The Semantic Sources of the Words for the Emotions in Sanskrit, Greek, Latin, and the Germanic Languages Hans Kurath,1921      The Psychoneuroses and Their Treatment by Psychotherapy Joseph Jules Dejerine,E. Gauckler,1913      Heart and Emotion Michael Myrtek,2004 For clinical researchers students and researchers in biological psychology physiology psychophysiology cognitive psychology emotion The connection between acute emotional arousal and heart rate is well known both from poetry and from the evolutionary survival reflex known as the fight flight reaction The connection between stress and disease is also well known What is less well known is that the heart reacts to nearly all stimuli independently of physical exertion during both the day and the night These changes known collectively as the additional heart rate or AHR are mostly unconscious and to date have been hard or impossible to study in real life This book first presents a revolutionary new technique for monitoring and analyzing the additional heart rate during everyday life and then goes on to show that contemporary theories about emotion stress and disease are no longer tenable This technique the Freiburg Monitoring System allows heart rate changes not associated with physical activity to be assessed objectively in real life situations and to be compared with individuals subjective feelings at the time After describing the relevant models and the foundations of the technique the book

then moves on to present the most important results of recent research using the Freiburg Monitoring System This has involved more than 1 300 subjects of various ages both male and female including white and blue collar workers train and bus drivers dispatchers university students schoolchildren heart disease patients and patients with cardiac neurosis and rheumatic diseases and has looked at topics such as the perception of emotions the perception of the heart in healthy subjects and patients stress and strain at the workplace and during leisure time and physiological monitoring during the night Convincing research evidence obtained using a ground breaking new technique for examining the additional heart rate in natural se

Path of the Golden Heart Cindy Jarrett, 2015-11-05 Path Of The Golden Heart Conscious Dating In An Unconscious World the first book in Cindy Jarrett's Conscious Relationships Series is based on Cindy's pioneering work into the necessity for emotional maturity as the key for healthy and sustaining love relationships to succeed It is an in depth training that brings truth back into the dating process where single men and women can fully be their authentic selves while getting to know each other It brings an end to the suffering that has long been associated with dating It is a modern approach to dating that dispels the myths about the games in dating many authorities try to promote This training brings single people the necessary education as to why love has become so difficult to attain and what stands in the way of effortlessly entering into love relationships Readers are provided easy and accessible actions to take that makes Conscious Dating a welcomed relief Love what we all desire It matters most to us and drives us to do the most courageous to craziest of things Love is what gives us our supreme experiences and challenges It is our most powerful expression Love heals all things And love is our greatest teacher Yet love eludes us It is everywhere and missing in so many hearts We fear it We run from it We long for it We deserve it It is our birthright And it is this desire for love that brings us to the dating ritual again and again And love is not enough We need more than just love to build and sustain a healthy relationship We also need commitment clarity honesty character an inner life consistency maturity an open heart forgiveness training guidance consciousness more maturity healthy communications sensitivity have I said maturity yet and much much more We don't usually relate to love or love relationships with maturity in mind We don't necessarily declare that these elements are also what loving another requires

Head and Heart Fraser Watts, Geoff Dumbreck, 2013-08-26 Theologians and religious figures often draw a distinction between religion of the head and religion of the heart but few stop to ask what the terms head and heart actually denote Many assume that this distinction has a scriptural basis and yet many Biblical authors used the word heart as a synonym for mind In fact there isn't a strict separation of the two concepts until the modern period as in Pascal's famous claim that the heart has its reasons that reason can not know Since then many other philosophers and theologians have made a similar distinction The fact that this distinction has been so persistent makes it an important area of study Head and Heart Perspectives from Religion and Psychology takes an inter disciplinary approach linking the thinking of theologians and philosophers with theory and research in present day psychology The tradition of using framing questions that have been developed in theology and philosophy can now be brought into dialogue with scientific approaches developed within cognitive psychology and neuroscience Though these scientific approaches have not generally used the terms head and heart they have arrived at a similar distinction in other ways There is a notable convergence upon the realization that humans have two modes of cognition at their disposal that correspond to head and heart The time is therefore ripe to bring the approaches of theology and science in to dialogue an important dialogue that has been heretofore neglected Head and Heart draws on the unique expertise in relating theology and psychology of the University of Cambridge s Psychology and Religion Research Group PRRG In addition to providing historical and theoretical perspectives the contributors to this volume will also address practical issues arising from the group s applied work in deradicalisation and religious education Contributors include Geoff Dumbreck Nicholas J S Gibson Malcolm Guite Liz Gulliford Russell Re Manning Glendon L Moriarty Sally Myers Sara Savage Carissa A Sharp Fraser Watts Harris Wiseman and Bonnie Poon Zahl
