Employment Dynamics In Rural Europe:

Employment Dynamics in Rural Europe Ida J. Terluin, Jaap H. Post, 2000 Annotation In many European countries there has been a decline in the agricultural labour force providing a major challenge for the rural economy and society This book provides an analysis of rural employment dynamics in European Union EU member states The Dynamics of Hired Farm Labour A. Vandeman, J. Larson, J. Runyan, 2002 Hired seasonal labour forms a significant part of the agricultural workforce in many countries Key topics covered in this book include changes in the hired farm workforce area studies and community impacts and responses and the need for community services Women in the European Countryside Henry Buller, 2017-11-28 Much of the literature published so far on gender relations in rural areas has either focused on comparisons of the position of men and women or explored the position of women given prevailing structural forces and behavioural norms that restrict the autonomy of women as human agents This groundbreaking book broadens the debate by developing our understanding of how societal processes produce and sustain gender divisions particularly in rural areas highlighting aspects of rural women's lives previously invisible in the literature Illustrated by case studies from France Germany Greece Norway and Sweden the book examines the critical issues of education and training entrepreneurship leadership limited work and service opportunities social mobility and work experiences In doing so the contributors provide a fascinating comparative study of both national regional and broader European realities A New Approach to Rural Development in Europe John M. Bryden, Keith Hart, 2004 This work is based on reports from a research project funded by the European Union for the purpose of investigating differential economic performance among rural areas in similar geographic and policy environments in Scotland Greece Germany and Sweden The report identifies and measures the impact The Routledge Handbook of Comparative Rural Policy Matteo Vittuari, John Devlin, Marco Pagani, Thomas G. Johnson, 2019-10-16 This volume represents the result of almost two decades of trans Atlantic collaborative development of a policy research paradigm the International Comparative Rural Policy Studies program Over this period dozens of scientists from different disciplines but with a common interest in rural issues and policy have collaboratively studied the policies in North America Europe and other parts of the world A core element of the book is the idea and practice of comparative research and analysis what can be learned from comparisons how and why policies vary in different contexts and what lessons might or might not be transferable across borders It provides skills for the use of comparative methods as important tools to analyze the functioning of strategies and specific policy interventions in different contexts and a holistic approach for the management of resources in rural regions It promotes innovation as a tool to valorize endogenous resources and empower local communities and offers case studies of rural policy in specific contexts The book largely adopts a territorial approach to rural policy This means the book is more interested in rural regions their people and economies and in the policies that affect them than in rural sectors and sectoral policies per se The audience of the book is by definition international and includes students attending courses in agricultural and rural policy rural and regional studies and natural resource management lecturers seeking course material and case studies to present to their students in any of the courses listed above professionals working in the field of rural policy policy makers and civil servants at different levels seeking tools to better understand rural policy both at the local and global scale and to better recognize and comprehend how to transfer best practices Rural Transformations and Rural Policies in the US and UK Mark Shucksmith, David L. Brown, Sally Shortall, Jo Vergunst, Mildred E. Warner, 2012-02-27 This book examines the transformations of rural society and economy in the UK and US during the last half century and explores the significance of these trends and changes for community sustainability quality of life and the environment While both the UK and US are highly urbanised rural people and communities continue to contribute to national identity economic development and social solidarity as well as to environmental quality Contributors explore the degree to which rural people exhibit agency and autonomy rather than being merely passive in the face of exogenous forces of change in a globalised world They also illuminate very different policy approaches to rural policy in two advanced capitalist societies often thought to be similar and show how fundamental differences in rural policy approaches of the US and the UK are based on different social ideologies and values that shape policies relating to rural areas This book will help to stimulate transatlantic dialogue on rural scholarship and rural policy analysis while also contributing to theory and policy development It will be of interest to researchers students and everyone involved in the policy and practice of rural development

