help me feel better and cope with whats bothering me in my head I suffered many horrors in my life and I needed a way cope and live a normal life Well my life isnt exactly normal as you will read And neither are some of my poems The question for me to ask is anyones life really normal I wanted my life to be written so that the future generations of my family will know about me And will know of how I became the person that I ended up to be By accident I realized that I could write poems of many kinds A guarantee that you will laugh and sometimes cry and even learn from my poems Of how to love heal cope laugh cry live and get even through my poems Many of my friends online around the world give me subjects to write about To be their words for them to speak to others To help to Heal to dream reasons to live and reasons to want to pray And reasons to not want to die I thought to myself that if Im going to be a writer that I dont want to let one subject to be untouched To speak out words that I feel need to be heard through my poems I want my book to be of help to others for whatever needs they have And I pray with my whole heart that you get something good out of what you are about to read And whether you believe it or not you will fi nd in my book of something that you might need written in one or more of my poems And the life story is to help you know that your life is better than you may have thought In my poems there is something for everyone And that means you My e mail is written in my book if you would like to write me or even comment on my book Weather good or bad happy or sad I would like to know of how you feel Pieces of the Puzzle, Volume 4 - Spirituality and Faith Trinda

Latherow,2015-12-22 Pieces of the Puzzle One title four volumes and countless stories that tell of both the mysterious and miraculous aspects to our world and us An epic adventure for the soul Volume 4 Spirituality and Faith At the center of everything we think say and do is our spirituality and faith Life on an Emotional High Therapy,2007-05-24 Id describe this as my book of stimulation in poetry with experiences of my life for both men and woman to enjoy In this book I am divulging myself through poetry in a way different from others Stretching your imagination of what you think poetry is while expressing myself on many different levels At the same time Ill be giving you a hint at my experiences in conversations and thoughts with others Just me riding the roller coaster of life screaming and hollering waving my hands and having a good time with writing All of this while giving you secrets written in my poetry to leave you guessing and wondering is this about her her life her relationships in love life and marriage Who was that about Just making you wonder So many thoughts in my writing that it will make you wonder about me wonder about you and your life All of my writings are from my heart to my pen with a modest amount of modification and a minuscule amount of proofreading limited enough to keep my writings as real as possible In writing straight from your pen its never perfect and sending my book to be professionally proofread I thought would make my thoughts too unreal too commercial take some of my personality or zest out of my book I wanted my writings to be as if someone was really speaking through writing Even if my grammar was terrible it would be the real me The corrections I have done are straight from spell check from my laptop giggle now we all know how that could be but I did it anyway Ive exposed me and my thoughts in a way that has allowed me to sky rocket to another level to another me Ive extended to you Theaology THE STUDY OF THEA Thea and the life experiences she has surrounded herself in along with the joys of living to learn what life really was about and not the just the pretty picture we all want and or pretend it is My painting of life is an explosion of time painted in yellows and reds Colors of laughter and smiles that are to abundant to count Colors that allow me to stand in the wings of life and spilling it out to you in expression thoughts and short stores of which will allow you to think twice about your life experiences and enjoy every single moment that god has extended to you Now what I am asking for from each one of you while reading my book is to enjoy my book with an open mind Dont tear it down too much but read what I have to say and live in the joy of my development of it Let me explain briefly some of the chapters in this book Chapter one is about loves hurts joys and change that we all can relate to In reading you will get a picture of what love and life is about a picture of the happiness the sadness the ups and downs and the just plain sick and tired of love My poetry will express this in every way I could imagine Poetry of love so deep you will need a shovel to recover from it because it pulls you in and makes you shake your head to say Ive been there In this chapter there is a poem written in the form of a short story called An Un produced Movie of Romance It is a screen play rewind yes thats how I am going to describe it Its the perfect story for the question where is this love going Chapter two well Ive devoted this to the men its my own unique message for them My way of saying you are spectacular even when we dont tell you you shine I speak in this chapter as if I am one of the boys Ive removed that I am woman hear me roar attitude and Ive learned that I couldnt roar without them as loud as I can now In this chapter I play with 2 words Ive created do luscious and flow Read it youll see what I mean nothing but fun thoughts My other favorite poem is The Struggle it has a part one and a part two Some of the woman who read these 2 poems may find objection to what I have written But I had to say what I thought a man would say or wanted to say The Struggle was written The Life-Death Instinct Neil Maizels,2023-12-14 Throughout this enlightening collection Neil Maizels considers the helical tandem between the Life Instinct and the Death drive in the light of canonical literary figures like Thomas Hardy Patricia Highsmith Sylvia Plath and Shakespeare classic filmmakers like Hitchcock and contemporary television shows such as Curb Your Enthusiasm The West Wing and Succession This light is filtered through intricate clinical work whereby Maizels seeks to illustrate and expound on the strength and indefatigability of the Life Instinct. He makes a case for it as the relentless driver of integration and binding in the ever growing expansive psyche. He considers both Freud's original equation of the Life Instinct with Eros and a widening interconnecting love of mankind and Melanie Klein's with gratitude and creative reparation. This book is a multi-layered presentation of the clinical and theoretical work of Neil Maizels as it has evolved and convolved over several decades. It places the feeling through of one's conflicts at the heart of the mind's generation of a unique identity equipped to evolve its own unique form of creative spirit in the face of life's most pressing psychological challenges: the limitation of time and reciprocated beauty. The Life Death Instinct: Feeling Through Creative Clinical Moments is important reading for anyone seeking to expand their knowledge in this fascinating intersection of psychoanalysis and the arts. Michael Lewis, 2013-10-16

