extensive archival research shows however that the racism of ministers and senior functionaries led rather than followed public opinion In the late 1940s the Labour government faced a birthrate perceived to be in decline massive economic dislocations caused by the war a huge national debt severe labor shortages and the prospective loss of international preeminence Simultaneously it subsidized the emigration of Britons to Australia Canada and other parts of the Empire recruited Irish citizens and European refugees to work in Britain and used regulatory changes to dissuade British subjects of color from coming to the United Kingdom Paul contends post war concepts of citizenship were based on a contradiction between the formal definition of who had the right to enter Britain and the informal notion of who was or could become really British Whitewashing Britain extends this analysis to contemporary issues such as the fierce engagement in the Falklands War and the curtailment of citizenship options for residents of Hong Kong Paul finds the politics of citizenship in contemporary Britain still haunted by a mixture of imperial economic and demographic imperatives LGBTQ+ Healthy

Imperial Intimacies Hazel V. Carby, 2021-10-12 Winner of the British Academy's Nayef Al Rodhan Prize for Global Cultural Understanding 2020 Highly commended for PEN Hessel Tiltman Prize 2020 A haunting and evocative history of British empire told through one woman's family story Where are you from was the question hounding Hazel Carby as a girl in post war London One of the so called brown babies of the Windrush generation born to a Jamaican father and Welsh mother Carby's place in her home her neighbourhood and her country of birth was always in doubt Emerging from this setting Carby untangles the threads connecting members of her family in a web woven by the British Empire across the Atlantic We meet Carby's working class grandmother Beatrice a seamstress challenged by poverty and disease In England she was thrilled by the cosmopolitan fantasies of empire by cities built with slave trade profits and by street peddlers selling fashionable Jamaican delicacies In Jamaica we follow the lives of both the white Carbys and the black Carbys including Mary Ivey a free woman of colour whose children are fathered by Lilly Carby a British soldier who arrived in Jamaica in 1789 to be absorbed into the plantation aristocracy And we discover the hidden stories of Bridget and Nancy two women owned by Lilly who survived the Middle Passage from Africa to the Caribbean Moving between Jamaican plantations the hills of Devon the port cities of Bristol Cardiff and Kingston and the working class estates of South London Carby's family story is at once an intimate personal history and a sweeping summation of the violent entanglement of two islands In charting British empire's interweaving of capital and bodies public language and private feeling Carby will find herself reckoning with what she can tell what she can remember and what she can bear to know Homelandings Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-09-21 Homelandings