Agricultural Sector Issues in the European Periphery Anastasios Karasavoglou, Persefoni Polychronidou, 2019-01-10 Over the course of the past two decades peripheral European economies in the Balkans and in Eastern Europe have experienced significant structural changes and have adapted to the global economic environment Agriculture and the processing using and trading of agricultural products play an important role in their economies This volume covers several issues facing the contemporary agricultural sector in these countries such as the framework of the Common Agricultural Policy of the European Union the identification of an opinion leader portrait in agriculture the characteristics of using Information and Communication Technologies as tools in the partnerships and internal processes of enterprises throughout the whole agro food supply chain the increased need of small scale artisanal food businesses to seek new markets abroad the perceptions of Greek olive oil importers in the UK the barriers that Greek yogurt entrepreneurs face during their export activities the reasons for the differences in economic performance and the role of tangible and less tangible factors influencing development outcomes It will be of interest to researchers studying economic development agricultural economists businesses active in the primary sector and students of applied economic analysis Methodologies, Models and Instruments for Rural and Urban Land Management Mark Deakin, 2017-03-02 Illustrated with empirical case studies from Europe Africa and North America this book provides an overview of the wide range of innovative methodologies models and instruments currently being applied in the formation of and implementation of land management strategies It examines techniques such as data acquisition data modelling the legal instruments of land management and structural theories and applications ranging from historic land use to current programmes of urban redevelopment It then shows how these advance land management and development in practice Rural Areas Between Regional Needs and Global Challenges Walter Leimgruber,Chang-yi David Chang,2019-01-01

This book provides an up to date account of the many processes shaping and transforming rural space in various parts of the world The various case studies focus on the multi functionality of the rural world and the driving forces behind it The book demonstrates that rural areas are no longer simply characterized by an agricultural economy and instead accommodate multiple complementary activities It also touches upon two major changes that have taken place The first is the process of rurbanization which has led to the clear distinction between town and countryside becoming blurred urban traits have penetrated rural areas and rural traits have invaded towns The second change is that rural areas are increasingly seen as multi functional providers not only of food and other natural resources but also locations for the generation of renewable energy wind farms solar farms biogas and regions for the preservation of biodiversity These transformations have resulted in a new understanding and self image of rural areas and their populations Sustainable Rural Systems Guy Robinson,2016-04-01

In a neo liberal era where society in the Developed World is reliant on mass produced cheap foods and living standards are based on high consumption of non renewable energy and materials this book investigates the growing significance of sustainable systems in rural areas Drawing on a wide range of topical case studies primarily in the UK it provides an in depth analysis of the progress made towards sustainability within rural systems focusing specifically upon sustainable agriculture and sustainable rural communities The authors provide an overview of the various systems of sustainability currently being applied in the Developed World They highlight key environmental economic and social issues including post productivism alternative food networks organic farming GM foods conservation rural development programmes sustainable tourism local training schemes and community participation The various studies provide important lessons in the ongoing search for greater sustainability and suggest positive directions for future policy practice Baking Business Sustainability Through Life Cycle Management

João Miguel Ferreira da Rocha,Aleksandra Figurek,Anatoliy G. Goncharuk,Alexandrina Sirbu,2023-04-27 This timely and comprehensive text focuses on important recent advances in applied sustainability in the baking industry connecting all the current methods and strategies into a single book Those involved in bread production will find the latest developments at the theoretical and practical levels including information and communication requirements reporting and regulatory aspects economic and environmentally sustainable business models supply chain management life cycle assessment product and organizational environmental footprints and more For small bakery business owners to industry leaders and policymakers governmental authorities regulatory authorities and standardization bodies this book offers a compilation of technical information about sustainability in the market for the bakery sector Baking Business Sustainability Through Life Cycle

