The Emperors' Album Stuart Cary Welch, 1987 Fifty leaves that form the sumptuous Kevorkian Album one of the world's greatest assemblages of Mughal art Metropolitan Museum of Art website The Emperors' Album Stuart Cary Welch, Marie Lukens Swietochowski, Wheeler McIntosh Thackston, 1987 An examination of fifty leaves that form the sumptuous Kevorkian Album one of the world's great assemblages of Mughal art Album Prefaces and Other Documents on the History of Calligraphers and Painters Wheeler McIntosh Thackston, 2001 Persian text and English translation of the major texts of album prefaces miscellaneous documents and travel literature from the Timurid and Safavid periods The \(De\)Legitimization of Violence in Sacred and Human Contexts Muhammad Shafiq, Thomas Donlin-Smith, 2021-01-21 This book provides a multidisciplinary commentary on a wide range of religious traditions and their relationship to acts of violence Hate and violence occur at every level of human interaction as do peace and compassion Scholars of religion have a particular obligation to make sense out of this situation tracing its history and variables and drawing lessons for the future From the formative periods of the religious traditions to their application in the contemporary world the essays in this volume interrogate the views on violence found within the traditions and provide examples of religious practices that exacerbate or ameliorate situations of conflict The Last Emperors Evelyn S. Rawski, 1998-11-15 The Qing Dynasty 1644 1911 was the last and arguably the greatest of the conquest dynasties to rule China Its rulers Manchus from the north held power for three centuries despite major cultural and ideological differences with the Han majority In this book Evelyn Rawski offers a bold new interpretation of the remarkable success of this dynasty arguing that it derived not from the assimilation of the dominant Chinese culture as has previously been believed but rather from an artful synthesis of Manchu leadership styles with Han Chinese policies A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture, 2 Volume Set Finbarr Barry Flood, Gulru Necipoglu, 2017-09-13 The two volume Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art sacred spaces palaces urbanism ornament arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods transregional connectivities talismans and magic consumption and networks of portability museums and collecting and contemporary art worlds the essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art architecture China Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa Sicily the New World Americas The Indian Portrait - 4 Anil Relia,2014-10-14 The Mughal documentation is known as the best recorded history of the world The catalogue is an attempt to showcase the lineage of the Mughal emperors who ruled in India and their heritage in terms of their lives pursuits art conquests administration alongwith a peep into their shrewd politics All works are part of a Mughal Muraqqa compiled by Hakim Ahsanallah Khan who was the chief adviser of the last Mughal Emperor Bahadur Shah Zafar in the year 1270 A H 1854 A D They were exhibited in October 2014 Portraiture in South Asia since the Mughals Crispin Branfoot,2018-06-30 One of the most remarkable artistic achievements of the Mughal Empire was the emergence in the early seventeenth century of portraits of identifiable individuals unprecedented in both South Asia and the Islamic world Appearing at a time of increasing contact between Europe and Asia portraits from the reigns of the great Mughal emperor patrons Akbar Jahangir and Shah Jahan are among the best known paintings produced in South Asia In the following centuries portraiture became more widespread in the visual culture of South Asia especially in the rich and varied traditions of painting but also in sculpture and later prints and photography This collection seeks to understand the intended purpose of a range of portrait traditions in South Asia and how their style setting and representation may have advanced a range of aesthetic social and political functions The chapters range across a wide historical period exploring ideals of portraiture in Sanskrit and Persian literature the emergence and political symbolism of Mughal portraiture through to the paintings of the Rajput courts sculpture in Tamil temples and the transformation of portraiture in colonial north India and post independence Pakistan This specially commissioned collection of studies from a strong list of established scholars and rising stars makes a significant contribution to South Asian history art and visual culture Art of the Islamic World Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2012 Family guide Dazzling details in folded front cover Art and Culture Ahsan Jan Qaisar,Som Prakash Verma,1996 The Present Volume Of The Annual Series Of Art And Culture Carrying The Sub Title Painting And Perspective Relates To The Following Themes A Cultural Set Up And Values B Sculpture And Painting And C Science And Technology The Articles Of The Volume Are Not Restricted To Any Particular Period Or Geographical Area Moreover The Purpose Is To Encourage Scholars To Think And Write In Terms Of Social Mores And Values As Far As Possible The Indian Portrait, 1560-1860 Rosemary Crill,Kapil Jariwala,2010 The role of the portrait in India between 1560 and 1860 served as an official chronicle or eye witness account as a means of revealing the intimate moments of everyday life and as a tool for propaganda Yet the proliferation and mastery of Indian portraiture in the Mughal and Rajput courts brought a new level of artistry and style to the genre Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan

Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations

Henri Bertin and the Representation of China in Eighteenth-Century France John Finlay, 2020-07-09 This is an in depth study of the intellectual technical and artistic encounters between Europe and China in the late eighteenth century focusing on the purposeful acquisition of information and images that characterized a direct engagement with the idea of China The central figure in this story is Henri Leonard Bertin 1720 1792 who served as a minister of state under Louis XV and briefly Louis XVI Both his official position and personal passion for all things Chinese placed him at the center of intersecting networks of like minded individuals who shared his ideal vision of China as a nation from which France had much to learn John Finlay examines a fascinating episode in the rich history of cross cultural exchange between China and Europe in the early modern period and this book will be an important and timely contribution to a very current discussion about Sino French cultural relations This book will be of interest to scholars in art history visual culture European and Chinese history

The Power of Art Caroline Campbell, 2024-01-02 An epic work of art history that will transform our understanding of the world by unlocking the human stories behind millennia of art Taking readers from ancient Babylon to contemporary Pyongyang the eminent curator Caroline Campbell explains art's power to illuminate our lives and inspires us to benefit from its transformative and regenerative power Unlike the majority of contemporary art history this book is about much more than the cult of artists personalities Instead each chapter is structured around a city at a particularly vibrant moment in its history describing what propelled its creativity and innovation The emotions and societies she evokes are highly recognizable revealing how great art resonates powerfully by transcending the boundaries of time

Cosmopolitanisms in Muslim Contexts Derryl N MacLean, 2013-09-23 Focuses on moments in world history when cosmopolitan ideas and actions pervaded specific Muslim societies and cultures exploring the tensions between regional cultures isolated enclaves and modern nation states

Emperor Qianlong's Hidden Treasures Nicole T. C. Chiang, 2019-08-15 In this stunning reassessment Nicole T C Chiang argues that the famous Qianlong art collection is really the collection of the imperial household in the Qianlong reign The distinction is significant because it strips away the modern Eurocentric preconceptions that have led scholars to misconstrue the size of the collection the role of nationalism in its formation the distinction between art and artifact and the actual involvement of the emperor in assembling the collection No one interested in Chinese art will be able to ignore the ramifications of this important study Emperor Qianlong's Hidden Treasures Reconsidering the Collection of the Qing Imperial Household argues that the size of the collection was actually smaller than previously stated Moreover the idea that the collection put the whole of the empire on display and thereby promoted political unity does not square with the reality that most of the collection was hidden away Instead the collection was primarily for the emperor's gaze alone Chiang further explains that the collection was largely the product of work done by many specialists working at the Qianlong court noting that the emperor often assumed a more supervisory role Preliminary drawings patterns models and prototypes of the items made in the imperial workshops also formed an important part of the collection as they served to establish standardized models used to run the imperial household The collection was thus both broader and narrower than previously stated Chiang has identified many misguided assumptions about the Qing imperial collection In their place she proposes a new definition of an imperial collection that does not give primacy to art objects This bold revisionist thesis may be controversial but it is important and deserves to be read widely for this exact reason Dorothy Ko Barnard College Columbia University Chiang makes a new argument which will contribute to the literature on Qing imperial art She shows that a distinction should be made between the Qianlong emperor's activities in commissioning objects from the palace workshop and his activities in accumulating assessing and cataloguing objects that went into what she calls the imperial household collection This work will attract wide attention from scholars in art history Evelyn S Rawski University of Pittsburgh

Faces of God: Images of Devotion in Indo-Muslim Painting, 1500-1800 Murad Khan Mumtaz, 2023-08-28 Islamic art is often misrepresented as an iconophobic tradition As a result of this assumption the polyvalence of figural artworks made for South Asian Muslim audiences has remained hidden in plain view This book situates manuscript illustrations and

album paintings within cultures of devotion and ritual shaped by Islamic intellectual and religious histories Central to this story are the Mughal siblings Jahanara Begum and Dara Shikoh and their Sufi guide Mulla Shah Through detailed art historical analysis supported by new translations this study contextualizes artworks made for Indo Muslim patrons by putting them into direct dialogue with written testimonies
