OECD Reviews on Local Job Creation Employment and Skills Strategies in Korea OECD,2014-10-15 This book examines the contribution of local labour market policy to boosting quality employment and enhancing productivity in Korea It focuses on the Bucheon and Busan regions

The Oxford Handbook of the Zambian Economy ,2024-08-23 This handbook offers a comprehensive and authoritative account of the Zambian economy including past and current trends The Zambian economy has evolved from simple and fragmented agrarian activities at the turn of the 20th Century into a wide range of organized and regulated modern economic activities today While the economy has largely revolved around the mining industry since the early 1920s when the extraction of copper and other mineral ores on the Copperbelt begun there has been a gradual broadening of economic activities over time with services now accounting for almost two thirds of gross domestic product GDP This book shows that since colonial times one of the persistent items on the economic development agenda in what is today known as Zambia has been the need to diversify the economy to reduce dependence on mining in terms of foreign exchange earnings and public revenue While the need to diversify the economy has been well acknowledged by successive Zambia governments including the current government achieving this goal has proved to be elusive so far By presenting a collection of well researched and empirically supported chapters on the key areas of the Zambian economy this volume gives readers a good sense of where the Zambian economy has come from where it is at the moment but also highlights the challenges and prospects for economic growth

New Growth and Poverty Alleviation Strategies for Africa Karl Wohlmuth,2009 This Volume XIV analyses the New Growth and Poverty Alleviation Strategies for Africa Institutional issues and perspectives in designing new growth and poverty alleviation strategies are considered in various case studies Cote d Ivoire Nigeria Botswana and Tanzania Other studies deal with institutional problems of resource rich countries after conflict Sudan and with the institutions to enhance environmental protection parallel with economic growth and poverty reduction Niger Further studies deal with institutions to bridge the gap between formal and informal entrepreneurial sectors in Kenya and Tanzania Local issues and perspectives for designing new growth and poverty alleviation strategies are considered in case studies on rural urban development gaps in Tanzania and on microfinance as an instrument for new growth and poverty alleviation strategies Tanzania and Eritrea A study on small farmers in Ghana provides information on the role they can play in value chains Two studies on Nigeria highlight the local and the sub regional health and poverty alleviation programmes and the relation to growth Book Reviews and Book Notes on the theme are part of the volume This Volume builds the foundation for a comprehensive strategy of policy reforms in Africa so as to integrate new growth and poverty alleviation strategies Complementary to Volume XIV is Volume XIII on New Growth and Poverty Alleviation Strategies for Africa International and Regional Perspectives Both Volumes are of importance for all those who work in African countries as officials executives managers researchers and policy makers but also for all those who actively support Africa s development concerns at the international regional country local and project levels They will experience this Volume XIV and also the complementary Volume XIII as indispensable sources of insight reference and inspiration It's Our Job Dr. Eoin Drea,Siegfried Mureşan,2015-04-15 The creation of jobs across Europe remains a key economic and social challenge for the EU Given the negative impact of the financial crisis on European citizens the EU s ability to promote effective job creation policies will be viewed as a major success of the wider integration process In this context a new approach is required to provide a growth based strategy for creating employment across Europe What is required is an achievable strategy based on the realities of modern EU labour markets This research based on an analysis of six member states provides a set of recommendations designed to reflect the current characteristics of the EU labour market This research concludes that 1 EU employment policies should be simplified and better co ordinated 2 Clearly defined action s should be introduced to further improve labour mobility 3 The focus of policymaking should be switched from combatting unemployment to creating jobs and 4 It is possible to finance the recovery by bridging the gap between investment and reform Development Assistance Strategies and Emigration Pressure in Europe and America Georges Photios Tapinos,1990 Full and Productive

Employment in Developing Economies Rizwanul Islam,2019-07-30 The United Nation s Sustainable Development Goals include a specific target for full and productive employment However what constitutes full employment in developing countries is not yet clearly understood And likewise there is no clear direction for developing strategies and policies to address this challenge Drawing on the author s deep knowledge of employment and inclusive development this book presents a broad framework which could enable us to pursue the challenging goal of full productive employment in developing countries It revisits the conceptual foundations of full employment and carefully examines the issue of suitable indicators for monitoring progress It also examines the challenges created by globalized production chains and labour market fluctuations caused by economic crises This book throws light on a major lacuna in development thinking on how the challenge of creating productive employment for all in developing countries needs to be addressed It provides a solution by re examining relevant theories and empirical evidence and by bringing out their implications for development strategies and policies Finally the focus falls on the effective implementation of employment strategies and policies This authoritative work will appeal to a diverse readership of academic researchers think tanks international organizations and development partners