Synthesizing decades of influential research and theory, Michael Lewis demonstrates the centrality of consciousness for emotional development. At first, infants' competencies constitute innate reactions to particular physical events in the child's world. These action patterns are not learned but are readily influenced by temperament and social interactions. With the rise of consciousness, these early competencies become reflected feelings giving rise to the self-conscious emotions of empathy, envy, and embarrassment, and later shame, guilt, and pride. Focusing on typically developing children, Lewis also explores problems of atypical emotional development. Winner of the William James Book Award, Society for General Psychology, APA Division 1. Emotional Life - Managing Your Feelings to Make the Most of Your Precious Time on Earth. Doreen Davy, 2014-03-28

Emotional Life explains how we can harness our own emotional power in order to live happier, healthier, and more fulfilling lives. Quality of Life Assessment: Key Issues in the 1990s. S.R. Walker, Rachel M. Rosser, 2012-12-06

It was over five years ago that the Centre for Medicines Research organized a workshop entitled Quality of Life Assessment and Application. This workshop brought together a unique group of participants, some of whom had been involved in studies on quality of life for well over a decade, whilst others were meeting the subject for the first time. This blend of experienced researchers and enthusiastic newcomers was a great stimulus to the discussions which followed individual presentations as well as that resulting from the study groups. In the ensuing publication, a balance was sought between a consideration of the complex principles underlying the assessment of quality of life and the application of such assessments to specific clinical conditions which necessitated this approach. The organization in 1991 of a second workshop entitled Quality of Life Assessment: Key Issues in the 1990s resulted in a further consideration of the quality of life philosophy, concepts, and key instruments together with an update on assessing quality of life in a number of major disease areas. Of particular importance was an examination of various viewpoints concerned with ethical questions and their implications and quality of life from industry, regulatory, and health care purchasers' perspectives. As a result of this second workshop, the editors of the original book referred to above decided to produce a second edition with a number of updates and additional

Ready for Learning and Ready for Life Betsy Gunzelmann, 2016-12-19 Many of our children are poorly prepared to face the challenges of school and growing up in our complex society The term readiness is misrepresented in the field of education this book implies a different type of readiness involving a process that can be taught and nurtured within each child Going beyond what our schools typically assess to determine readiness to attend school which is often based upon age this book addresses the synergistic aspects of readiness learning and adaptation that allow children to be optimally ready to learning and capable of handling for challenges and transitions This more holistic and interactive understanding of readiness involves not only the typical physical development but also psychological aspects including the cognitive emotional spiritual behavioral and environmental pieces The goal of this book is to provide the necessary lens through which we can see what is really hindering many children in schools today along with possible approaches and interventions typically not seen as educational in nature but what may be just the needed prescription for our ailing youth

Successful Cognitive and Emotional Aging Colin A. Depp, Dilip V. Jeste, 2009-08-28 The critical importance of brain health to the well being of older adults is becoming increasingly clear However an important aspect that interests most people relates to what clinicians and their adult patients and family members can do to retain and even improve cognitive and emotional functioning as they age Successful Cognitive and Emotional Aging thoroughly discusses the neuroscience of healthy aging and presents effective strategies for staying lively engaged and positive The book is organized into three parts The first one focusing on behavioral and psychosocial aspects strives to place cognitive aging in a broad context With chapters that explore such topics as the meaning of wisdom the role of spirituality in healthy aging and what centenarians can teach us about cognition and emotion this section sets the stage for a rich robust yet nuanced treatment of its subject The second part addresses the biological aspects and presents the scientific foundations of cognitive aging as well as reviews the research on the role of factors such as stress resilience and diet Finally the third section addresses prevention and intervention strategies in a practical down to earth fashion addressing questions such as What environments encourage physical activity and How can we promote resilience Several features of the book are especially noteworthy The book bridges the gap between popular science for a lay audience and the heavily theoretical academic approach of other books on the aging brain making it suitable not only for clinicians but for their patients and family members as well The fascinating story of an innovative intergenerational school makes the case for meaningful activity not just for the older participants but for the entire community and is suggestive of the plethora of possible programs that might prove effective at keeping the older population engaged and contributing. Results from a 70 year longitudinal study are extensively reviewed and identify the coping strategies that seem to bring about well being in older age. The most promising strategies for successful aging applicable to a large majority of the population are summarized by the editors so that clinicians as well as consumers of healthcare may implement them as they see fit. As the baby boomers reach what used to be considered old age the demand for evidence based strategies for retaining and improving cognition will only increase. Fortunately as the editors note it is never too early or too late to start working toward the goal of improving brain health.
