Leadership Reconsidered Ruth A. Tucker, 2008-12-01 While books and articles on leadership abound most of them are written by successful men who look at the world through the lens of a Western business model The standard for success is based on the bottom line financial growth in both the personal and corporate realms This perspective has infected Christian leadership literature as well In Leadership Reconsidered Ruth A Tucker calls for a revised definition one that abandons the love of power and success for the eternal value of legacy She challenges the assumption that a leader must by definition have followers be an extrovert crave recognition and dominate others Instead legacy encompasses the values of behind the scenes influence that are available to everyone and last beyond the grave This unique and refreshing perspective on leadership is accessible and engaging and will make an impact on anyone who takes it to heart