Management begins by presenting basic information on the life cycle assessment and product environmental footprint of the bread industry proposing an analysis of sustainability assessment using environmental and social footprints and providing recommendations for integral optimization of economic and environmental performance A second section focuses on sustainability in the baking industry providing a regional focus from Europe to the Americas to Africa and beyond The third section takes a deep look at economic feasibility and efficiency in the bread industry including the economic viability of different scenarios for bread based value chains and forming efficient business models for bakeries A final section zeroes in on the most up to date innovations in the current bakery industry including the impact of bakery innovation on business resilience growth commercial systems and new business models in regional food systems for farmers and companies based on multi actor approach Innovations within the bakery industry are at an all time high with new sustainability and economic models being introduced along with associated market risks This timely and ambitious text aims to cover all the most recent advances and methods for successful incorporation into bakery businesses International Bibliography of Economics Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2001-11-22 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Rural Balkans and EU Integration Università politecnica delle Marche. Dipartimento di economia,2006 Sustainable Land Management Floor Brouwer,2008-10-31 In large parts of the world the reduction in the viability of agriculture and rural areas is an escalating problem Sustainable Land Management offers a contemporary overview of the strategies employed to cope with the marginalisation of agriculture through analyses of case studies and regional trends in marginalisation The authors argue that complexities and driving forces governing marginalisation are not always the same across nations and regions due to climate geography economics legislation and political status This book illustrates in what form these complexities exist and how these unravel at the national and regional levels As the need to understand and cope with marginalisation processes has developed the concept of multi functionality has also gained a vital place in the string of coping strategies This work contributes essential knowledge for the development of marginalisation mitigation policy actions across the globe Informative and well documented this book will appeal to those researching and working in the fields of agricultural and resource economics rural geography environmental governance and sustainable development Territorial Cohesion in Rural Europe Andrew K. Copus,Philomena de Lima,2014-08-13 This book reflects on how the economies social characteristics ways of life and global relationships of rural areas of Europe have changed in recent years This reveals a need to refresh the concepts we use to understand measure and describe rural communities and their development potential This book argues that Europe has outgrown many of the stereotypes usually associated with it with substantial implications for European Rural Policy Rural structural change and its evolving geography are portrayed through regional typologies and the concept of the New Rural Economy Demographic change migration business networks and agricultural restructuring are each explored in greater detail Implications for equality and social exclusion and recent developments in the field of governance are also considered Despite being a subject of active debate interventions in the fields of rural and regional development have failed to adapt to changing realities and have become increasingly polarized This book argues that rural regional policy needs to evolve in order to address the current complex reality partially reformulating territorial or place based approaches and the New Rural Paradigm following a set of principles termed Rural Cohesion Policy

New Labour's countryside Woods, Michael, 2008-09-10 Rural policy has presented some of the most difficult and unexpected challenges to the New Labour government From the Foot and Mouth crisis to the rise of the Countryside Alliance from farm protests to concerns about rural crime rural issues have frequently seized headlines and formed the basis of organized opposition to the government Yet the same government elected with a record number of rural MPs has also proactively sought to reform rural policy This book critically reviews and analyses the development and implementation of New Labour's rural policies since 1997 It explores the factors shaping the evolution and form of New Labour's rural agenda and assesses the impact of specific policies Contributions examine discursive restructuring of the rural policy agenda the institutional reforms and effects of devolution the key political debates and challenges around hunting agricultural reform Foot and Mouth housing development and the right to roam and review policy developments with respect to crime social exclusion and employment in the countryside rural community governance and national parks New Labour's Countryside will be of interest to students of contemporary British politics and of rural studies and to anyone involved in the government and politics of the countryside

Nature and Agriculture in the European Union Floor Brouwer, Jan van der Straaten, 2002-01-01 Nature and agriculture both shape the European countryside and one of the main challenges for the years to come will be to strengthen their interaction for the future development of rural areas In this valuable and highly topical book the authors demonstrate how economics and ecology can play a critical role in maintaining and sustaining this relationship The book identifies the dilemmas facing European agriculture and explores their economic and ecological consequences The authors believe a better understanding of these problems will be crucial in recognising the potential options for the future role of agriculture and nature policy and will guide the identification of suitable policy instruments They highlight current threats to the relationship between agriculture and nature such as abandonment and intensification and demonstrate how these problems can be resolved by a rational policy mix The book also provides extensive empirical evidence from four case studies and concludes by scrutinising the major changes in market conditions and the Common Agricultural Policy which could upset this important but fragile balance between agriculture and nature

World Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Abstracts, 2000

EU Enlargement and the Environment JoAnn Carmin, Stacy D. VanDeveer, 2023-05-31 This volume focuses attention on key environmental and institutional changes associated with eastern expansion of the European Union assessing and challenging prevailing views about the outcomes and processes of this historic development Looking at four central themes capacity changes and limitations the EU s mixed messages and conflicting priorities non state actor roles and developments and the exchange of ideas and information the volume shows that enlargement will change the EU not just make it bigger and that EU officials and programs are improving aspects of environmental policy in CEE countries even as they are making others less sustainable This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal Environmental Politics Politiche di sviluppo rurale tra programmazione e valutazione Andrea Arzeni,Roberto Esposti,Franco Sotte,2003
